WEDDING

PEAREN-TURNER.

With summer flowers forming ter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Turner, be- drews. came the bride of Rosslyn E Pearen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearen, ville. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. A. B. Irwin at the family residence, Martin St., Milton, on Wednesday, Aug. 14th. Miss Marjorie MacKenzie played the wedding music. The ceremony was performed before a ros arbor on the lawn, where tail standards filled with ferns, gladioli and hydranges made an attractive setting. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of white silk net over satin, simply fashioned in long princess lines. Her bridal veil was of tulle arranged to form a cap, surrounded with orange blossoms. She carried buttercup roses and baby's breath. The bride's younger sister, Myrtle, was bridesmaid. Mr. Robort Little, of Milton, was grooms man. After the ceremony a reception was held. The bride's mother received wearing a French blue lace ensemble large white hat and corsage bouque of large American Beauty roses. was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a flowered chiffon gown green mohair hat and corsage of Talis man roses and lily-of-the-valley. The bride's grandmother also received wearing a gown of black georgette small black hat and corsage boug of red roses. Later the bride travelling the bride wore a white sill white accessories. On their return they will lire in Milton.

NEAR-MAY.

The home of Mr. Lloyd May was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding Pine Plains, N.Y., and one sister, Mrs. E. Wilkinson, Milton. Verna Evelena, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. E. May became the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Near, of Georgetown. The ceramony was performed by the Rev. B. Eyre. During the signing of the register Mrs. George Townsend sang. The wedding music was played by the bride's sister, Miss Marion May. The bride who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. E. S. May, of Detroit, wore a lovely gown of white suade lace with insets of point d'esprit and long tight fitting sleeves coming to a point over her wrists. Her veil of silk net was in coronet style caught with orange blossoms and seed pearls. LC 2, FC 2. She carried a shower bouquet of Briarcliff roses and hly-of-the-valley. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Edna May. The groom was attended by Mr. Harold A. Parkinson, Malton, After a buffet luncheon, the couple left on a motor trip through Eastern Ontario. For travelling the bride wore a beige swagger suit with dark brown accessories. On their return they will live at Hornby.

G. H. NICHOLSON KILLED

G. Harry Nicholson, aged 69, was accidentally killed while hunting on the farm of his son-in-law, Mark Alton, Nelson township Saturday night.

Spending a few days with his rela-tives, Nicholson decided to hunt groundhogs after supper. When he failed to return within a couple of hours, friends went out after him. He was found dead beside a tree, with his gun hanging on a fence.
Mr. Nicholson suffered from heart trouble. It is thought that while climbing over the fence he was seized by a heart attack and in falling the gun discharged, killing him instantly. He was born in East Flamboro township. He had lived in Burlington for 20 years. He was a former reeve of Burlington and had previously served time ago the date for Erin Agriculturas deputy reeve and as councillor.
