'C' squad first
A hard fought game between "B" team and "A" resulted in a 30 to 22 win for the "B" team Monday and locked them firmly into second place one point behind the league leading "C" team who have totalled seven points on wins and a tie.

The "A" squad is in third place with two points and trailing is Fred Ross' "D" squad with a point gained on a tie with Suzuki's league leading "C" team.

Proved the worth
The Monday encounter again proved the worth of M. Kendrick to the "B" team. His passes hit for all 30 points with Tom Blanchard being his favorite target throwing to him for two majors, K. Kishita and B. Sargent each getting one major while "sticky Fingers" Cummings was held to four points on two conversions and G. McLean got the other two points.

For the "A" squad good quarterbacking was supplied by Bob Hastie and Bob Hilliard, with passes going to R. Kierstead and Caughill for majors and P. Gates getting two conversions for four points. The other major was supplied by Hastie's run on a broken play.

Powerful
The "C" squad proved to be too powerful for the "D" squad Wednesday.

Suzuki, who directs the "C" squad from his quarterback position was involved in all 52 of his team points including a major and a two point conversion he scored himself.

Other majors were supplied (Continued on page 14)

Sam Sons win

Omagh Sam Sons midget girls rolled over Milton Optis 27-12 at the Martin St. diamond last Tuesday night in a lengthy game with plenty of hitting.

Heather Eves pitched four innings for Omagh with relief from Terry Alkema.

Heather Eves pounded out five hits with three hits each credited to Danica Wood, Darlene Kerkhof, Karen Minaker and Terry Alkema. Darlene Kerkhof batted a home run.

In the second game of the week the Sam Sons outplayed visiting Limehouse 17-8 after dropping a decision to the same team a week earlier.

Omagh pitching was provided by Nancy Townsend until the fifth inning when relief came from Heather Eves.

Their combined efforts from the mound held Limehouse to six hits while giving up three walks.

Omagh's strong batting was highlighted by four hits each from Diane Lepa and Nancy Townsend including a home run each with Darlene Kerkhof batting safely three times. Heather Eves, Brenda Vivian and Heather Kerkhof each hit safely twice with Danica Wood batting a single and a homer.
