DIED

IN MEMORIAM

Pearson—In loving remembrance of a dear husband and father, Oliver Pearson, who departed this life Sept. 6th, 1934.

Gone, dear husband and father, gone forever.

How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.

—Ever remembered by wife, daughters Eva and Elsie and son Ernest.

Pearson—In loving remembrance of my dear father, Oliver Pearson, who departed this life Sept. 6th, 1934.

Sheltered by the Rock of Ages,
Anchored on that golden shore,
In the loving arms of Jesus
Rests our father evermore.
We think of him in silence,
His name we oft recall,
But there's nothing left to answer
But his picture on the wall.

—Ever remembered by Charles Pearson.

Time may heal the broken hearted,
Yes, it may make the wound less sore,
But it cannot let the longing
For the loved one gone before.
Who shall say the grief is lessened
Though a smile may give a tear.

Always remembered by daughter Evelyn.

WEDDING

PHILIP—BUNDY

Knox Presbyterian Church was, on Friday, the scene of a pretty wedding, when Ivy Isabel, daughter of Mrs. and the late Charles Bundy of Milton, became the bride of Robert Harvey Philip, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Philip of Milton. Rev. J. N. McPaul conducted the ceremony, and Miss Edith Dewar played the wedding music. Fuchsia and peach gladioli decked the church and provided a beautiful background. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, George, was in a gown of white chiffon and velvet made on princess lines, featuring cowl neckline, and skirt terminating in a short train. The girl was caught at the back with white gardenias. The veil, fingertip in length and featuring a braided fold of net, was caught with orange blossoms. Joanna Hill roses and lilies of the valley, Miss Joyce Henderson of Winnipeg, Man, was the brides' only attendant; frocked in white georgette featuring fuchsia motifs of orchids and made with knife pleating around the bottom and tiny pleating on the shoulders. The shoes matched the fuchsia motif. She carried a bouquet of cream roses with touches of fuchsia. The bride's mother wore a gown of georgette over velvet and carried a blackberry corsage of Premier roses, while the groom's mother was frocked in floral chiffon featuring black background with pale green flowers. She carried black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. R. Little, of Milton was groomsman, and the ushers, Mr. Harold Bundy and Mr. Harold Harris. A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. After a motor trip to Detroit and points west they will reside in Hamilton.
