"Drop Too Much" Fatal

to Gentle Bumblebee
The gentle, inoffensive bumblebee sometimes, it is to be feared, takes a drop too much! The nectar of flowers which is turned into honey by bees is heavy stuff, as bumblebees find when, in the closing days of their lives, they have little to do but feast, and then are tempted too deeply.
One is often seen in later summer days affectionately clasping a flower to his bosom, as if he dare not trust either his legs or his wings. If gently stroked, he waves a leg in a comely "yo" sadly mauling way. It is not uncommon to see one rolling top-heavy in flight, and falling about on the ground like any human toper.
But even when drunk, the bumblebee never shows anything but the mildest manners. He is so gentle by nature that he will make a fly with a flower for a fly wishing to take his place, even though he falls to the ground and lies in an undignified position on his back.
Death comes to him mercifully as he takes his last sips of the last flowers of summer. Too drowsy to fly home, he clings to the flower though right is falling, and is gently slain by frost in his sleep.—Exchange.

Logical Youngster

Mr. Little son, Arthur, aged five, found a wishbone on his plate, and asked me to wish with him.
Arthur won and said that he had wished for a motorcycle.
"You must not tell me your wish," I said.
"Well, if you don't know what I wished for, how will I ever get it?" was the reply.—Chicago Tribune.

Collects Clocks.

R. W. E. Burnaby, Trade Commissioner in Toronto for the Maritime Provinces, is himself a Nova Scotia product, but for a good many years has been operating a farm near Toronto. He has been active in the political field in Ontario, and before that he took up farming he was an insurance man. But one of the most picturesque things about him is that he has a hobby of collecting repairing, and making grandfather clocks.
He has about 500 of them at his farm home in North York, with one in every room in the house and the assessments so full up that he admits he doesn't know where he will put any more.

Investment Planning

An investment trust is an organization which with its capital, buys a variety of stocks and bonds. The investors received on these are pooled and constitute the earning of the trust. If a corporation, dividend are paid on the stock in accordance with the amounts earned on the securities held. The purpose is to spread investments over a wide field so that if one investment goes bad it will be balanced by another which will pay.
The owner of stock in the investment trust gets the benefit of the wide spread and a great many risks.
