

More Day in the Park

Photos by Dave Pink

FISH POND patron Pam Jolly shows her catch to attendant Sue Graves at the Upper Burlington Optis Day in the Park Saturday.

LARGE CROWDS at the Day in the Park watch as the Burlington Teen Tour Band performs. The band was heartily applauded.

THE BURLINGTON Teen Tour Band provided music and marching expertise on the Kilbride Park field Saturday afternoon as part of the Upper Burlington Optimist Club's Day in the Park. Hundreds from the Milton and Burlington area attended the Day in the Park festivities.

JULIA BECKETT was one of the entrants in the art competition at Day in the Park.

BEVERLY TOBIA takes a quiet moment at the Upper Burlington Optimist Club's Day in the Park Saturday with one-and-a-half-year-old daughter Charlene.

Buy from the KING

&
feel like a QUEEN and/or
"Knight"

Syer's . . . Ole King-E-Boy

'NOW' IS THE TIME TO BUY . . . AND SAVE

GIGANTIC
Emergency Sale

30,000 SQ. FT. OF CARPET

THE SELECTION IS STAGGERING! THE SAVINGS GUARANTEED!

up to 50%
SAVINGS

Why This Emergency!

Well the word has it . . . that in three moons and one moat from now, Ole KING-E-BOY will be moving into his heavily mortgaged Warehouse Castle on Steeles Avenue, and he needs the coin to install the moats . . . you've got him at your mercy . . . all carpet must be sold or bartered. NO REASONABLE OFFER WILL BE REFUSED . . . no money down on our preferred credit plan.

ONLY AT SYER'S, THE CARPET KING

WE GUARANTEE YOU SATISFACTION
FRIENDLY SMALL TOWN SERVICE WITH BIG CITY DISCOUNTS

228 MAIN ST. 878-2067
ENTRANCE AND FREE
PARKING REAR OF STORE