Champs all the way

By Janet Rerecich
The Milton Mustang soccer teams trampled their crosstown rivals, E.C. Drury, in both the girls' and guys' games. The score of the guys' game was 7-0 for us.
Frank Hermans had a superb game, coming up with a phenomenal four goals. Gord Haines also had a good game and scored two goals. George Lema scored the final goal by heading the ball on a corner kick.
It was an easy victory for Milton. We had the ball most of the time and whenever the Spartans had it, they weren't given much of an opportunity to score.
The girls' game wasn't as unevenly matched as the score was only (?) 4-0 for Milton. Goals were scored by Virginia Van Grutel who had two and Renee Nolet and Maria Gilbert who came up with the other two. An excellent defensive game was played by Karen Lawson, Judy White, and Darlene Johnson.

REBEL RELAYS

Last Wednesday, the Mustang track team travelled to compete in the annual Rebel Relay meet at Sheridan College in Oakville. It is only a fun meet, to get a feel for what the competition will be like.

The best performance of the day came by the junior boys 4x800 m who placed a third overall. The team consisted of Phillip Dew, Lex Plater, Dave Nolet and Vince Bernabei.

The junior girls 4 x 100 m relay placed fourth in their heat with a time of 55.3 seconds.

The midjet girls 4 x 100 placed second in their heat but did not come in the top six overall. There were no results available for the boys 4 x 1600 relay.

INTRAMURALS

All last week people grabbed their rackets at lunch hour to play intramural badminton. The turnout was super and we have the final results of the ladder competition.

For the guys, Mark Saunders was top dog. Close behind were Jim Thring in second, Perry Martin in third, and Andrew Garside in fourth.

Tracey Morgan was tops for senior girls. Gabi Knauer placed second, Andrea Knauer placed third and Brenda Ryan was in fourth.

Now here are the individual point scores as they stood last week. Junior boys: Norm Rose, 162; Glen Faulkner, 146; Marco D'Augustino, 139; Kevin Foley, 131; Mike Belvedere, 115. Junior girls: Denise Worth, 112; Cyndie Funk, 97; Lynn Copeland, 96; Chris Koureiackes, 94; Amanda Kunica, 94. Senior boys: Perry Martin, 381; Jeff Lambe, 332; Jeff DeFreitas, 311; Ed Wrigglesworth, 296; Steve Coradetti, 277. Senior girls: Karen Lawson, 378; Gabi Knauer, 350; Norma Wilson, 319; Brenda Ryan, 311; Janet Rerecich, 310.

FORMAL

Just a reminder of the formal coming up on May 29. The ticket price has been raised slightly to $20 per couple for dinner and dance. As the date begins to draw near, the price will be $25. Get your tickets in advance and avoid paying the extra. Listen for more details as to when the price goes up.

Sound-alikes. Sam Ross (left) brought his mouthpiece Lois Ross along to the "Off Broadway" show at the high school, so Sam could do a ventriloquism act.

Messy meal. Gertrude and Clarence made a mess eating pudding at the "Off Broadway" production... the hands didn't belong to the faces.

School cabaret

'Off Broadway' hit

"Off Broadway," Milton District High School's third annual cabaret night, was a big success Wednesday. The crowd was small, but the talent was outstanding as students sang, acted and performed in an after-dinner setting in the school cafeteria.

A dinner of leagna was served, then the audience sat back for a two-act show.

The Scarlet Fever jazz band led off the show. Lorraine Roncato sang a solo, accompanied by Kathy Riding on flute. Lois Ross brought along her friend "Sam" for a ventriloquism act.

A clarinet duet included Shari Birch and Wally Hunter. Karen Ley, Brian Ley, Richard Nicholson and Robin May sang as a quartet.

A comedy act, "Clarence and Gertrude" was carried off by the faces of Eugene Cipparone and Heather Harris, and the hands of Chris Vanelli and Tammy Hasselfeldt. Tim Birch played the part of a waiter, using his OWN hands.

After intermission, the new rock band Salem performed, followed by a solo by Peg Cahoon and a return of Clarence and Gertrude and friends.

Cindy Boyce and Kelly Oversby sang solos. A dramatic reading was given by Robin Phillips, Kathy Riding and Randy Smith.

The show was emceed by Mike Barstow. Stage manager was Jill Pettigrew. Accompanists were Judy Hunter and John Herberman. Miss D. Carney organized the menu, while A.M. Pal and S. Charles were in charge of entertainment.
