DAVID HUGHES FINED.—In Police Magistrate McIlveen's court, Oakville, on Monday, David Hughes, formerly of Milton, whose premises, "Dave's Place," near Oakville, were raided by Provincial Constable Cookman, of Milton, Chief Kerr, Oakville and Constable Patterson, of Bronte, on June 1, and a quantity of liquor found concealed in the rear of the property, was fined $200 and costs. While the raid was in progress, Hughes disappeared, and the police were unable to locate him. He returned voluntarily and pleaded guilty to having liquor in his possession unlawfully. As this was his second offence, his place was placed under ban.

A GRAND SUCCESS.—The Street Fair and Dance, held here on Saturday evening last under the auspices of Milton Arena, Ltd., was a grand success. Milton's band, one of the best, and Frank's orchestra furnished excellent music, while the Kansas farmer entertained the large crowd and kept everybody present in a continuous roar of laughter until after midnight. Following are the winners in the drawing contest: First prize, half ton of coal, Mrs. Elmer Downs, Milton; Second prize, electric reading lamp, W. J. Chisholm, Hornby; Third prize, bag of sugar, Mrs. Sid. Mountain, Esquesing Township. After paying all expenses there will be a surplus of $100, which speaks well for the committee in charge of the event.

Mr. Thompson Kirby, of Victoria, B.C., was in town on Monday. He spent his boyhood days in this district and left here fifty-four years ago for Manitoba, which was then known as the great lone land. There were no railways all the way to Manitoba. The end of the steel was in Minnesota. It was about a week's travel from there to Fort Garry. Mr. Kirby did pioneer work, going through great hardships. Not a stream was bridged between Fort Garry and the Rocky Mountains at that time. Later he was engaged by a bank to do special work and travelled over the three prairie provinces for a number of years before going to British Columbia, where he did similar work for a bank, but is now retired. He sees great changes in these parts since he first left, especially in towns and cities, but thinks the farms, especially farm buildings and fences, are somewhat neglected. He is of the opinion that this depression is not going to pass over in a year or so. Mrs. Kirby is accompanying him and are going east to visit friends in the maritime provinces before returning to the coast.

Later the sale was packed ready for shipping.

At the Milton Golf club's course, L. Servos defeated Mac Christie by 3 and 2 in the 18 hole final for the McConnell Trophy. Servos was right on his game, his putting being outstanding. It was a ding-dong battle, being all square at the first nine holes. Mac went to work to get in the lead with long drives only to find his opponent pitch long approaches right for the pin.

Hornby Women's Institute

The Hornby Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Pirie Saunders on Thursday last. Preparations were made for Hornby School Fair, the Institute having charge of the refreshment booth again this year. It was decided to contribute to the Chicago trip fund. A paper by Mrs. Love on "Home Decorating" was much appreciated. The contest was won by Mrs. M. G. Brown. Roll Call, "What I serve unexpected Company," was well answered by the 21 ladies present. A demonstration of cookies and drop cakes was given by Mrs. J. E. Wilson, Mrs. McCurdy and Mrs. Nielands. These were enjoyed very much. The meeting closed by singing "The Anthem."

A few weeks previous the Institute held a corn roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm. Races and novelty contests were on the evening's programme. About 80 persons were present. After a short business meeting the evening's fun closed by singing "God Save the King."

Pickpockets complain that they often find the depression has forestalled them. Shakespeare must have had something like that in mind when he wrote "Who steals my purse steals trash."
