

Science fair. Students at St. Peter's School staged a science fair as part of an education week open house last week. Anita Marchesich, Nadia Zoffranieri and Dawn St. Amour show off their generator set-up which worked lights, a fan and a moving sidewalk. All the senior students participated.

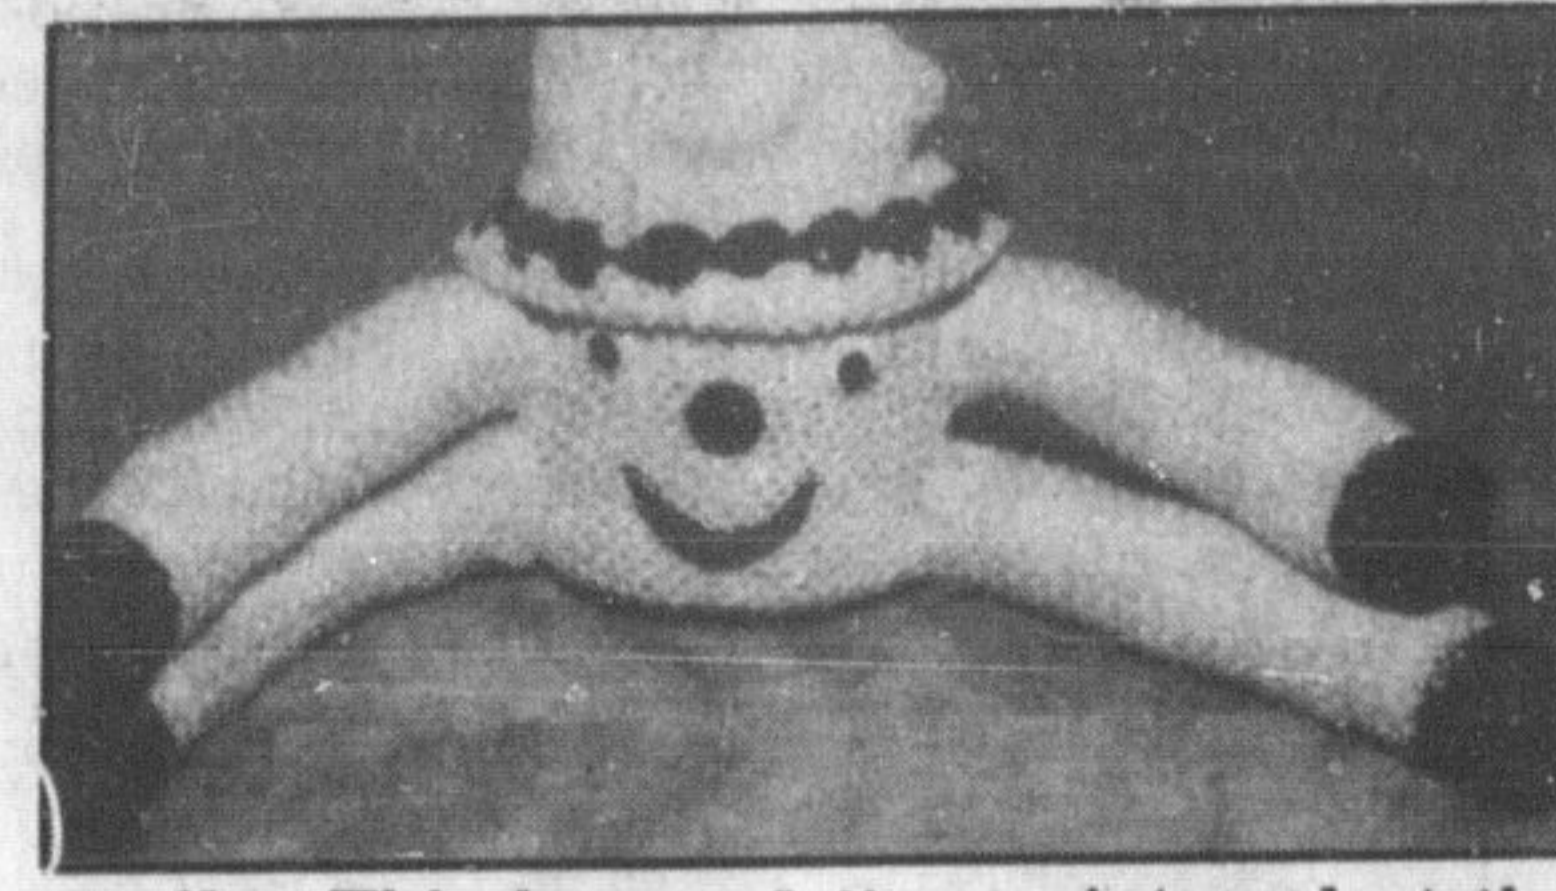

Proud builder. Jason Aquilanti constructed a campsite, tee pee, campfire and pond, then hooked it up with electricity as a project for the St. Peter's School science fair last week. The job combined his Indian and electrical studies. Jason (right) shows it off to friend Shaun Noronha.

Drury fashions. Simplicity Patterns cooperated with Ernest C. Drury High School and School for the Hearing Handicapped, on a slick fashion show in the school auditorium last week. Students were models and the school band played background music.

Manor bazaar. Folks flocked to Halton Manor last week for the annual bazaar, bake sale and tea. Milton Councillors' wives and firefighters' wives handled the bake table, which was sold out early. Jean Willis is shown selling Manor residents' crafts.

Ontario Place opens this Thursday!

That's right! Another summer full of fun, frolic and fantasy gets underway at Ontario Place this Thursday, May 14th. What's up? Lots.

At the Forum, the Good Brothers open the season at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, May 15. Dionne Warwick takes the stage at 3:00 and 8:30 on Saturday. The Rovers in Concert deliver two rollicking shows at 3:00 and 8:30 on Sunday, and Hagood Hardy and the concert Orchestra perform at 8:00 on the holiday Monday, followed by our dynamite fireworks display at 9:45.

Ontario North Now is a sight and sound experience that displays the excitement and beauty of Northern Ontario in 9 pavilions on the West Island.

The Bumper Boats are ready to go again. So are the Pedal Boats. The Theatres are ready. The Restaurants are ready. The Roller Rink too. In fact, all the things you've come to enjoy about Ontario Place (and some new treats too) are ready to go for 1981.
