

Big and Little Brother They do a lot together

By Jane Muller
It doesn't take much to be a big brother but many people don't know this, according to local Big Brother Rob Zullian. The 21-year-old has been involved with this organization for one and half years now and has been a friend to little brother Brandon Johnston, age 8, for that time. "I've always liked kids and I thought it was something worthwhile getting into," Rob said. "They don't ask too much, just four hours or one outing a week so it's not really a big commitment." Percy Merry School student Brandon has no brothers and sisters and lives in rural Milton. Rob admits they have a "pretty good relationship." The pair do "almost anything" together from camping, skating, bowling and hiking to "just hanging around." "It seems like they enjoy even the smallest thing," Rob explains. Graham Scott, Executive Director of Big Brothers of Oakville said, "We are fortunate in Milton since we are always able to find big brothers, but it's an ongoing thing and we are always looking for men." Men over 18 years of age are considered as Big Brothers but first a series of interviews are conducted to establish an applicant's eligibility. Big Brothers serve fatherless boys from age 6 to 16. As the Oakville branch of the organization serves Milton as well, the name will be changed to Big Brothers of Oakville and Milton sometime this year, according to the executive director. There are 13 Big Brothers in Milton now and Mr. Scott sees no reason to establish a local agency to serve only Milton. "The needs of the community are better served by one agency running it," he said. He visits Milton as the need arises which is usually at least twice a month. Oakville and Milton combined currently have 50 Big Brothers matched with boys with a waiting list of 16. Two of those are in Milton. This week is Big Brother week which is being celebrated Saturday at Knox Presbyterian Church in Oakville with a pancake breakfast.

Letters from 1800 presented to mayor

In commemoration of Race Unity Day June 14, Dr. David Phillips and Karen Sasaki of the Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Milton presented Mayor Gordon Krantz with the book "Proclamation of Baha'u'llah" on Monday, June 15.

This book is a collection of letters written to various leaders of the late 1800s (Emperor Napoleon, the Czar of Russia, Queen Victoria, the Pope, etc.) announcing the Revelation of Baha'u'llah. Race Unity Day is one of various special events originated by the U.S. Baha'i National Spiritual Assembly and increasingly recognized by various groups in other countries to help further the efforts to peace in the world today.

FIX-UP DOLLAR SENSE
BY JACKIE VERDURMEN

In most decisions in life, there is often a choice available. A home improvement project is no exception. If the question is how to best use your improvement dollar, keep in mind the eventual resale of your home. The national average length of home ownership is seven years. It's what a buyer sees, not what you tell him, that makes the difference.

Which do you think would add more to the visual value of a home - new insulation or a new kitchen. Unless the insulation is really on its last legs, a new kitchen is a better investment. A buyer can see a new kitchen or remodeled bathroom, an exterior paint job, but will he see the insulation behind the walls and in the attic?

Of course, it's always nice to do both, but if you have a choice, spend your money where it will be seen the most. It will make your house more attractive and more salable when the time comes.
