

Real Estate

Living pleasure. This spacious and elegant living room enjoys the further assets of large windows and a lovely fireplace.

Bright and cheery rural living here

If rural living is your wish, this handsome brick bungalow may be the answer.

Located halfway between Milton and Georgetown, this three-bedroom home is bright and cheery with a sunny easterly exposure.

A larger than average size kitchen provides ample room for serving a crowd and includes a dining area.

A spacious and elegant living room is further enhanced by a beautiful fireplace.

Entertaining any number of people is done with ease in a huge finished recreation room which features a wet bar and walkout to the rear lawn.

A heated breezeway, attached garage and a beautiful cedar deck overlooking the back yard complete the list of features that make this home special.

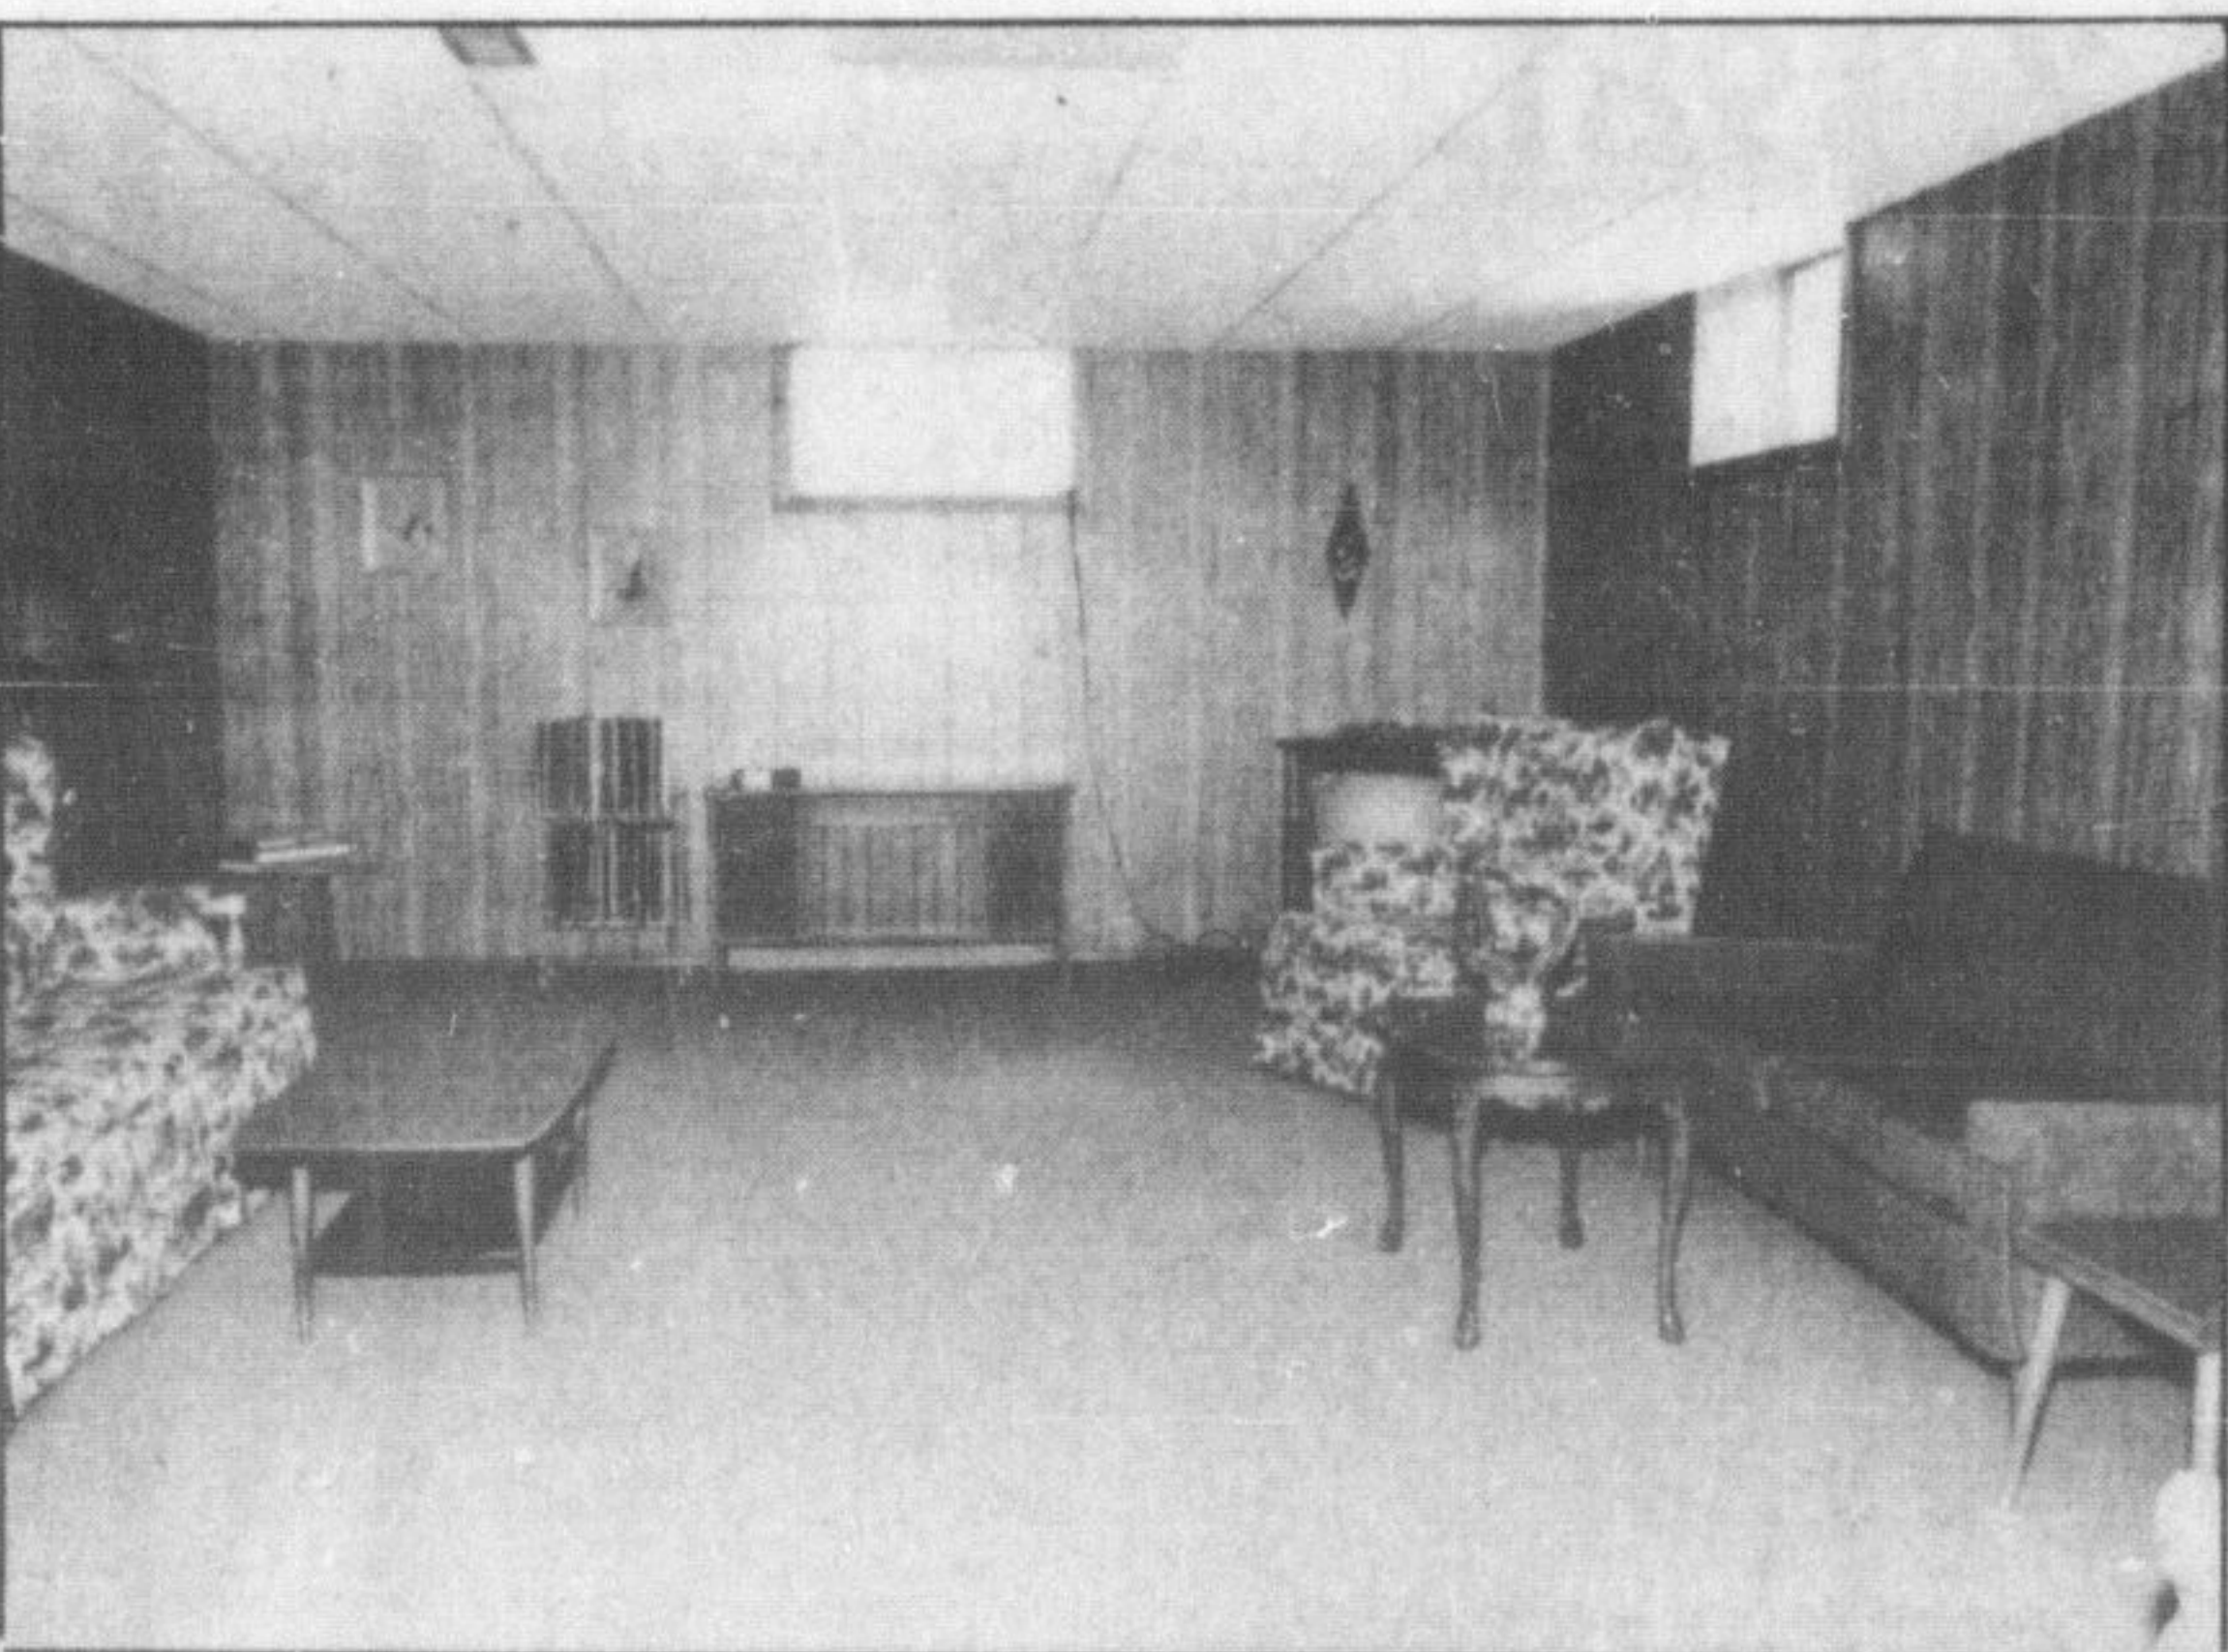

For the ambitious gardener in the family, there is a good-sized garden with small fruit trees.

This residence has been well cared for and the grounds are well kept.

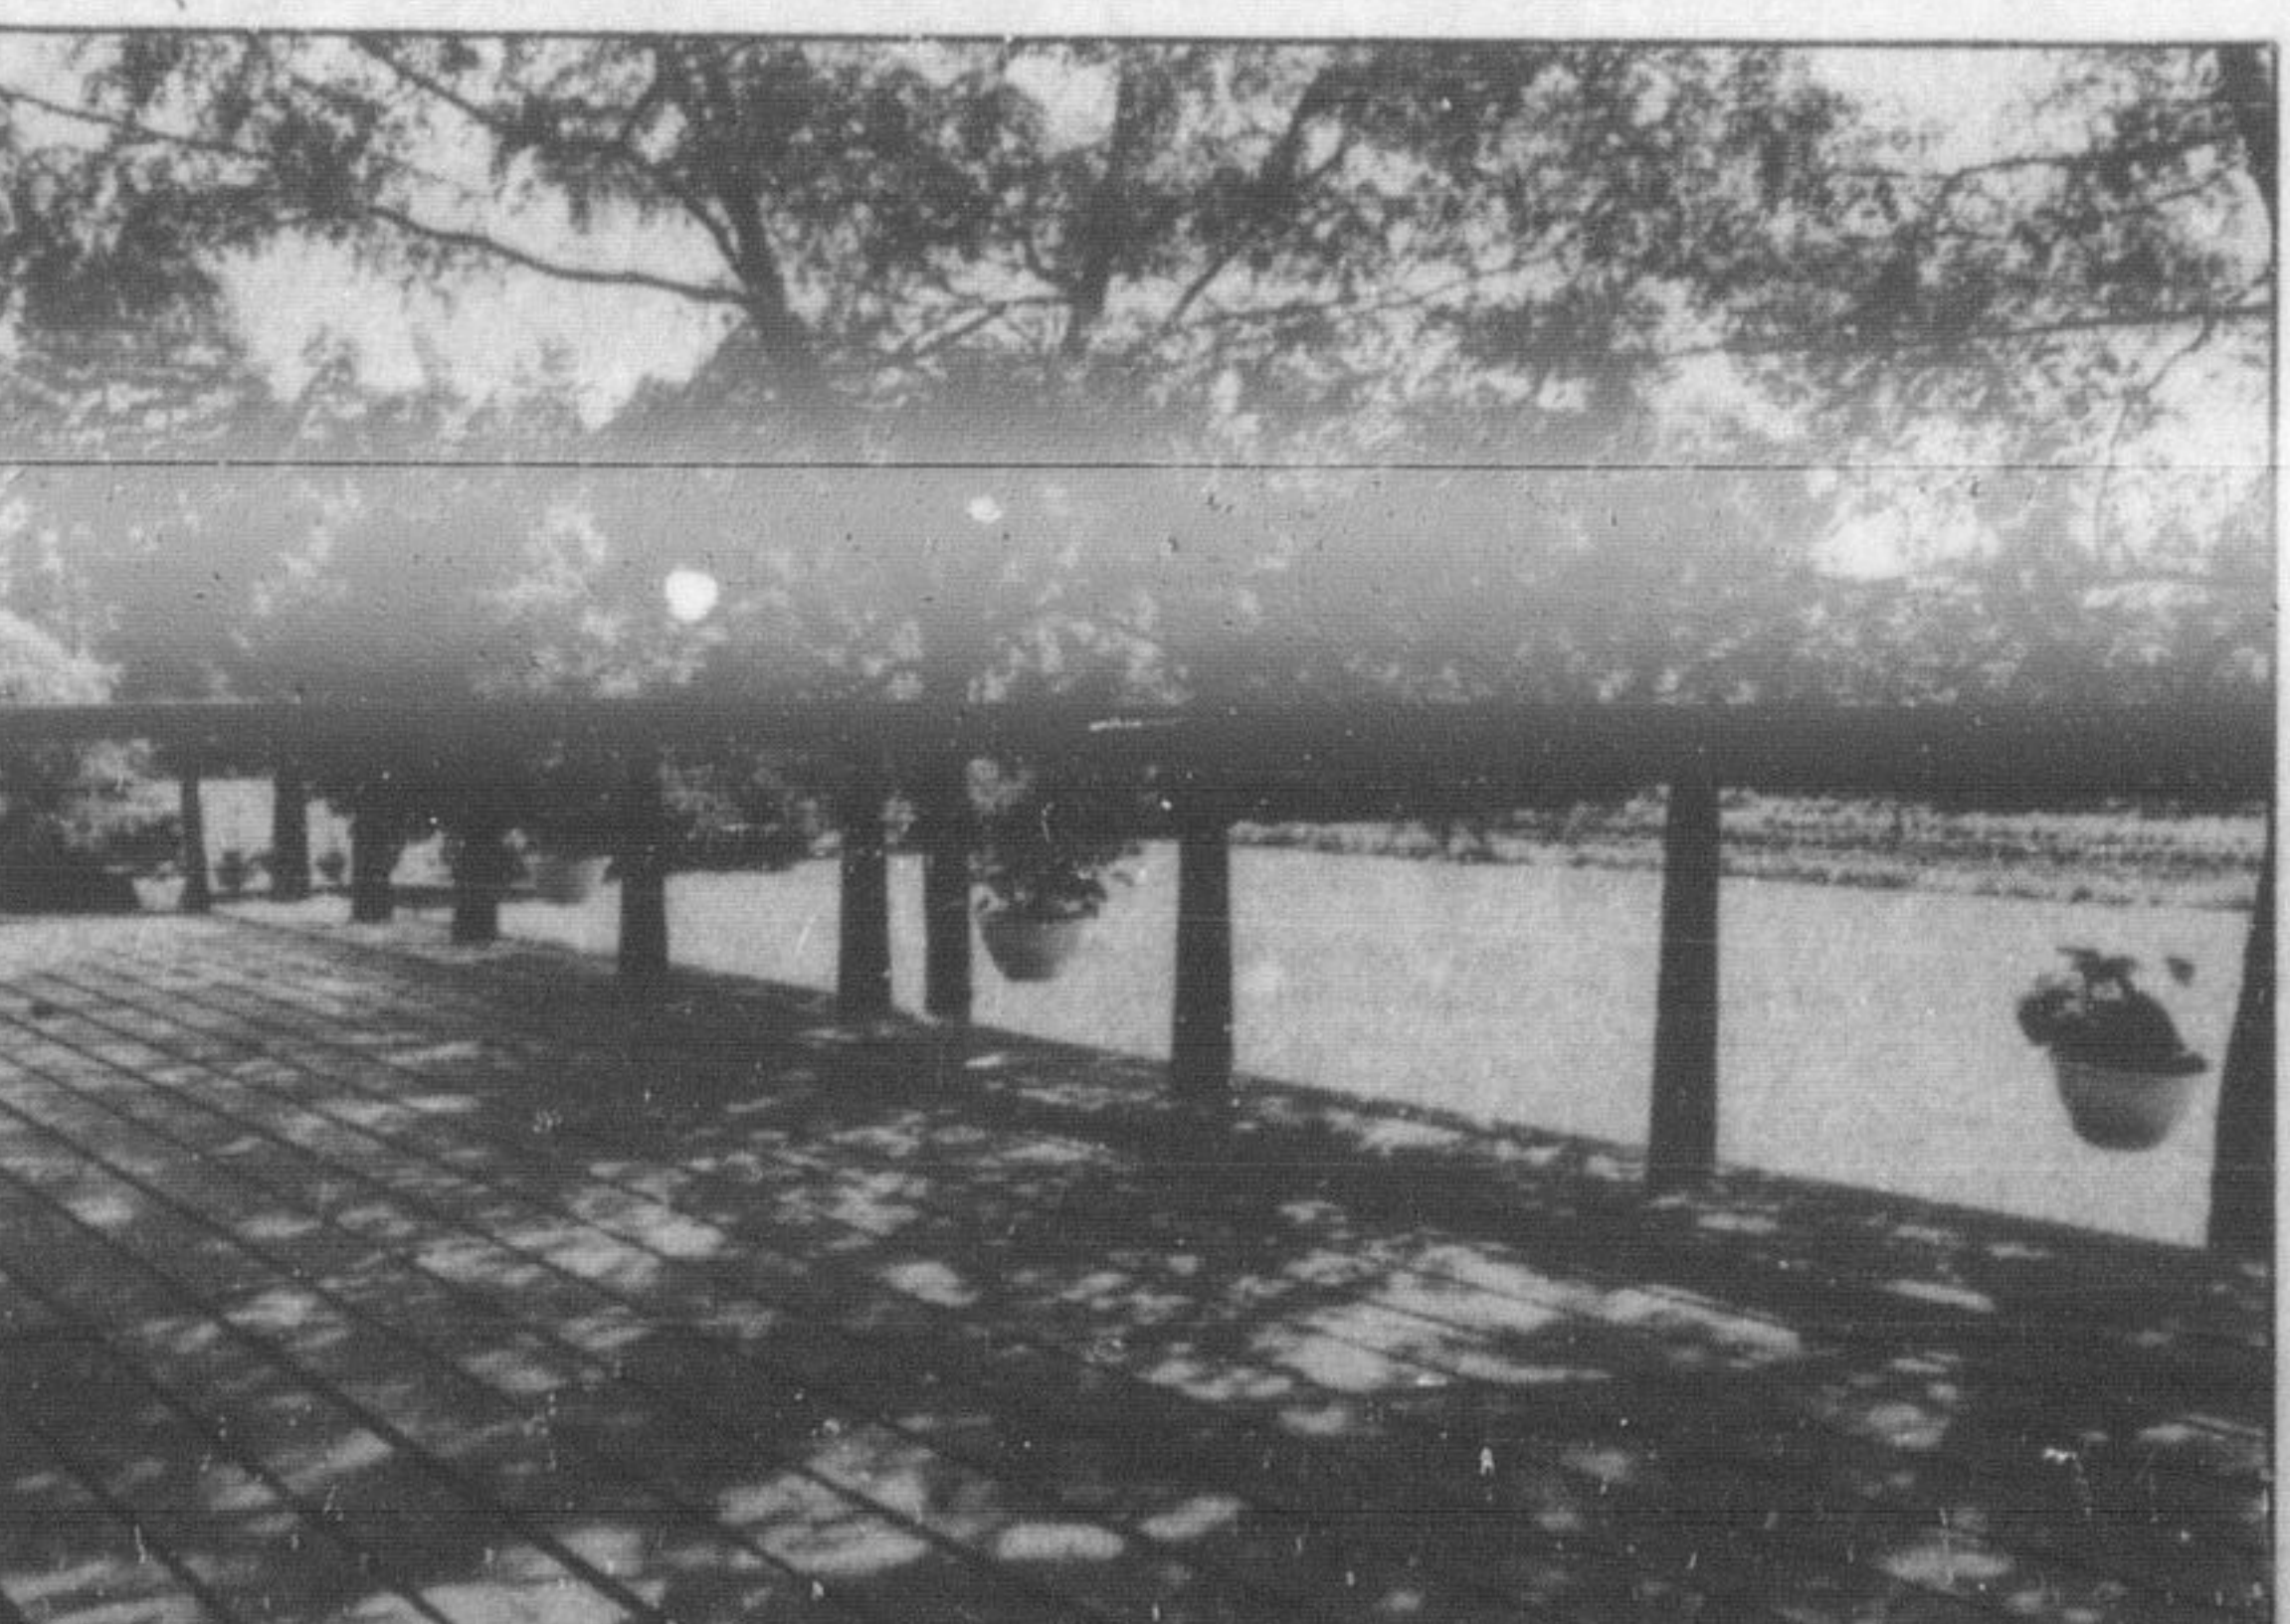

For an appointment to view, please contact Stella Parton at Bayley MacLean Real Estate Ltd. at 878-0565 or 622-1122.

No crowding here. A larger than average size kitchen, this room includes a dining area.

Entertaining with ease. Complete with a wet bar and a walkout, this ample rec room is the answer for any large family gathering or party.

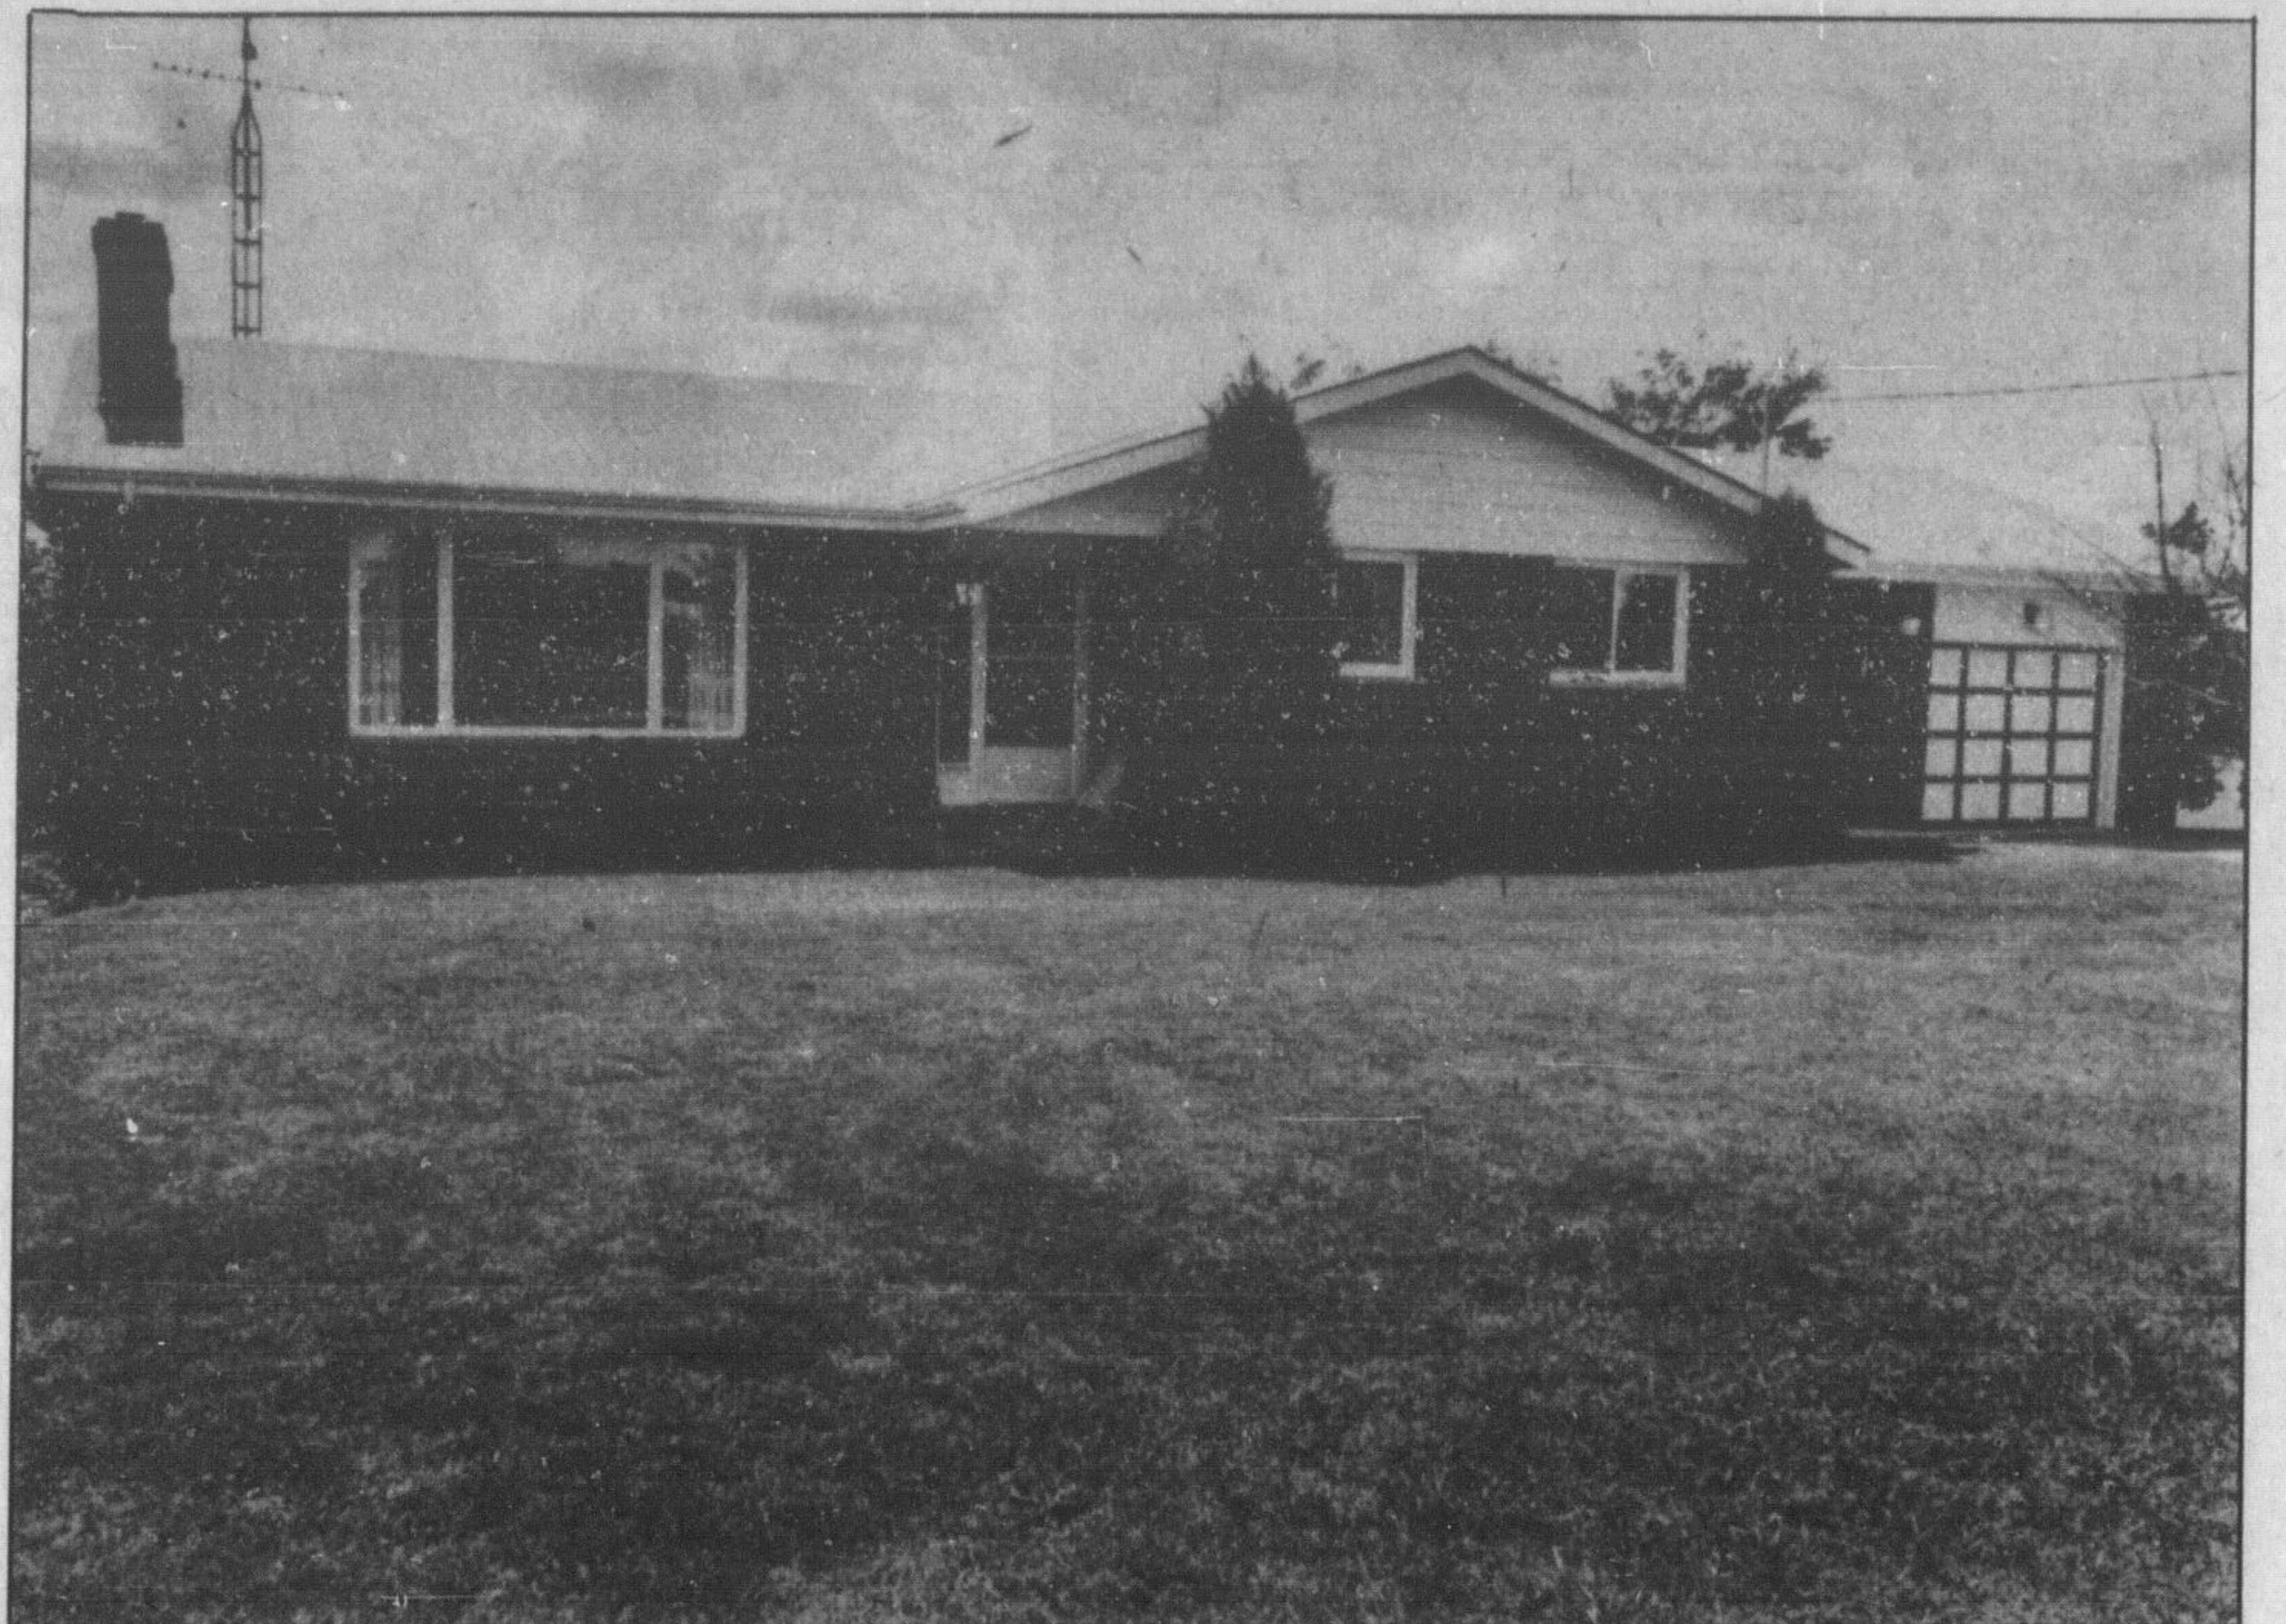

Sunbathing anyone? This wooden deck which looks out over a meticulously kept back lawn is the perfect spot to relax in the summer.
