ENTERTAINERS HONORS.—Chief David Kerr's exclusive boarding house took on a festive atmosphere for Christmas and New Year's homeless hoboes enjoyed all the gastronomic delights of the idle rich. Except for the odd fowl, reported missing, we believe that our gentlemen of the road had not run out of food since Adam was a weaned. Ham and eggs for breakfast; dinner and supper of roast turkey, green peas, plum pudding and all the odds and ends that go to make up a delicious feed and grand tummy, they were disposed of with dispatch that would shame a Houdini. By the amount consumed, Chief Kerr feels that their appetites are as good as literally filled stockings.—Oakville Record.

Sixty-two years ago as a small child I remember THE CHAMPION coming to our home and I think we have taken it ever since. We are having a very mild winter so far in New England. I am interested in reading in THE CHAMPION of deer being seen here and there in Ontario. There is no open season for deer in Connecticut. As a consequence they are very plentiful. We have seen eight or ten of them, at all in one day, and heard back of the hour. When they have been searching for apples under the trees.

Rosslyn Penren, Milton. The performance was particularly creditable as the play is only had two weeks in which to rehearse and the whole of the cast, with the exception of the title role, was composed of institute members. Heartily congratulations are due to the Institute on the unqualified success of their venture and the performers for their contribution to an enjoyable function.

Decision has been handed out at Ottawa that the 10 per cent cut in railwaymen's pay must not be made retroactive, and that decision is based on common sense and justice. Seeking to make a hay out of the hay, however, never did have a wholesome look, and it's a wonder Canadian roads would desire to try it.

An Ailing CHILD

Are you prepared to render first aid and quick comfort the moment your youngster has an upset of any sort? Could you do the right thing—immediately—though the emergency came without warning—perhaps tonight? Castoria is a mother's standby at such times. There is nothing like it in emergencies, and nothing better for everyday use. For a sudden attack of colic, or the gentle relief of constipation; to allay a feverish condition, or to soothe a fretful baby that can't sleep. This pure vegetable preparation is always ready to ease an ailing youngster. It is just as harmless as the recipe on the wrapper reads. If you see Chas. H. Fletcher's signature, it is genuine Castoria. It is harmless to the smallest infant; doctors will tell you.

You can tell from the recipe on the wrapper how mild it is, and how good for little systems. But continue with Castoria until a child is grown.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE CHAMPION.
