Price Price Put wa

Native Wife in Africa When an Inhampani native of Portugueco Mant Africa wents to get married he usually goes to Johannesburg to work in the gold mines for the price of a wife, Miss Ruth Thomas, a St Louis missionary recently returned, ******************* from there, says. The price of a nahambanian for 'Are there any 'marriagonble girls here?') and asks for his daughter's hand. The father answers that the young man must obtain the consent of his daughfather-in-law allow $75 to slip away from him.

mouth with water and sp.ays the bride's face and then does the sam thing to the bridgeroom. That is the wedding."---Exchange.

Famous Jewel Given to

A gracious gesture of Angio-Ameri- cuss ain't hit a lick o' work in more'n can friendship preserved the famous a year; an' the ol' man can't more'n "Canning Jewel," until recently the | make tongue an' buckle meet, a disgin property of the earl of Rarewood, for | yearbs; t'ain't nothin' but right that Great Britain, says the Montreal Fam- i somethin' sh'd be done to Bull." ily Herald. This wonderful gold | "Whar is he?" one of the men wantpendant, which is one of the finest |ed to know, examples of the art of the Renaissance ! "Dad hyeard it from Crasy Mosey | the speculation that if it had been the Doctor Osgood's office shone out. jewelers, was sold for $50,000. It was that Bull's a hidin' in the of shaft | feline ganus that had evolved instead presented to the Victoria and Albert thet Godby sunk down the ridge than of the simians, ours would now be a his arm, I think. I-I can't stop. I'll museum, in London, by an American | above the Milk-Sick cove, four years | ccarcely recognizable world, Don Gor- be at Granny's, but don't tell him friend who wished to remain anony- ago, a lookin' for gold as warn't thar." | don writes in the Thinker.

mous. The Canning jewel is a link | "What's yuhr ide. Abe?" asked Bob. | The cats, he maintained, are quiet, Running away indeed, she though Delhi was captured by the British, and I shaft." governor general of India during this | cuse alive, do yuh?" the Mogul emperors, as a gift from the to thinkin'." grand duke of Tuscany. The central part of the ornament is in the form of a triton, or merman, the upper portion of whose body is composed of a huge baroque pearl, while his face is of turquoise blue enamel. He holds a ruby in his mouth.

Perserverance Does It

All the performances of human art. at which we look with praise or won- "Well, fellers," he declared; "yuh: der, are instances of the resistless know, we ain't got but two hours to force of perseverance; it is by this fill p this dinged hole; so I reckon that the quarry becomes a pyraufid, we better git busy. Lead off. Bob. die or end of September. At Assouan and that distant countries are united an' we'll sing "The Rovin' Gambler." the lowest level is in May and the with canals. If a man was to com- | Seems I allers could work faster to | maximum at the beginning of Septempare the effect of a single stroke of that tune." a pickax, or of one impression of the spade, with the general design and shovelfuls of earth, not unmixed with and September. The Blue Nile and those petty operations incessantly con of the men swung into the rousing Abyssinia occurring from June to Sepdifficulties, and mountains are leveled, a man in sudden terror, partially dia Britannica: "Reduced to its simand oceans bounded, by the slender force of human beings .- Johnson.

Olive Oil Long Popular still one of the most esteemed. It was a common food thousands of years before Columbus discovered America, and references to it are made in the Old Testament and other early literature. The Greeks used olive oil for food. lighting and sacramental purposes Homer was not blind to its merits and referred to it in his Iliad as a luxury of the wealthy, prized highly for its riors of Homer's day annointed them

Antiquarians Puzzled

776 B. C., an olive wreath was the victor's prize in the Olympic games.

zied over a recent find in Stirling dur demolition of ancient build legend reads "I. B. IT."

art, but 50 or 80 years ago it was one power. on of the Chippewa tribe used to ex- lers!" Lunsford shouted. When opened the bark would show yuh take a turr for the better?" served and are now on display at the I live!" National museum at Washington.

Must Pay for Everything someone in the near or distant past murkiest part of the big valley ditch. by both parties were taken possession has not paid the price. That truth is Abe Lunsford gave his fellows an oc- of by Capt. Jesse D. Elliott, U. S. N. the great corrective of pride and selfish- casional sly wirk. ness. Men are blind when they swagger and live narrowly and meanly for themselves. They profess to be able about their independence. But all the torical date is that of the Olympian time they are ignoring a debt which games, 776 B. C. is too great ever to be repaid .- Rev. Sidney M. Berry, D. D.

Hawalian Islands Ancient

One sucient Hawalian tra- cover. When the antester 1,000 generations are Lut youth." Dr., much as a bunch of old dried grass of Arthur Star makle, mineralogist of hav. the University of California, estimates them to be at least 1,000,000 years old.

Cura Was Drantic.

By CHARLES SLOAN BEID

acquired by Earl Canning, who was | "Lord, yuh don't mean to bury the rule

lieved, the jewel was sent to one of much deep; but I onine hit'll set him

"Let's go!"

The shaft in which Bull Gozzinz was about twenty feet deep.

the shaft. Some of them began to his fellow fellos.

last result, he would be overwhelmed small stones, went crashing into the by the sense of their disproportion; yet | shaft. At the same time the voices tinued, in time surmount the greatest song. At the bottom of the hole stood | tember. According to the Encyclopehimself more closely against the wall, i tropics, controlled by the existence

> Then in the stentorian tones of Abe-Lunsford came the words: "Say fellers: as soon as we've

A terrified cry new went up from the bottom of the shaft. Lunsford, selves with oil after the bath and, by after a smile toward some of his felthat?" he asked.

"Hit's Bull Goggins. What yuh tryin' to do-bury me alive?" Abe turned about, "Feilers," good riddance. He won't work a lick, si' he's) aliers a beatin' up the ol' from the depths of the shaft such a series of pleadings as might have melted the heart of a gargoyle. Abe to scratch their heads for they have ordered the singing and the shoveling no record of anything like it. The resumed. An avalanche of soil poured | Many have gone to Paris to see Mona in upon Bull Goggins for the next ten minutes, without a moment's abate- | Madonna, so a great number of tourment. Meanwhile Bril was bellowing i late go to Danzig to see Memling press their love of the ornate. They The earth shower ceased. Bul. Gag-41 from its artistic value. It was capwould fold thin pieces of birch bark girs was now screaming for mercy. tured at sea in 1475 and during the several times and then bite small Presently Abe leaned over the shaft. pleces out of the folded material. "Ef we let you out," he asked; "wouldt it again, but it was returned in 1815 of leaves, flowers or other objects. go to work, an' I'll never do the of to Italy, where it was first consigned Specimens of this, art have been pre- man another lick o' harm as long as i for the de'Medici.

Abe turned about chuckling. "He's got his lesson, I reckon, fellers," he!

Oldest Grook Date

The oldest documentary evidence in

Carries His Own Comepy The tail of the great anteater, of South America, is covered with hair The Hawalian islands voluntarily up over the animal's back it serves

What Nerve?

"You Americans use such fareteal and funny expressions, avers an Eng-

There is magic in voices, though H note which thrills you in one person and is absent when another speaks. for a fancinating voice adds charm to ordinary dialogue and the average looks of average people, writes a correspondent in the London Daily Ex-charming way of apearing.

sion and a smile. makes friends is that it seems to be pocket?" speaking to you alone; taking you in

A sympathetic voice makes you feel ways by what is said, but by the lovely of Imitation by Man Clarence Day, in his clever volume, again, past the bank, the store, the

with the Indian mutiny. It was found | "Why, we'll stop on the way down | self-sufficient, unsocial. They are in as she traversed her path again. Runin the king of Oudh's treasury when the ridge, and fill up that linged o' direct contrast to the dependent, vocif- ning away from people, then running erous, gregarious simians. A world into people. from cats, would be a caim, poised, was peace and rest. troublous period. Originally, it is be- "Hit ain't likely he'll git buried smooth-running affair, free from inces- The morning aun streaming through

> It would be of necessity, not for rosy mouth. Slowly Sylvia's eyes to restrain speech. Each would go his own way, think his own thoughts, The men gathered about the top of Interfere as little as possible with true, not now."

> > Father Nile's Overflow

The flooding of the Nile is quite tion to maintain, no Mrs. Addington regular. At Cairo, near the mouth of Sims, Following this speech three or four! April and May and highest in August sheltered by a jutting rock. He plest expression, the Nile system may Presently his head was pressed a vast head reservoir (Lake Victoria) and annually flooded by the accession of a great body of water with which its name of the skin from young sheep of a variety whose native habitat is Bokhara, Afghanistan and Persia, Persian lamb is nearly always black, though occasionally a gray or dark brown skin appears. The best Persian lamb from Bokhara is silky and very tight curl. Caracul (also spelled karakul) and astrakhan are two names for the same fur. This is taken from another type of sheep which inhabits the region in Central Asia around Tashkent land also farther east in China and said, "Bull Goggins is down thar-le's Mongolia. Tashkent caraculs have the markings. The color varies from brown, black, brow, and black, to brown and white, and white,

Popular Fur

Dannig Many Attractions It is not an unusual thing in Europe to visit a city just to see a picture. Birch biting is now an abandoned and tagging with all of his lung "Last Judgment" in the famous and huge Church of St. Mary's in that of the ways in which the Indian wom- "Bout time to roll in the rock, fel-ti city. It is the one prize of the city and has had a history wholly apart Nanoleonic wars the French captured and today it is as much an honor to geometric patterns of rough likenesses | "Lord, I'll do anything. I swear I'll Bruges in Belgium, its first home, as

Historic Ducling Pictols At the termination of the historic The following morning, Bull Goggins: duel between Stephen Decatur and We enjoy nothing today for which was swinging a heavy matteck in the Commodore Barron, the pistols used who had acted as second for Barron. 1845, when they came into the bosses sion of the late Gen. W. L. Ellioft of "If you'll look, sweetheart, in my up-San Francisco, by whom, it is recorded. | per coat pocket, where I told you that from others. They grew eloquent Eighth century B. C. The errliest his they were owned in 1864, which is the first time, you'll find your ticket. of the Milwaukee public museum has will be our ticket to Happy Days."

Old Elevation

Climbing as they built, members towers for a power line in Californ and Nevada found one efficient way to pootstraps as they erected the towers, nishes the power for the construction f Hoover dam .- Popular Mechanics

Tickets, Pleasel-

By M. AMES

to Happy Days

The best looking man on earth at a fearful rate. Past the store, past | Sinity of Utica; and from this rest

The most beautiful women's cherm up. "But I'll mechange. I'll get back hers. Don't you dare faint!"

side her, head back among the Down through the avenue of elms

"This Simian World," once ventured Grange ball. At last the lights in

If they fought, it would be as indi- brown hair, wavered for a moment on viduals, no as droves. If they spoke, pale eyelids, and flickered over the > . Slowly she turned and streached her relaxed body. How nice it was at Gran's. Peace was here. Here was

ber. At Khartoum it is lowest in ambitious eyes of Mrs. Addington badpping turtle mouth, Mrs. Addington Sims had said, "Randy, it's my last word. That girl or my money. You

The door opened softly. It was

"You're awake, my dear. Good. Would you like coffee up here you feel up to a good breakfast down

"A big breakfast, please. Have been sleeping a long time?" "No less than three nights and two days, dear. You must be hungry

"Dea't you accuse me, my dear.

Sylvia glanced about the homey kitchen, lovingly. Suddenly her eyes world. A dark stain, almost red, was to bed. I'm still so tired."

the bearder was left downstairs to prowl about with his pipe. "How Gran trusts her boarder," Sylvia murmered. "Does she know about his crm? His poor, poor arm?" A wave of pity swept over her darling, throwing away his chance for all that money. What a man!" Slowly Sylvia crept downstairs, lured by a subdued whistle, straight into the haven of one good arm, and one black sling.

"Ch, my darling, Te you sure?" she "So sure, so sure, my very dear, that even before I came to find you, I put it in the paper that you and I were honeywooning. Do you mind too ! And later, quite a long while later.

Originally French

The expression, "Let George do it," said to have originated in France during the Fifteenth century, says cle in an ancient edition of Horse and Pathfinder Magazine. The French is Hounds, "a certain Mr. Gerard was activities of Cardinal d'Amboise, prime Oliver, when he was affronted by the

Coment Hard as Granite

Origin of Five Tribus After the Great Spirit bud crosts I at the bills and dates, the lakes and streams, placed the animals and birds in the woodland, and the Robes is the waters of New York, to dropped five handfuls of red sand across the "promsand sprang the Mohawks, of whom Joseph Brant was a prominent mem-

The second handral tell among the flat stones, Oneida, in Opeida and Madforn sounties, and gave birth to the well-known patriot chieftein. The third handred fell among the ple of the hills, which the word Onon-The Cayugas arose from the fourth handful, dropped around the lake which still bears their rame, and from this group came the great orator, Logan, hills near Syracuse and today 550 peo-dropped in the beautiful valley which Jacket, Big Tree, and other counciljoined the original five, named in the Great Records Made by

Mon With Mighty Thows Topham, the famous strong man of Islington, fir ing a watchman asleep in- his box, took up box and man, the whole weighing at teast five hundredweight, and dropped them over a fourfoot wall into a burying ground. William Joy, known as the English Samson, saw four men trying vainly to ried it ten yards and pitched it into a ditch. This man was able to hold a big horse motionless even when its ward. Years ago "Monsieur Gregorie," a French strong man, amazed the peoa fatal squeeze .- London Mail and historic shrines. You may see the SE Synge streets, of Swift at 7 Hoeys | are brought. Other railways connect street, of Oscar Wilde in Merlan row, bor. All the heavy work is done by and if you will search, of Balfe the composer, of Lover and Lever the novthe little nation.—Exchange.

Notable Dublin Saringe

Queen's Petty Spite second wife of Henry VIII of Eugland, was deformed by the presence of a chinery .- London Tit-Bits. sixth finger, says Pathfinder Magazine The extra finger, however, was little nore than a stump covered by a nail | Comtral Engape Vields turned up at the sides. Anne wore gloves whenever possible, but Queon rival by compelling her to play card without gloves, thus exposing the formity and disgusting the king. Many of having six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, have been re- family.

"ChristoLing" Ship

ported by science

champagne on the prow of a ship when southwest and even southeast. They It is launched is a relic of the ancient | settled in Gard perhaps about 1000 E. libation, which was practiced when | C. and were probably at the height ships were launched. The ancients of their power about 400 B. C. Later image she bore. The action of bless- from the Cormanic tribes to the north. of St. Derys. In July, 1418, the bishop | quered by the Romans, "yom the south. of Banger was sent to Southampton to They maintained their independence bless the king's ship to insure cuccens. In the British fales, though, for cenfol voyage. In this country water or turies. some other liquid has taken the place of wine since prohibition has gone into | tended finally to merge them with their

Salt Water in Oil Wells

salt water when drilling an oil well. Bretons, have widened the difference The geological survey says that the between them. sait water was left in the rocks when sand and mud were originally laid down in the ocean. In the easttuing fresh water is found in oil wells. I clis in the modern sense of a sol

What Is the Limit?

In Death United

"laissez faire a Georges," originally | Walking near Ivybridge lane, in Lon

Silence That is Not

THE MERCHANT who fails to "speak up" lets a lot of golden sales slip past his store. This lost business goes either to his competitor down the street or by the mail order route, to the big city stores.

People are often surprised to find that the goods they bought "unsight unseen" from a catalogue can be seen and examined in the local store.

Tell the buying public what you have. An advertisement in THE CHAMPION will invite the whole community to your store. And People Shop Where They are Invited to Shop.

Living as they do apart from manro-shead people. The little country of Luxembourg, though, can claim a monfrom France some thirty years ago, and they have since built a monastery and appliances as a luxurious London of all nations, for it has many literary office building. The monastery is connected to the rillway station by a court, of Thomas Mc re at 12 Aungier up the various buildings, and save la-

Electricit, operates the central bakelists, of Drew the actor, of Lecky the ery and supplies the hest needed in historian and of Peg Woffington the the great ovens of the communal kitchactress. Borrow on e lived at 75 en. Cocking is done on the most scien-Stephens green, Shelley at 35 Ouffe | tide lines. Every shelf of the ovens street, while the tourist will read here | can be hermet'cally sealed, and by Joyce's "Dubliners" and his other works | means of special devices all kitchen which have scenes in this city, and smells are done away with. Milk and out at Glasnevin cemetery he will find butter come from the monastery's own the tombs of many of the notables of | dairy, which again is electrically operated. The cows are milked by electricity, while electricity separates the cream and churns the butter. The monastery publishes many One of the hands of Anne Boleyn, books, all of which are printed by the monks with the help of electrical ma

> First Records of Celts Brittuny, or Bretagne, is the penis Bretons are an Alpine or Celtic people and racially have much in with the Welsh. So have the two languages, both belonging to the Celtic

Celtic-speaking people occupied a very wide territory of old, spreading from central Eu.ope, where the first records of them exict, far to the west

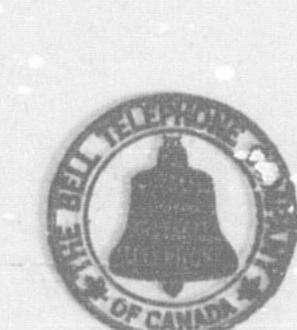

The encreachment of other peoples neighbors, or to break them into isolated groups like those in Brittany and Wales: and even here the admixture of Irish and English with the Weish and of various French stocks with the Original Load Pencils

but in the midcontinent fields the water | rod of marking material used for is salt. Drilling through large amounts | writing and drawing, either incased of water presents difficulties to the in some form of holder, is in the driller, but the drilling is continued un- treatise or fossi's by Courad Gesner of Zurich, Switzerland, in 1565. This writer describes an article for writing formed of wood and a piece of lead. or, as he believed, an artificial composition called English antimony. The famous Borrowdale mine, in Cumber land, having been discovered about here the first allusion to that great find of graphite. While the supply of an empty dream. Boston Transcript. | the Cumberland mine lasted the material for English pencils consisted simply of the native graphite as taken from the mine. "In Cromwell's days," says an arti-

"It's lovely honeyhow much do you want?"

on Station-to-Sta

lower night rate

at 8.30 p.m.

tion calls begin

Ed. Baker's wife gets such good prices for her honey. But Mrs. Baker's secret is simple. She sells by Long Distance telephone. "It's lovely honey this summer," she telephones to the hotel in town. "Yes - I'll deliver by the

All her neighbors wonder how end of the week." Long Distance is quick, easy to use - and profitable.

