Although few of the names mentioned in its columns are familiar to us now we would not want to discontinue the paper, and we watch for it every week the same we did over thirty years ago, and we are as disappointed now, as we were then, if it does not come on the day and Mr. Bill Weston. Immediately it usually arrives.

We are having beautiful weather. hot during the day time with cool nights, which is ideal weather for harvest and the farmers are busy. Threshing has commenced. Threshing is done out in the fields here, the same as they thresh on the prairies, only the grain is sacked here. They pile the sacks of grain beside the machine an cover it with straw if the weather looks at al! doubtful. It is later hauled into the granary. Grain is a good crop this year, but owing to a dry, cold spring the hay was a light crop. Prices will be better, but that means additional expense to the farmer who
