

HALTON CATHOLIC DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

Seeks

TWO VOLUNTEER COMMUNITY MEMBERS

to serve on its

AUDIT COMMITTEE

Term of Office – THREE-YEAR TERM EFFECTIVE JANUARY 18, 2011

The audit committee will be comprised of three Trustees and two independent members drawn from the community at large. The primary role of the audit committee is to assist the board of trustees in fulfilling its duties related to governance and oversight. The duties of the audit committee fall under the following key areas: the financial reporting process, internal control framework, risk management practices, performance and function of the board's internal and external auditors and the board's compliance with its obligations under legislation. The Committee meets at least 3 times a year, plus ad hoc meetings as required. A formal training course will be provided to all committee members to clarify roles and responsibilities of audit committees for the school board sector. The training is scheduled for January 31st and February 1st, 2011.

Candidate Eligibility:

- Applicants must have sufficient accounting, senior financial management or other relevant business experience to understand public sector accounting and auditing standards.
- The applicant must not be a current employee or officer of the board or of any other district school board or school authority.
- The applicant must not have a parent, child or spouse currently employed by the board.

Submission of Applications

Suitably qualified candidates interested in serving on the audit committee are invited to submit a letter of interest and resume by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, November 26, 2010 to:

Michael W. Pautler, Director of Education and Secretary of the Board
Halton Catholic District School Board
802 Drury Lane, P.O. Box 5308

Everyone loves to get free stuff

The floppy-eared canine was giving away t-shirts. Duke the Dog, the mascot of the Marlies, approached our location at the Ricoh Coliseum and you would have thought he was handing out gold bricks.

On the loose

with MURRAY TOWNSEND

I was with a group of five adults and we were screaming and waving like our lives depended on it. "Duke! Duke! Over here, Duke! Please, Duke!"

In front of us people were doing the same, as were a group behind us from Austria.

Duke threw a t-shirt in our direction and one of the Austrian visitors snagged it and held it up triumphantly.

It didn't matter that most everybody there had already spent more than the cost of the t-shirt at the concession stand. Here was a chance to get something for nothing, and everybody went crazy.

It's the same thing at a baseball game. The actual ball doesn't have a lot of value, but if you get a foul ball or a home run ball it's like winning the lottery.

When I was in my early twenties I remember racing a young kid at Olympic Stadium in Montreal for a foul ball hit by Johnny Bench. Bench is one of the all-time greats in case you're not a baseball fan.

I beat the kid to the ball and couldn't have been hap-
