

Citizens Asked to Support Baseball Club by Attending Games

A full meeting of the executive of the Milton Baseball Club was held recently and as funds to carry on the work of the club are needed, it was decided to appeal to the people of Milton for their support. No collection is to be made, but it is hoped that people will at least turn out and attend the games. The players play simply because they like a good, clean sport and they receive no remuneration whatever. Every game is played in order to draw a larger gate later on. The boys give their time and the executive and others provide their cars for transportation to outside points. Unless the games are played out of this district, no one receives payment for their cars, and later on when games are played at a distance, the gate only is paid for by the club.

At present there are a large number attending the games free of charge, so it has been decided to close all entrances to the grounds except the main gate where tickets will be sold. The admission fee is small and an equipment is needed from time to time we trust everyone will co-operate. The executive give their time and the boys do the work, and this year they have demonstrated that they have a winning team by winning all but one of nine league games played.

Public school children will be admitted free of charge as in the past, but all others must either have a pass or pay admission. Passes were issued to those out of work by Constable Haddfield.

The executive also wish to draw the attention of parents who allow their children to go to the games unattended. It is impossible for the officials to watch everyone and the club cannot assume responsibility if any child is hurt when playing around the field during a game.

ROAD COURTESY

Motorists should dim their lights in passing other cars at night. Drivers know how they can be blinded by a glaring light suddenly blinding them to everything else around them and leaving them in the reaction with momentarily paralyzed sight, and a victim in the reaction of anything that might be ahead of them in the road. Many collisions have occurred through strong headlights—and fatalities. One mistake sitting on the bench of one of the larger cities of Ontario, makes a special mark of offenders in this respect, and the police of that city have instructions to use particular vigilance for them. On the highway, when the oncoming car signals, it is not only a courtesy of the road, but an act of safety in the interests of the other driver as well as yourself, for you to respond by changing for the moment from headlight to dim. When out on the stretch of highway with no approaching cars in sight the longer the reach of the headlight is important to your vision, but when meeting oncoming cars or driving within the precincts of a town, village or inhabited district, which has its streets lighted, the dimmer is more important.

Bulging With Money

(Ottawa Journal)
The banks and insurance companies and other financial institutions have their tills bulging with money that they can't get three and one-quarter per cent for, or less than that. Over in the United States, for example, there is one insurance company that has to invest $3,000,000 every day. It can't do it, or can't do it very profitably, with the consequence that often happens in this particular company has as much as $100,000,000 lying idle in the bank, bringing no interest at all. So with the banks. Last week the banks announced they were cutting interest rates on deposits. Why? Simply because they have more money than they can use—than they can invest. The trouble with the banks today is that they can't find enough people who have created and possess credit. There are not enough people to whom they can loan money profitably and with security. As a consequence, the interest rate structure is down; money is cheap; and banks and others who can get three and one-quarter interest on government bonds are glad to jump at it.

Miltonians in Auto Accident

(Burlington Gazette)
About 7.30 on Sunday evening, an automobile driven by Mrs. Chas. Kennedy, of Milton, crashed into a tree on Brent street, in front of Crow Hall, residence, but fortunately none of the passengers was seriously injured. Mrs. Kennedy was driving on to Brent street from Caroline street, when she noticed a car driven by J. L. McNay, of Appleby, coming up Brent street. She did not think she had time to get across the street intersection, and swerved her car to avoid a collision with the car driven by J. L. McNay. As a result of the crash the front axle was broken and the rear wheel demolished. A glass was also broken in the car. Miss Ellen Little, of Milton, had her knee injured; James Kennedy, Mrs. Kennedy's son, had his wrist sprained, and June Randall's hand was cut. The driver of the car and Ken Randall escaped injury. The injured were taken into the home of Mr. Fred. Hall, where Dr. W. A. Bodkin dressed their injuries. The wrecked car was towed to Virtue's garage. Highway Officer A. R. Smith investigated the accident.

KILBRIDE

The Women's Institute met at the Kilbride hall on June 25th. The meeting was opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer. Roll call—"What foreign country you would like to see and why?" The motion, "Words," was given by Mrs. A. McNeven, read by Nellie Howard. Current Events, Mrs. W. J. Stokes. Report of the Girls' Conference at Guelph was given by Eileen Howard and read by Mrs. J. H. Report of the meeting of "The Associated Women of the World" by Mrs. J. McMillan. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

Frank Taylor, native of Chatham, and now a wandering minstrel, has been seen on the streets of Brampton during the last day or so. Employed until the "depression," Frank has since earned his living by his voice. In the last few years he has sung his way through most of Canada and the United States. "It isn't the best living in the world," states Taylor, "but it's better than being on relief." He deserves credit in try to extra a living instead of going on relief at the expense of the tax-burdened ratepayers.

Peel-Haltou to Have Children's Aid Helper

Brampton, June 24.—Determined opposition from municipal officials failed to prevent members from voting for the appointment of an assistant to the inspector of the Peel-Haltou Children's Aid Society late last night, and a committee, headed by the President, J. M. Denyer, of Milton was appointed to obtain the services of a woman an objection to Inspector Frank Thompson. Objection was raised by J. J. Jamieson, Peel County Treasurer; W. G. Denison, Warden of Peel, and D. W. Moran, Chingacousy Reeve, that the counties could not afford to pay for additional help.

BASEBALL

In reporting last Saturday's Halton County League game at Georgetown the Herald's sporting editor says: "On Saturday afternoon last the local Intermediate Ball Team entered the boys from the county town, and were trounced by a 17 to 13 score. The game got under way with Georgetown looking by far the best team for seven innings and with the score being piled sky high, only to have Milton come back to score 10 runs in one inning and an additional seven to win the game. McMann was on the mound for Georgetown and pitched good ball up to the seventh, when in the eighth Milton started to knock him all over the place. He was replaced by Walters who did not fare so well either. It was just one of those games which we hate to say much about. A great game for the winners and a tough break for the losers after having the game won hands down up to the eighth."

OBITUARY

MRS. RICHARD JONES.
Martha Platt, widow of the late Richard Jones, died on Tuesday at her home on East Mary Street, in her eighty-eighth year. She was a native of Waterdown, and since coming to Milton as a bride fifty-seven years ago, had remained in the town. She was a member of St. Paul's United Church, and is survived by two daughters, Nellie and Mabel. Mr. Jones died some years ago. The funeral takes place this afternoon to Evergreen Cemetery, Rev. A. B. Irwin officiating.

ELIZABETH STORRY.

After an extended illness, the death occurred at the Milton Inn, here, of Elizabeth Stewart, widow of the late John Storey, in her ninety-first year. Mrs. Storey was born on the Stewart homestead, Scotia Block, in Esquewaugh township, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lunan Stewart, pioneer settlers of Halton county. Mrs. Stewart was a resident of Milton for many years. Prior to her illness she was an active part in the work of Knox Presbyterian Church here. Surviving is one son, John Storey, of Cleveland, Ohio. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, the service in Knox Presbyterian Church here, conducted by Rev. J. N. McFaul, when interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

J. M. MACKENZIE, Phm.B.

John M. Mackenzie, prominent druggist, and veteran figure in municipal affairs and mayor of Milton, and Mrs. Mackenzie, died Tuesday night in the St. Michael's Hospital at the age of 85. Although he had been in poor health for some time, his death came unexpectedly. Mr. Mackenzie was a former councillor and mayor of Milton, and was associated at another stage in his career with the local H. D. O. Commissioner. He was a past master of St. Clair Lodge, A. F. & A. M., and a member of Knox Presbyterian Church. In 1832, he was appointed clerk of the surrogate and county court for Halton county. In politics he was a staunch Conservative. His wife predeceased him four years ago. Surviving members of the family are one son, John, and two daughters, Marjorie and Muriel, all at home. Deceased will be laid to rest with Masonic honors in Evergreen Cemetery tomorrow (Friday) at 2.30 p.m., D.S.T.

LOWVILLE.

Misses Helen Kelly and Yerna Norris were successful in passing the entrance examination on recommendation. Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of Toronto, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Coulson. The scholars of S.S. No. 2, Mt. Nemo, presented their teacher, Miss Mary Coulson, with a pyrex and silver plate last week. Miss Coulson has resigned her position as teacher in the school. On Sunday morning in the Sunday school, the young men's class, which Rev. Mr. Kelly organized, presented him with an enlarged picture of the class. Mr. Kelly also received book-ends from the Lowville male quartette, of which he was a member. The annual Sunday school picnic of the United Church was held on Monday at Dundas park. There was a large attendance. One of the principal features of the picnic was the presentation made to Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Kelly, who has been the pastor of the United Church for the past six years, and who will be greatly missed in leaving this community. On behalf of the ladies of the congregation, Mrs. Leonard Coulson read an address, and Mrs. A. C. Colling presented Mrs. Kelly with a life membership and a pin of the Women's Missionary society of the United Church of Canada. On behalf of the congregation, Mr. Elmer Foster read an address and Mrs. S. T. Coulson presented Rev. Mr. Kelly with a purse of money. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly made suitable replies.

WEDDINGS

ISMOND-SWITZER.
Norval, June 24.—St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Norval, was a scene of a wedding when Mary Gladys Switzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Switzer, Norval, was married to Geo. Douglas Ismond, Norval, by Rev. G. Jackson. The bride was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sisters, Leone and Jean. Harold Early was groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Ismond left for a motor trip through the Muskoka district. On their return they will make their home at Norval.

STROUD-HILL

The marriage took place on June 17 at the home of the bride's mother in Milton of Mary Edna Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hill, of Milton, to Mr. John H. Stroud, of Dunnville, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Stroud, of Burk's Falls. Rev. A. B. Irwin officiated. The house was decorated with pink and white pom-poms, the ceremony taking place in the living room before a bank of ferns, roses and pink and white pom-poms. Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. G. C. Hill, the bride looked charming in a fitted gown of ivory satin with train, the stitched collar and reverses being of the Queen Anne style with orange blossoms. She carried a sheaf of buttercups and white sweet peas. The guests were received by Mrs. Hill, wearing a gown of black triple shaded crepe with a corsage of mauve shaded sweet peas, and Mrs. Stroud, wearing a gown of navy blue and white printed chiffon and wearing a similar corsage. Later Mr. and Mrs. Stroud left on a motor trip, the bride travelling in a navy and white printed chiffon dress, white pique cloth coat and white accessories. On their return they will live in Dunnville.

HORNBY

A most enjoyable time was spent at the Hornby paragon on Wednesday afternoon of last week when Mrs. Eyre as hostess, assisted by the ladies of Hornby United Church, entertained the ladies of Bethel and Ashgrove churches. There were about seventy present. The visiting ladies put on an interesting program of music and readings. Mrs. A. K. Leonard, of Milton, a gifted speaker, gave a most instructive address on "Our World and Mine." She spoke of the almost inconceivable vastness of the universe, stressing the wonderful discoveries made by man and the new sources of knowledge thus opened. In conclusion she compared these conceptions to the still more wonderful working of God in and through man. After the program a dainty luncheon was served at tables arranged on the spacious lawn.

NECTOR FORGETS BANS

Guelph, June 30th.—A little forgetfulness on the part of Rev. Allan Hill, Anglican rector of Lowville and Campbellville, put him to considerable inconvenience in the early morning hours of his wedding day, it was disclosed today. Sleeping peacefully after a busy day, during which he felt he had attended to every detail, Mr. Hill awakened at 3 o'clock in the morning to realize he had forgotten the most important thing for the wedding—the notice of the banns. W. Gordon Armishaw, an old Huron College school chum, who was the guest at the Hill home, the young clergyman started a fifteen mile drive to Campbellville to recover the valuable document, arriving back at day-break. The wedding at 9 o'clock yesterday morning took place according to schedule.

CAMPBELLVILLE

A confirmation service was held in St. John's Church, Missagaweya, on June 19th, when 25 candidates were confirmed by the Lord Bishop of Niagara, the Right Rev. L. W. Broughall. The bishop gave the address. The church was decorated with beautiful flowers. After the service a reception was held on the lawn of the rectory. The ladies of St. John's provided refreshments. A very impressive service was held at St. George's Anglican Church, Lowville, on June 25th, when Rev. F. A. Hill was inducted into the charges of St. George's, Lowville, and St. John's, Missagaweya, by the Lord Bishop of Niagara. There were seven other clergy members present. Very Rev. Archdeacon Scott, Rev. Canon Naffel, Rev. F. Wase, Rev. Canon Weaver, Rev. H. W. A. Brand, Rev. Brillingor, and Rev. Mr. Brewer, who acted as Bishop's Chaplain. A very inspiring address was given by Archdeacon Scott. During the offertory the choir sang an anthem. The church was very beautifully decorated with flowers. After the service a reception was held for the bishop in the school room, when a dainty lunch was provided by the ladies of St. George's congregation.

MRS. J. A. HALL

(Burlington Gazette)
Mrs. J. A. Hall passed away at the home of her son, Oscar Hall, Elgin street, early Saturday morning, after a lengthy illness. The deceased was born at Omagh, but had resided here in January. She was 79 years of age. Mrs. Hall was a member of the Bethel United Church. She is survived by her husband, one son, Oscar, of Burlington, and two daughters, Mrs. Robert Wiles, of Port Dalhousie, and Mrs. Roy Wiles, of Monsejau. The funeral took place from the residence of her son on Monday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Finlay Matheson and Rev. Mr. Ayer, pastor of Bethel Church. A short service was held at the house, with a public service at the Bethel Church. Interment in Bethel Church cemetery.

London has adopted daylight saving time this year.

For seventeen years the "Forest City" has not adopted the fast time. Its popularity seems to be increasing, rather than decreasing. Death rate from motor vehicles is higher in Halton than in any other county in Ontario, statistics prepared by the accident-reporting division of the motor vehicles branch of the Ontario department of highways reveal. Although there were only 11 fatalities in this county, the rate was 33.5 per 100,000 population, the report said. While many districts had no deaths whatever, others had as high as 44, but because of differences in population, the accident rate was lower. Halton county takes in part of the much-travelled Lake Shore highway between Toronto and Hamilton. Both Norfolk and Northumberland had rates over 36, while Welland, Timiskaming and Peel were all over 30 for 1935.
