SCOUT NEWS!

Camping days are over, and the boys regretfully returned home last Friday morning wishing it was only the beginning, but all thoughts are now turned to the Jamboree, and the teams are busy applying themselves to the task of making a 100 per cent. attempt to win the various events.

We would ask you to view the scout display in Galbraith's Dry Goods store and Pasken's Shoe store, especially the winner's shield that has been kindly donated by the business men of the town.

The troop would like 40 5-pound honey pails for the water boiling contest in the Jamboree. Anyone wishing to give one or more pails to the troop, kindly let one of the scouts know and they will call for them.
