

Visiting Milton for a Mardi Gras celebration were "Prince" Horst Neumann and his wife, "Princess" Erika Neumann, members of the Toronto Mardi Gras Council. The organization came to Milton at the invitation of the Bayrischer-hof Restaurant on Steeles Ave.

Miltonians displaying Yule toys

Very attractive displays are in Milton Library during Christmas and are well worth bringing your children to see.

In the glass cases in the history room are delightful hand crocheted miniature dolls and toys. These beautifully made toys are the work of Mrs. E. Mizrahi, a resident of Milton.

In the display cases in the foyer of the library is a display of reproduction antique dolls. These delicate and exquisite dolls are made by Mrs. Horton, who also lives in Milton.

Both displays show the high art of craftsmanship, and still project the magic of toys for children.

Another charming exhibit is a village of Christmas, with the houses and church made in stained glass, designed and made by a Milton resident. The village is another prime example of fine craftsmanship.
