The school-room of St. Paul's Church was comfortably filled Tuesday evening last when the members of the congregation met to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the United Church of Canada. A varied program of vocal and instrumental music and community singing was interspersed with conversation and stories. A dainty buffet luncheon was served, two of the older members, Mesdames McClellan and Wilmore, pouring coffee. A feature of the evening was the lighting of the ten candles on the birthday cake by Mrs. Hare. It was a jolly family party, widening the spirit of goodwill and optimism prevailing in the congregation.

We of Branch 136, Canadian Legion, extend to Mr. Willard and his troop of scoutmasters congratulations for their splendid showing on Sunday last when they attended divine service at Grace Church. We as an organization are behind the scout movement and all its standards and we wish Scoutmaster Willard and his assistants every success in their great undertaking. We now take the opportunity of thanking the troop for their offers of assistance in the presentation of the birthday cake to the new members, and we, the officers and members of Post 136, hope that at any time the troop needs any assistance in any of their various undertakings they will call on us.

Announcement was made from Toronto last week that the appointment of Esquing township as sheriff and surrogate court clerk of Halton county, succeeding J. M. MacKenzie, Milton, and Col. G. Brown, of Georgetown, who has held the post of sheriff for the past seven years, William Anderson, former deputy-reeve of Oakville, has been appointed Mr. Hampshire's deputy. The appointments represent a saving of $2500 since the salaries of the appointees total $3500, compared to $6100 received by Mr. MacKenzie, Col. Brown and Deputy Sheriff E. E. Yates, former incumbents. The newly-appointed officials will take office on July 1st.
