Conservative Association of Halton county, George Currie, reeve of Esqueezing the maship, and a well known as candidate to contest this riding in the county of three other prominent Conserves. of three other prominent Conservatives were voted on: H. T. Foster of Nelson township, Le Roy Sargent of Bronte and Chas. Galbraith of Hornby. Eight others were nominated, but withdrew, as follows: Mayor George E. Elliott of Milton, L. H. Fleck of Georgetown, W. S. Davis of Oakvills, Amos Mason of Acton, J. A. Willough by of Georgetown, S. Brown of Oakvills, would have stirred up considerable troubles and much lamenting for the County town boys.

Oakville will pass muster in any of the fans.

As is always the case when these two teams meet action was a predominating feature. If ever a club showed fight it was the lake shore crew. Trailing by the score of 9 to 3 they unleashed a dynamic batting offensive in the seventh frame that yielded four runs, and one more single would have stirred up considerable freshen now. Apply J. A.
