I am now back in the drug business again. For about thirty years I have given the public the very best of service and endeavoured in every way to give you quality in drugs and drug store merchandise at reasonable prices.

There are many qualities in drugs, chemicals and various other articles carried in a drug store. I have always given you the very best quality in drugs and always given you the very best quality in drugs and goes this year to Rino Braida, who and Mrs. T. H.
