

A player with Georgetown's Centennial School goes up for the ball in the Halton elementary school volleyball championship Friday at E.C. Drury. Centennial won the titles for both boys and girls.

Sherratt avenged in volleyball event

Sam Sherratt School and Georgetown's Centennial School have had quite a rivalry going in both boys and girls volleyball this year.

The two teams met in the finals of the north Halton championships two weeks ago with Centennial coming out ahead on both counts.

Centennial went on to win both Halton championships last Friday at E.C. Drury School before the two teams met up the Optimist Volleyball Invitational Sunday at Georgetown.

In both contests, Sherratt avenged their earlier losses. The girls defeated Centennial 16-14 in a semi-final match-up while the boys squeezed by Centennial in the finals.

The girls finished second in north Halton league play and beat W.I. Dick School in two straight games in the semi-finals. Centennial ousted Sherratt in the finals in two straight games.

After beating Centennial in the semis in the Optimist tournament, Sherratt girls lost a heartbreaker in the finals, 9-15, 15-12, 16-14 to Georgetown's Holy Cross.

The team will compete in the Ontario bantam championships, which involves about 24 teams, this weekend in Toronto.

Over on the boys' side, Sherratt was first in league play and also defeated W.I. Dick in two straight in the north Halton semis.

The team dropped the finals to Centennial for the championship of north Halton 15-13, 13-15, 15-11, in three tough games but gained some revenge beating Centennial in the Optimist tourney finals.

Sherratt dropped the first game 15-12 but bounced back to win the next two games by scores of 15-13 and 16-14 for the title.

The boys will compete in a junior tournament this weekend in Scarborough before closing out their successful year.

Flyers miss their chance

The optimism of last week suffered a major blow over this past week when Milton Flyers failed to take advantage of an opportunity to move up in the standings by dropping three games to beatable opponents.

Flyers had come off a big win against Richmond Hill Dynes and seemed poised to escape the bottom rung before losing 12-3 to Thornhill, 8-3 to Barrie and 8-6 to Acton Sabres.

The first two games were washouts from Flyers' point-of-view. But the game with Acton was lost in the final 1:11 when Sabres Paul Stark scored the winning goal just 30 seconds after Flyers had bounced back to draw the teams even.

Flyers have another chance to take a win when the club hosts Dixie Beehives Friday night at 8 p.m. at Memorial Arena. Dixie holds down the basement but has beaten and drawn Flyers in their two meetings of the year.

Sabres allowed Flyers the first goal of the game before striking for four straight goals to carry a 4-1 lead into the middle frame.

Flyers drew to within a goal at 5-4 after two periods before the score seasawed back-and-forth in the final frame.

Defenceman Randy Peruscello scored the tying goal with just under two minutes to play. After Acton scored the go-ahead goal 30 seconds later, Sabres were assessed a penalty.

Flyers' power-play couldn't get untracked and Acton added a shorthanded empty-net goal to ensure the win.

Bill Lynch fired two goals for Flyers while Duane Stark, Tim Pollen, Ivo Zulian and Peruscello added singles. Richard Griffiths had three assists while Stark added two. Flyers out-shot Sabres 57-48 in the wide-open contest.

Comets have won all Tri-County games this year making it 15 with a 10-0 romp over Brampton Monday night at Memorial Arena.

The club played last night (Tuesday) in Burlington and travel to Dundas Thursday in a couple of good contests before making the trek north to Owen Sound in order to qualify for the famous International Silver Stick tournament.

Barrie Colts erupted for five unanswered second-period goals to earn the victory Friday at Memorial Arena. After the teams exchanged single goals in the opening period, Colts ran up a 6-1 lead during the third period and were never threatened.

Griffiths led Flyers with two goals while John Turner added a single.

Monday night at Memorial Arena, Comets were never in trouble overpowering Brampton from the opening whistle and keeping it up for the duration of the game.

Mike Van Wart led the shooters with a four-point night from two goals and two assists. Mark Haskett had two goals and an assist while Bob Landry added a pair of goals.

Terry Ellwood, Rob Bourbonnais, Stuart Anderson and Steve Mead had one goal and one assist while Mike McIlwraith had three assists. Captain Comet Randy Heggie also chipped in with a pair of assists.
