

THE BASS DRUM provided the beat for the Burlington Teen Tour Band.

HAYRIDES on wagons pulled by Bill Watson's steam engine were among the attractions at the Upper Burlington Optimist Club's Day in the Park at Kilbride. A large crowd attended the Saturday event.

The Canadian Champion

Volume 114 No. 16

MILTON, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1975

SECOND SECTION

NANCY DUBUC was a victim of the dunking machine.

DIANE DeVogel won a first place ribbon in the races, presented by Margot Gaetan.

BETTY AND Donna Coulson tended the roasting corn.

Kilbride Day in the Park

DARCI MORLEY got a free balloon at the Burlington public libraries' display from Hazel Price.

ONE SACK race competitor gets some last minute advice while others wait for the starting signal.

MARKSMAN Jeff Inglis takes aim at the shooting gallery.

KEN HILL gives the wheel of fortune a spin.

Photos
by
Dave Pink