

Who Does It

Trafalgar Rd. resurfacing

Halton Hills Mayor Peter Pomeroy has asked regional permission to extend road resurfacing on Trafalgar Rd. north to include Stewarttown.

During a discussion of a contract to bring the road up to standard, Mr. Pomeroy said the work from Highway 5 up to Ashgrove, should go up to 17 Sideroad. He said residents in the hamlet and area are under stress due to the high noise levels caused by the large volume of heavy trucks using Trafalgar Rd. He said one problem is a depression around manhole covers, which when run over by empty trucks, creates quite a din. The section to be resurfaced is considered by Public Works Director Bob Moore to be "the worst" road over which Halton has jurisdiction.

A study as to why the pavement had deteriorated found that poor quality materials were used; the materials were placed under wet conditions; and the high volume of trucks using the road.

The Administration and Finance Committee agreed to Mayor Pomeroy's request and has extended the length of the work. Halton council is to approve the recommendation today.

Recess fun

Youngsters at Denyes School have recess fun, climbing on this bird-like sculpture in the school yard. There's always a race to see who can get to the top first.
