Home of the Week

--Linda Kirby, Milton Champion

Spacious. Make no mistake, this kitchen is large enough for even the most active family. Plenty of cupboard and counter space make any chef's job a lot easier in this modern, bright kitchen.

Country bungalow minutes from town

The beauty of the countryside and the proximity to city services makes this home a treat.

A well maintained bungalow, it is situated on almost one acre of land and located only minutes from Milton.

Imagine a home surrounded by mature pines, lilacs and a cedar hedge.

For your summer pleasure, there is a sunken above-ground pool and patio at the rear. A breezeway separates the home from the double garage.

The tasteful decoration and immaculate condition of the interior make it a winner.

With three bedrooms and two complete bathrooms, this custom-built house offers many extra niceties.

These include a fireplace in the living room, finished recreation room with a Franklin style fireplace; games area and den and a workshop.

The large well-designed kitchen provides lots of room and cupboard space.

And both the living room and dining room have the luxury of a pretty countryside scene from the large windows.

Interested buyers should take note of one extra feature. Although this home carries no mortgage, the vendor is willing to take back a first mortgage to sell with a good down payment.

To make an appointment to view, please contact Miltowne Realty Corporation at 878-2365.

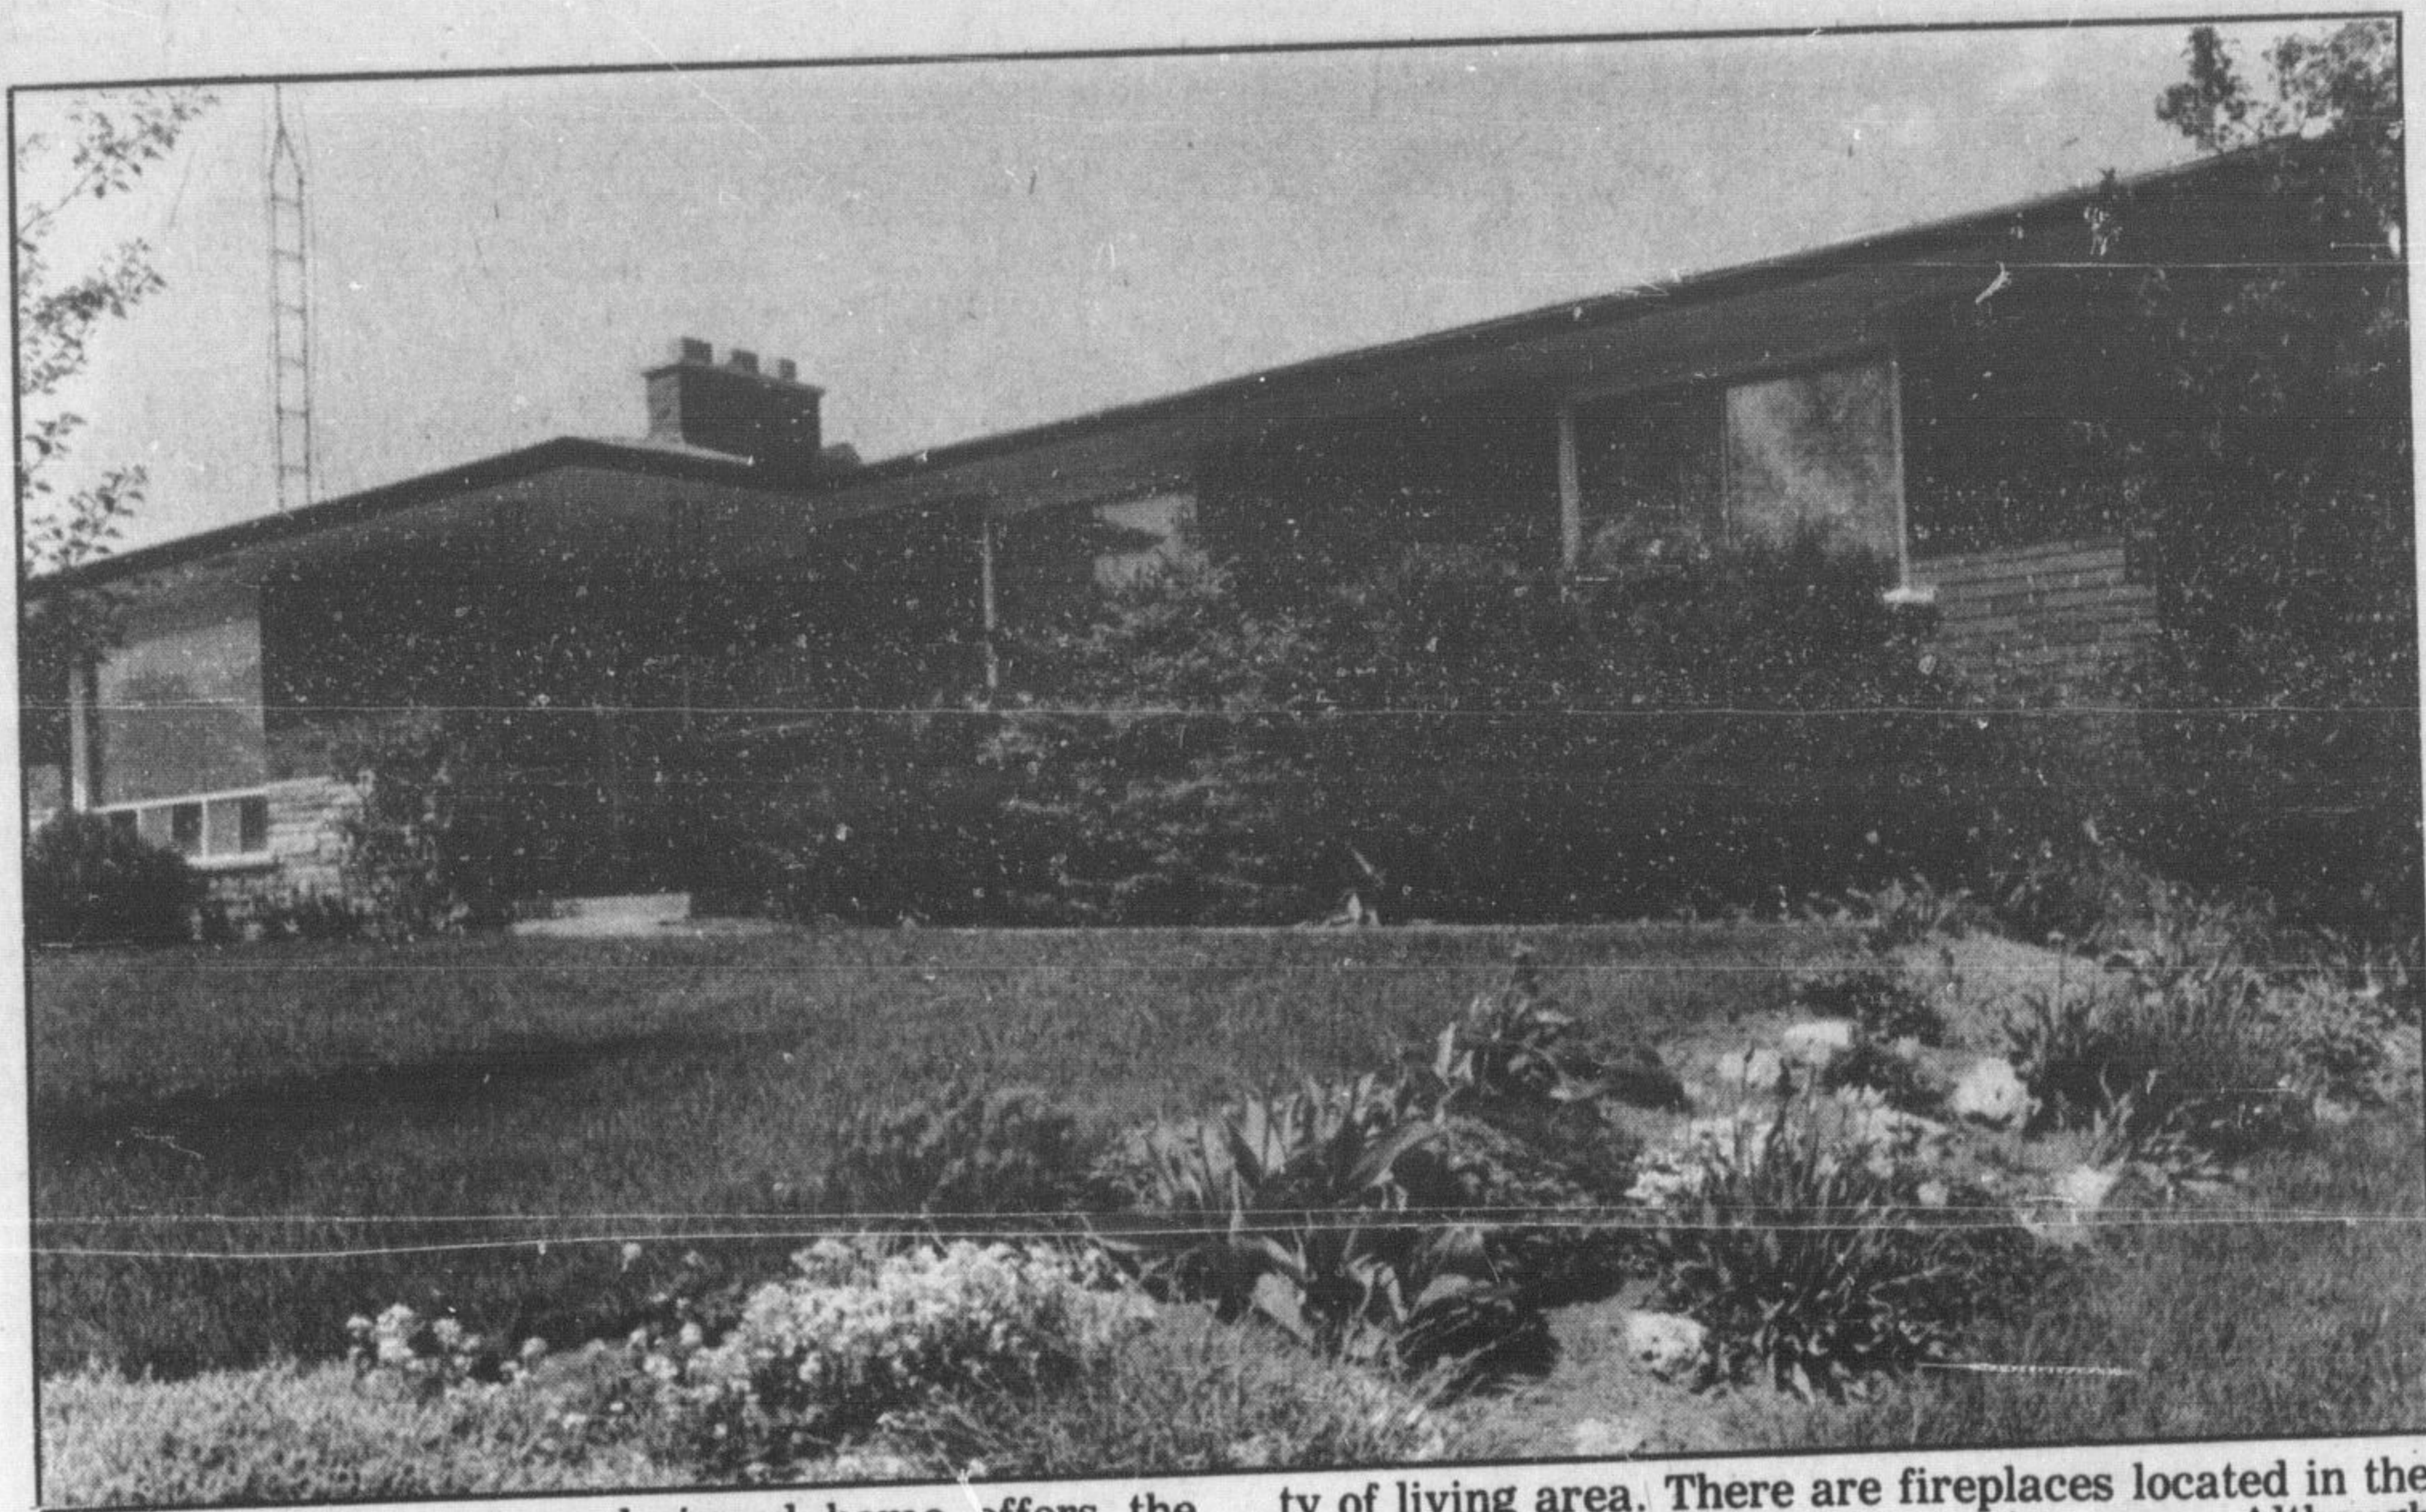

A pretty scene. The roomy dining area offers the extra advantage of a large picture window with a beautiful country scene beyond.

Comfortable but elegant. With a large fireplace, this living room makes entertaining special. A floor to ceiling window takes in a lovely view of the front lawn.

A party room. This downstairs recreation room, equipped with a Franklin style fireplace is large enough for all types of gatherings. Not shown at the other end of this room is a den area.

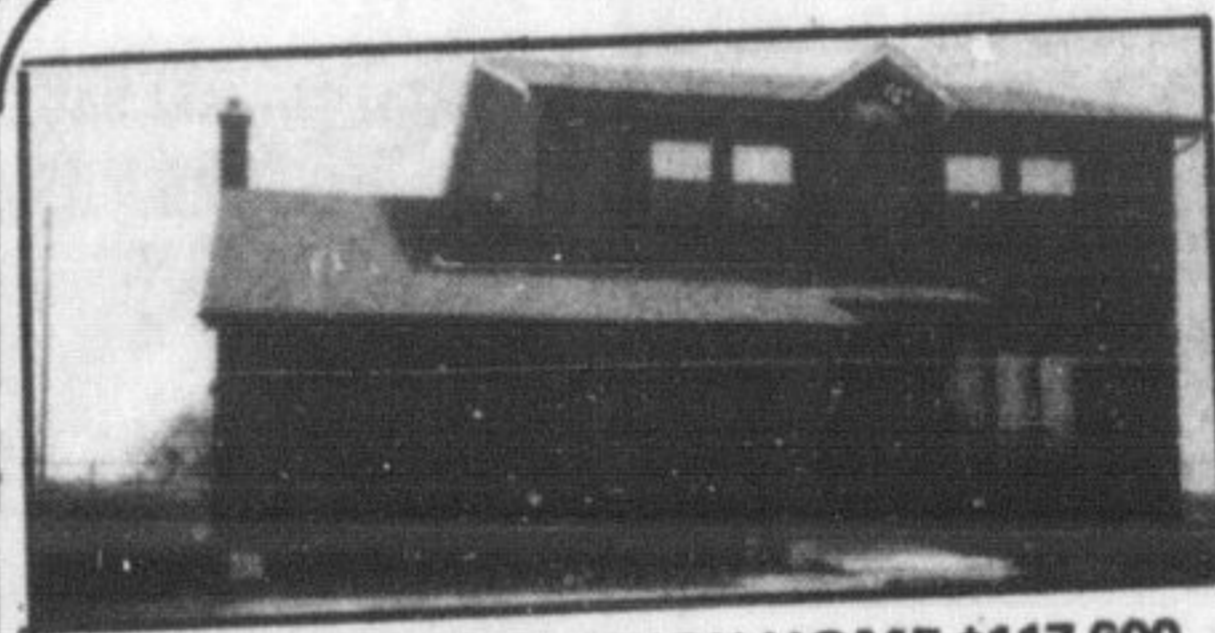

A beauty. This custom designed home offers the advantages of country living with nearby town facilities. Located on almost one acre of land, this house includes a sunken above-ground pool and patio at rear. The home is in immaculate condition and boasts plenty of living area. There are fireplaces located in the living room and finished recreation room. Although this home does not carry a mortgage, the vendor is willing to take back a first mortgage to sell with a good down payment.
