

Milton Choristers. The 60-voice choir has just released its first long-play record, "A Gift of Song." The group posed for this photo by Gordon Campbell at Ontario Agricultural Museum in Milton, and it decorates the record jacket.

Choir releases new record

"A Gift of Song", a new long playing record by the Milton Choristers, is being released this week. Recorded by the 60-voice mixed choir under the direction of Judy Hunter, the record features light classical and Broadway tunes, including Oliver and Oklahoma. Favorites such as Gonna Build a Mountain and Just a Closer Walk make the album easy listening for everyone. A special song, A Dream, composed by Becky Windhager (sister of Judy Hunter) is one of the features. "A Gift of Song" will be sold for $6 and is available now in local stores and offices. The choir was first formed 12 years ago from a music appreciation group organized by the University Womens Club of Milton and District, and was first known as Milton Chansonettes. This choir has released two records. The feminine name changed to Choristers a couple of years ago when about a dozen men were added to the choir to give it a full vocal range.

On the steam engine are Marg Duncan, Shirley Lowe, Fran Frampton, Peter Stewart, Geraldine Hickey, Greg Cracknell, Don Clements and Liz Frame.

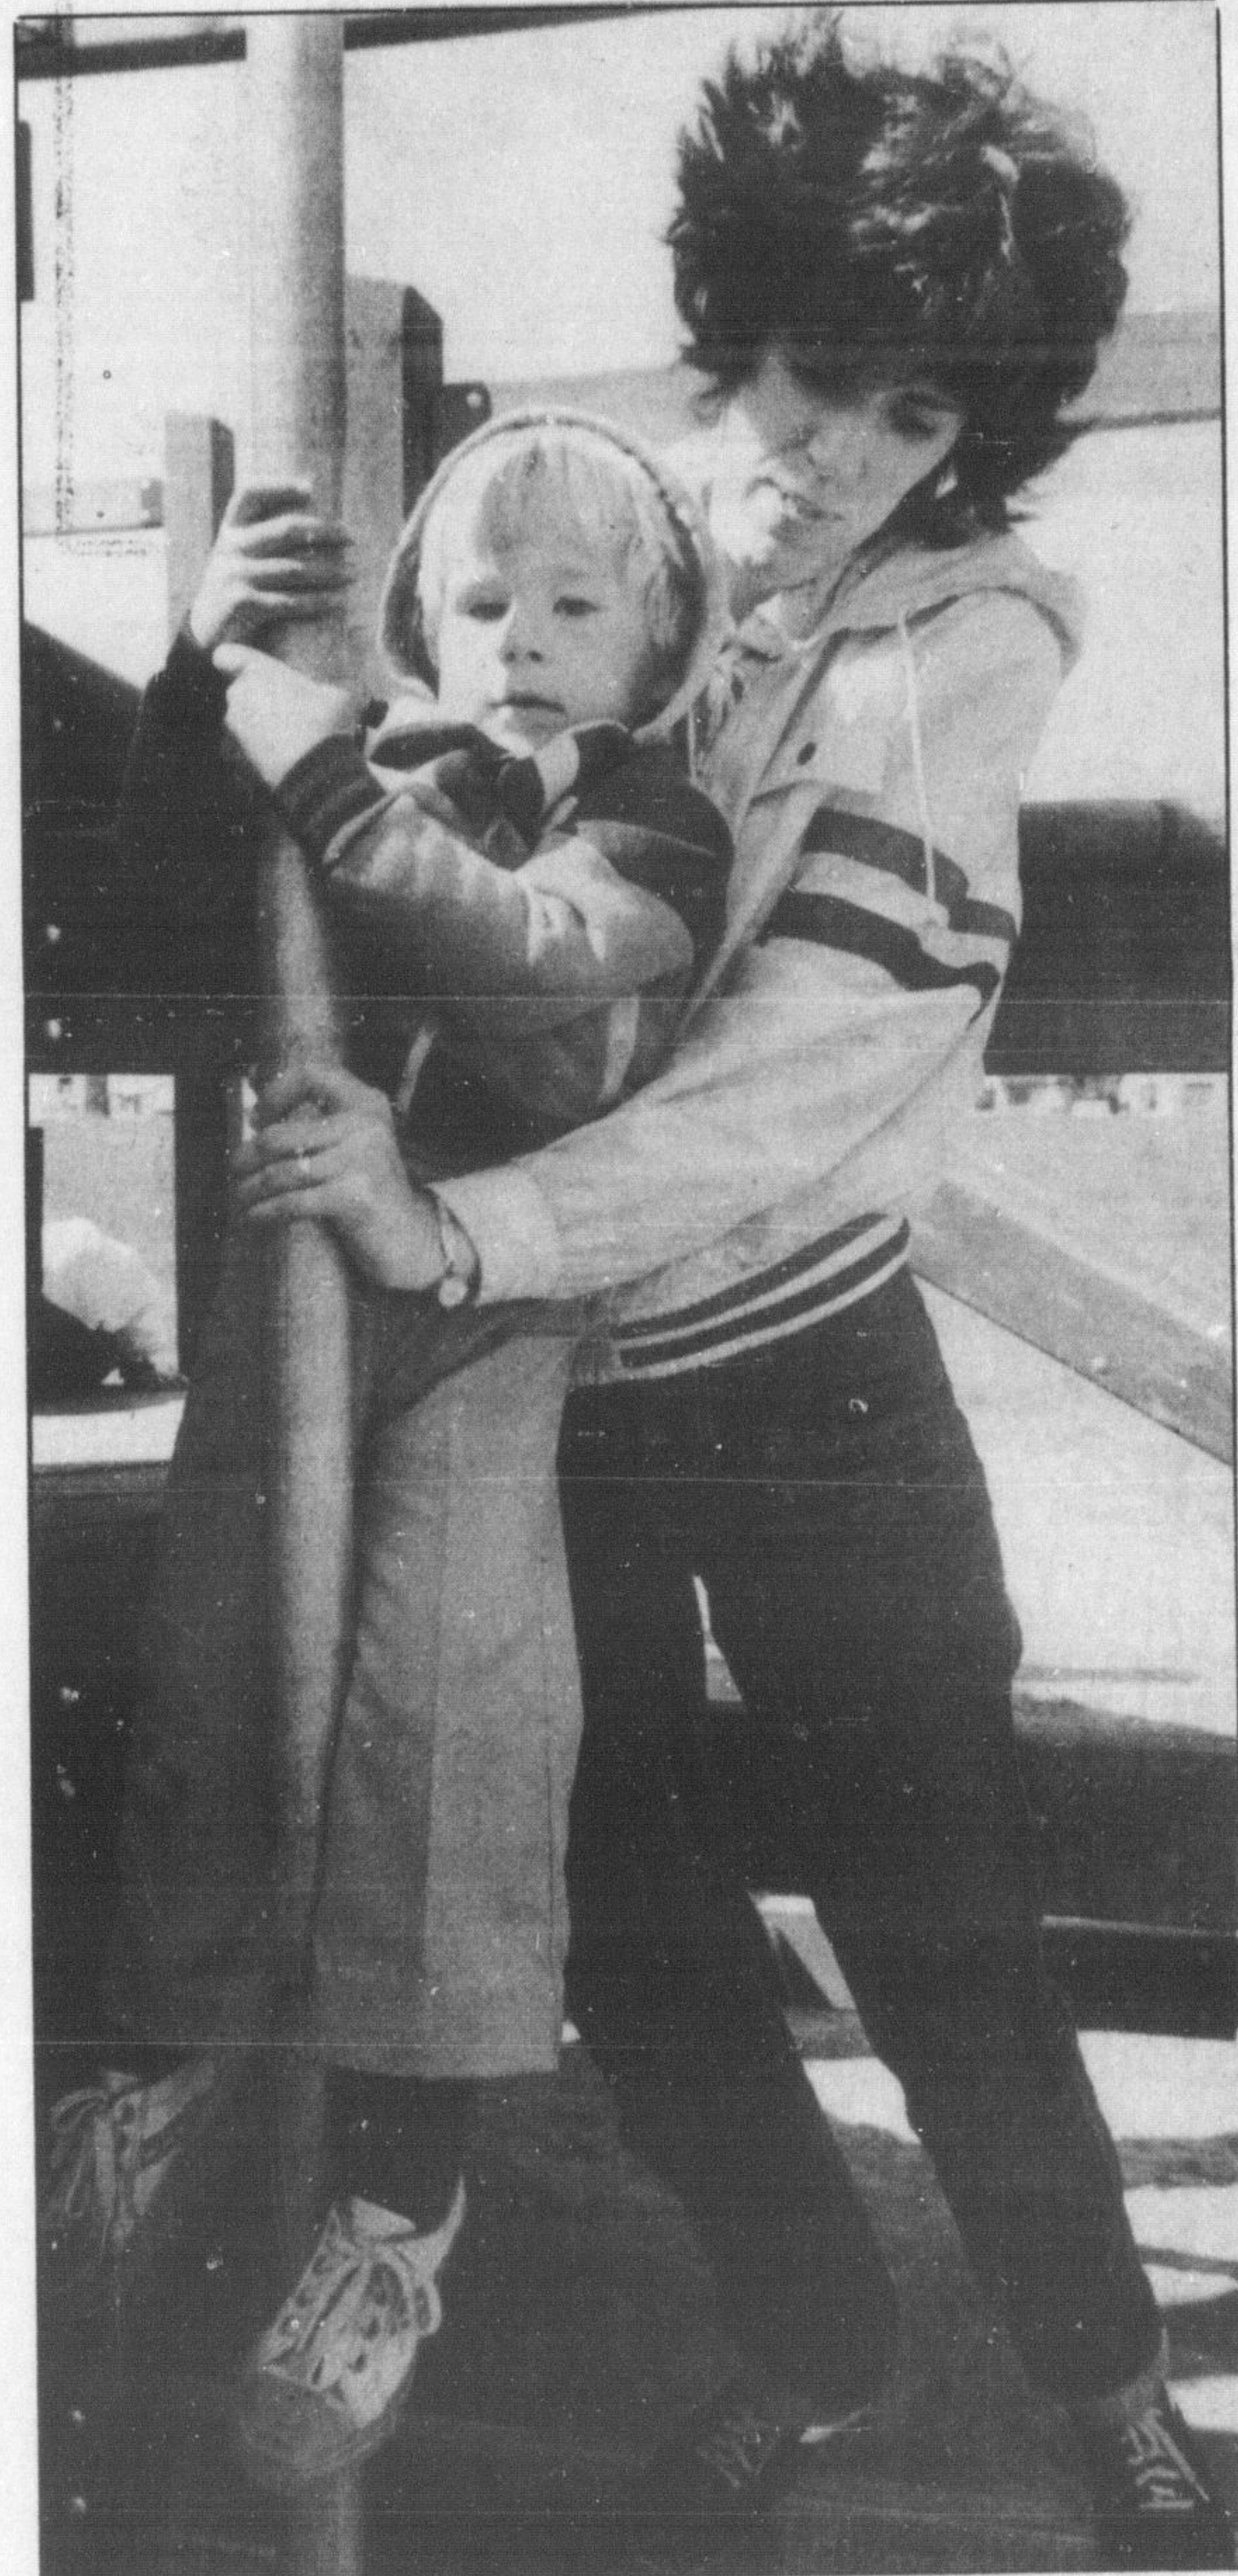

Men on the right side are Ron Break, Bill Smelser, Glen Wicks, Andy Hoornweg, and Bert Porter.

Arts grants

Ontario Arts Council grants totalling $4.3 million were announced last week and two were awarded to Milton.

Milton Public Library was one of 360 arts organizations to receive a grant. The $112 was spent for summer children's programs and special events including a puppet show and folk singer.

Along with 256 other Ontario artists, Vallery Mokrytzke of Milton received a grant of up to $1,000 which she will use for material assistance for creating her abstract art to be displayed at the Burlington.

Poling practice

Nursery school begins this week for Michael Jay, 3, so he spent the days of summer practising sliding down a pole—with a little help from his Mom, at the Milton Sports Centre.

Mac's break-in yields cash

Two Milton men have been charged with break, enter and theft in connection with a break-in at Mac's Milk on Steeles Ave. early Saturday morning.

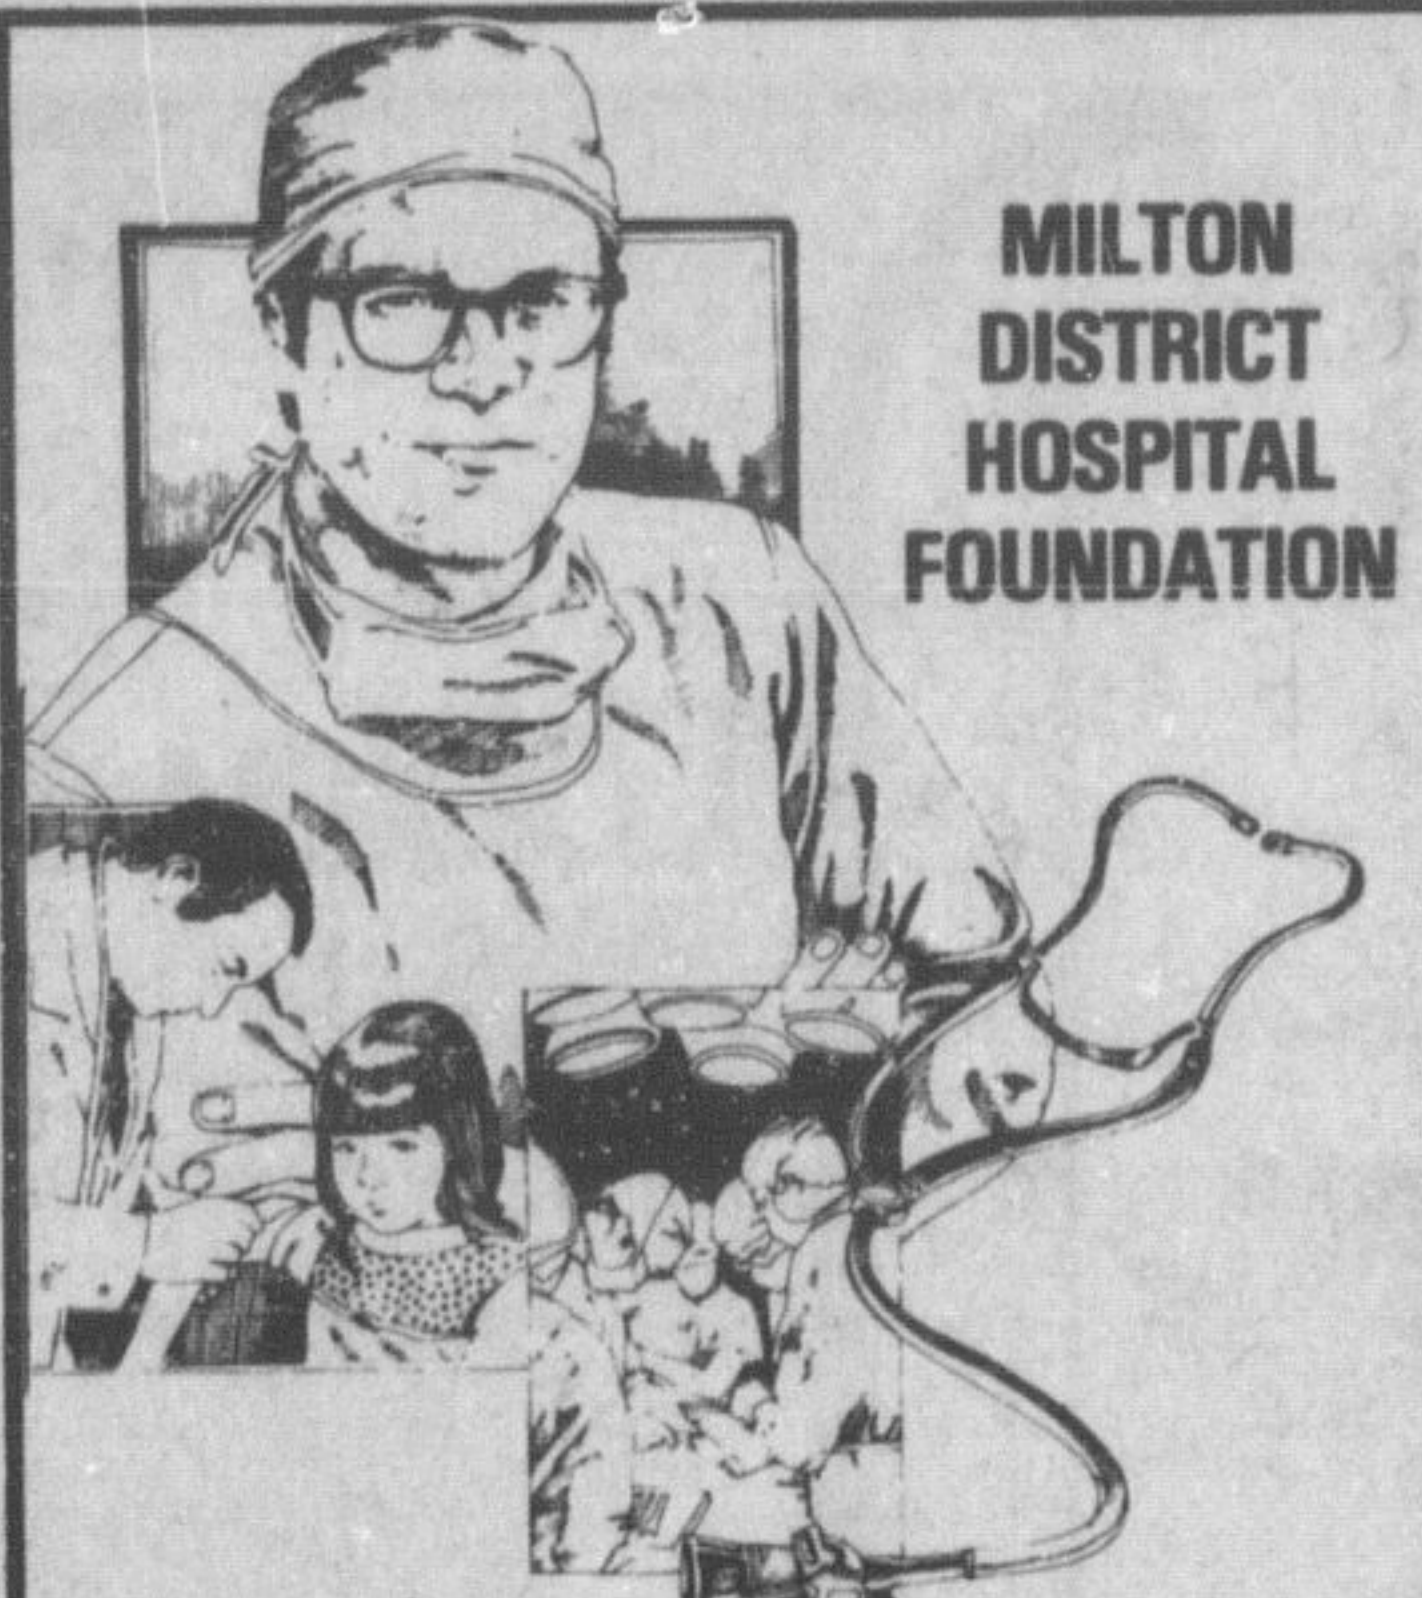

Halton Regional Police said a stolen store key was used to gain entry through the front door of the store.

More than $100 cash, two cartons of cigarettes, a carton of cigars and lottery tickets were stolen.

Charged jointly with one count of break, enter and theft are 17-year-old Robert Goldie of 140 Main St. and Harold Belford, 19 of 136 Main St., Milton.

Both are scheduled to appear in court Monday, Sept. 28.
