

Real Estate

Dining Elegance. This traditionally styled dining room offers the perfect spot for entertaining on those special occasions. It includes a large window overlooking the side lawn.

Spacious comfort

This two storey centre hall plan home offers spacious, comfortable and convenient living.

Located in Milton's Dorset Park area, the house is close to all of the town's amenities, including a separate and public school within walking distance.

Entertaining is made simple with the large living room and separate formal dining room.

The kitchen is well designed for easy meal preparation with lots of cupboard and counter space and a large eating area overlooking the sunken family room.

Also located on the main floor are a powder room and a mud room.

On the second level are three bright and roomy bedrooms plus a master bedroom with a walk-in closet and three-piece ensuite.

Financing assistance is available from the vendor.

To view this home, please call Stella Parton at Bayley MacLean Real Estate Ltd., 878-0565 or 622-1122.

Spacious. Plenty of room is the nicest feature of this living area. The huge front window overlooks the front area of the home.

Kitchen bliss. With plenty of cupboard space and counter top areas, nobody will be able to complain about doing kitchen duties. The breakfast area at one end of the kitchen also makes it handy to feed the family on informal occasions.

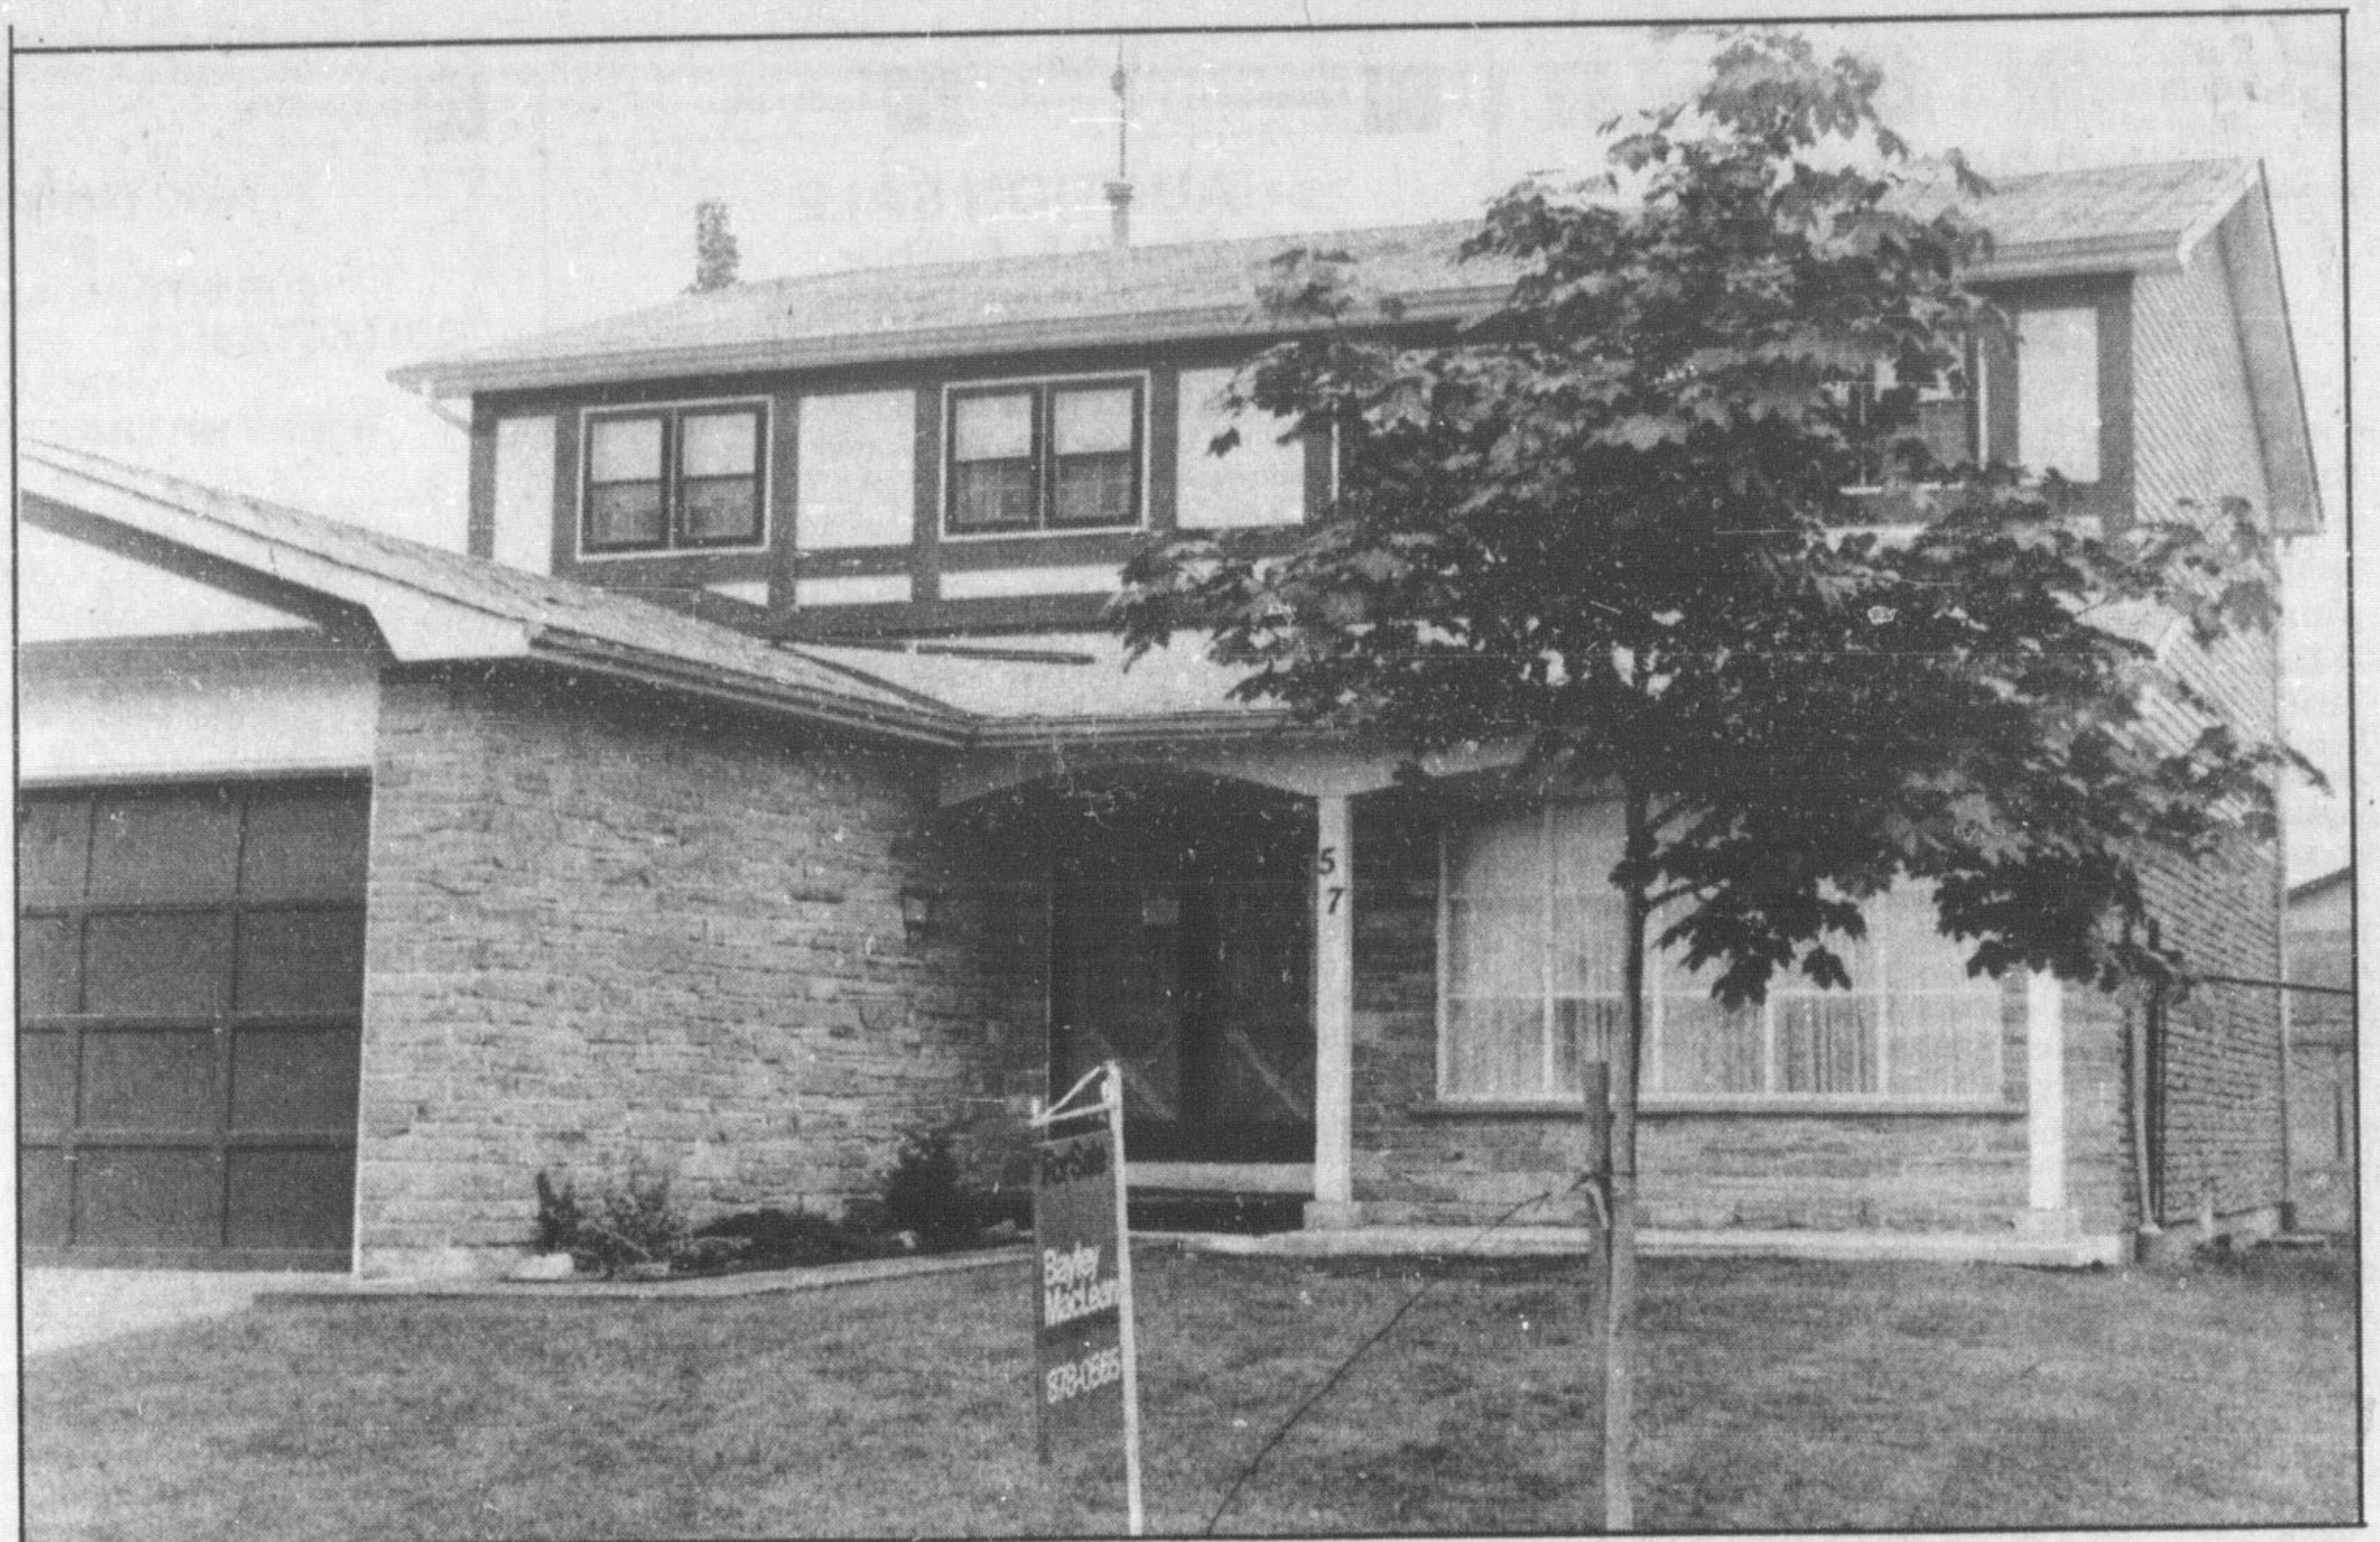

Need some extra room? This sunken family room located off the kitchen area offers the necessary space for a busy family with growing children. It can also double as a den or games room.
