

Who Does It

160 camp under canvas at 5th annual "Scoqui"

by Jean Layman
Prisoner in the Castle and Jousting attracted both Scouts and Guides at the 5th Annual Scoqui which was held last weekend June 12, 13 and 14, at Blue Springs Scout Reserve.

Out in Scouting was enjoyed by 160 Guides, Pathfinders, Scouts and Venturers who camped under canvas, with boys and girls attending from Acton, Georgetown, Limehouse, Milton and Norval, along with leaders.

This event was planned and organized by Pat VanderEyken, leader of Acton Pathfinders, also Assistant Commissioner, Jean Vaughan, leader of Acton Pathfinders, Scouters Mark Rowe and John Sharples of 1st Acton Scout troop.

The official opening was led by Scouter Mark Rowe Saturday morning with roll call, flag break, a prayer led by Isla McConnell, Ranger Guider of Georgetown-East and announcements by Scouter John Sharples. Bob Lamoureux 1st Norval, District Service Team Co-ordinator for Scouts - Dave Shrubsole, Gord Douglas, Jean Belshaw, Murray Harrison, Barb Phipps - Division Commissioner of Halton and Dianne Crawford, Commissioner of West Georgetown, were visitors at Scoqui '81.

Murray Harrison, known as "Chopper", and Bob Lamoureux both assisted with events. Jean Layman camped all weekend and looked after first aid.

The Scouts and Guides were divided up in pre-assigned patrols for the activities for the weekend.

First aid treatment instruction was handled by Rick Gibson 1st Acton with 1st Norval coming first with a time of 8 minutes and 30 seconds. Compass Competition was handled by Hank Martin, Scout master of 8th Georgetown and T-shirt Stenciling by Guider Isla McConnell, supervised by Pathfinders.

Leather craft was under the leadership of Jean Vaughan of Acton known as "Barney." Speed Knots was looked after by Tim Hancock of 1st Georgetown and was won by Calvin Robinson of 1st Acton at 48 seconds. Limehouse Venturers looked after Jousting and Pathfinder Tiu Jago of Acton and Theron Butterfield of 4th George-ton winning this event. John Sharples instructed the "Turk's Head Woggle" which was mastered by a good many people who were still doing this leather craft right until the closing on Sunday.

Other activities with special interest was the building of a signal tower with the combined patrol of 1st Milton Scouts and Guider Marilyn Sunnucks and her Guides building the best tower, with all of the other 13 patrols a close second.

The scavenger hunt was won by Milton. Other events were water balloon tossing, nature walk, obstacle course with Jake Livingstone handling the event, and Yves Savard in charge of Prisoner in the Castle, with Milton patrol winning.

One member of the patrols was chosen to read the log book at various times with each being well done. Campfire was led by Bob Baird, 4th Georgetown, on Saturday evening.

Sunday started with ceremonies followed by the Scouts Own led by Mark Rowe in the beautiful setting of the Outdoor Chapel in Ebor Park, Blue Springs. Kevin McLaughlin of 1st Georgetown accompanied on his guitar for the singing of spirituals.

The patrols were all self contained with duties of cooking and washing up done by the Scouts and Guides under the leadership of their Leaders.

During the closing ceremony leather craft Scoqui '81 medallions were presented to the winners of the various events by Pat VanderEyken and Jean Vaughan. Each person also received a Scoqui Crest.

Scouts and Guides also discovered what the "Prairie Flower" was all about with Scouter John Sharples doing the explanation. Isla McConnell gave the closing prayer.

Scouter John Sharples led the Scoqui Oogie Cheer for all the leaders and parents helping to make this weekend camp a real success.

Three to vote
Three members of regional council have been endorsed as voting members to represent Halton at the annual Association of Municipalities of Ontario Conference at the Royal York Aug. 23 to 26.

Those going will be Chairman Jack Rafias; Halton Hills Mayor Peter Pomeroy; and Halton Hills Councillor Russ Miller.

Fires down
The number of fires in Milton continues to be less than the record-setting pace of 1980. Milton Fire Chief Jim Coulson has reported his men responded to 134 fires in the town during the period ending April 30. During the same period in 1980, the fire department handled 142, which was eight more than during the same period in 1981.
