HONNRY W. I.—The following officers of the regular meeting of the Honry Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. A. King on May 15th: President, Mrs. D. Downs; first vice-president, Mrs. G. Robinson; second vice-president, Mrs. G. Bussell; secretary-treasurer, Ella Peacock; directors, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. McCurdy, Mrs. Moffat and Mrs. Cordingley. Addresses were given by Mrs. Gowdy, district president, and Mrs. Campbell, of Georgetown.

A record crowd attended the opening dance at Huttonville Park last Friday evening and a great deal of excitement was caused by the difficulty in locating the music for the dance. The music was eventually found by Mr. Jim Evans of Georgetown, who won a season's pass for his skill at hunting the elusive fly. The management is offering an extra attraction for the dance, a crokinole game. The crokinole is a game of strategy and precision, and is the art of dancing, will demonstrate the latest dance craze of the continent. "La Cucaracha", also the Continental, and other well known dances. See announcements in this week's issue.

Y. P. S.—The final meeting of St. Paul's Young People's Society, held Monday night, was well attended. Following the devotional period, taken by Rev. A. B. Irwin, plans for the summer week were discussed and the following committees nominated to carry out the summer schedule: Glenn Turner, A. MacNabb, Mary McCready, R. Pearen and Frank R. White, "Food" solos were given by Bob Cox and K. Dewar. Following the program a progressive crokinole game was greatly enjoyed. Owing to a tie a final game was played by G. MacNabb, Irene Bush, Bob Cox and Donald MacNabb, the final decision being in favor of B. Cox, with D. MacNabb a close second.

Last Sunday was the official blossom Sunday, and the highways were crowded with cars filled with people who wished to catch a glimpse of Canada's Garden Peninsula, and to find assurance that Spring is really here, and Summer is just around the corner. The blossom on the cherry and peach trees were at their best, and it was a beautiful sight which was enjoyed by the several thousand motorists who were thoroughly pleased to see them. Twenty-five Miltonians took in the "Blossom-day" excursion to Niagara Falls, travelling in one of the fine motor coaches owned by the Highway King Coach Line Ltd., and driven by "Ted" Jennings, who is very popular with the citizens of Milton. All report having had an exceptionally good time.

The annual girls' conference, held on Saturday in the Farmers' building, was well attended. Groups of juniors throughout the province have been carrying on homemaking projects or studies in food and clothing and the Women's Institute bench, realizing the possibilities of project work under local leaders, has suggested home making projects for 1935-36, which were thoroughly discussed at the conference, under the direction of Miss Wallace, of Toronto. The objectives of this program are to provide opportunities to assist the girls in the continuous growth and development of the individual, physically, intellectually, socially and spiritually. The girls are encouraged to develop a higher appreciation of farming and home-making and to stimulate a greater interest in it, and also to realize intelligent and responsible citizenship and co-operation in the betterment of the community. The department of agriculture has promised the assistance of one instructor.
