Wedding

Rauwerda - Traas

The Beth-El Christian Reformed Church of Acton was the setting for the wedding of Joanne Traas of Campbellville and Gary Rauwerda of Acton, Saturday afternoon May 30.

Both the bride and groom were given in marriage by their parents Mac and Jane Traas and Bill and Hennie Rauwerda. Matron of honor was Evelyn Druif, a friend of the bride.

The best man was Ed Rauwerda, brother of the groom, with Jack Traas, the bride's brother and Ron Rauwerda, the groom's brother acting as ushers. Rev. John Cooper officiated over the double-ring ceremony. The organist for the occasion was Mrs. Ann Venema.

A reception followed the ceremony in the lower church hall with a dinner later at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall in Acton.

The emcee for the evening was the bride's brother, John Traas. The wedding cake was made by Mrs. Mary Price and the bride wore her great-grandmother's ruby necklace. Entertainment at the dinner included skits and a sing-a-long.

Guests attended from Holland, Edmonton, Toronto, Dunnville, Peterborough, London and surrounding areas. The groom's grandmother from Jarvis also attended.

Prior to the wedding the couple were honored with several parties, including a rehearsal party given by the groom's parents. Showers in honor of the bride were given by the lab staff of Guelph General Hospital, aunts and cousins of the groom, neighbors of the bride, and Evelyn Druif and Michele Rauwerda.

Following a honeymoon to Kingston, the couple are now residing in Guelph.

Joanne Traas and Gary Rauwerda exchanged wedding vows at Beth-El Christian Reformed Church of Acton on May 30.
