Campbellville sales go well

It will be several months before the history of Campbellville will be available in a hard cover book containing information compiled by Campbellville Historical Society. There will be 1,000 copies printed at a cost of $24,000 with a release time set for early spring of 1982, according to society member June Andrews.

The book of approximately 400 pages will detail local history of the south Nassagaweya district and will include 600 pictures. Originally, copies were to sell for $20 each but higher than expected publishing costs have meant a $5 hike in price. Much of the book is based on Tweedsmuir history collected over the years and according to Mrs. Andrews, "It all had to be updated. A great deal has happened since 1967." She added advance sales are going well and a concerted effort to promote sales once the book is published will be managed by society members.

Occupiers are named

Principals and vice principals will be designated as "occupiers" of school facilities, Halton Board of Education decided Thursday evening in Burlington.
