

Milton Heights Ski Club gets two more victories

First-place finishes in both boys and girls categories in two divisions insured the Milton Heights Ski Club of victories against Chedoke and Pineridge Sunday.

Club members Remy Kaessermann and Dawn Hertz took top places in the Mountain Dew category at Loretto, thereby insuring Milton victory over Pineridge. At Chedoke Scott Richardson and Cathy Antonoff did the same thing in Alpine Blue.

Milton beat Chedoke 96.5-68.5 and downed Pineridge 117-78. Milton swept the top three spots against Pineridge, with Jeff Kunze and Real Latreille coming second, and third respectively. Campbellville's Michelle Drnovsek took fourth in girls and Angela Fitzsimmons fifth.

Mark Hoewing came third for Milton against Chedoke and Lindsay Dennison was second in girls competition. Laura Frost was fourth. Jennifer Quinn was sixth, Campbellville's Chris Smith was seventh and Dave Eaton ninth.

Latreille finished first in boys competition against Pineridge at Talisman in Alpine Red, but his strong showing wasn't enough to bump Milton into victory. Pineridge edged the Heights 97-92. Lee Whittick was third for Milton in boys and Graham Gordon fifth. Sue McCalden was the top girl in fourth. Milton skiers nailed down fifth and six, thanks to Kelly Kolosky and Kerry Bromley respectively.

In Alpine White against Chedoke, Milton took a 115-80 loss. Pete West and Carolyn Carpenter were the top Heights finishers at the Woodstock meet, each finishing fourth. Milton's Diane Chesla was fifth, and Dana Williams sixth in girls. Holger Jerch was sixth in boys and Jeff Allan eighth.

Hamill gets game winner

Scott Hamill slammed in a goal with six minutes remaining to give Milton's novice roster team a 4-3 victory over Burlington in one of five recent games for the Milton club, a series in which Milton won three and tied one.

In other matches, Milton downed Hamilton 4-1, dropped their first contest to Flamboro 8-5 and then tied them at four and beat Burlington again 5-1.

In the opening contest against Hamilton, Milton faced a hard-skating team but strong goaltending from Joey Rodrigues coupled with Milton's strong checking gave them the edge. Darryl Loader scored twice for Milton, while Scott Tobey and Shawn Kesik checked in with one apiece. Chris Griffin and Loader added an assist apiece.

In the first Burlington contest, Travis Stewart cashed twice while Brad Jenkins added one to complement Hamill's game-winning effort. Robert Kesik had two assists while Trevor Kuhn and Matthew Hart added one each.

Milton broke out of the gate quickly in their match against Flamboro, building a 2-0 lead by the end of the first period. But the fast-skating Flamboro team came back with two quick goals and added a third to nose into the lead during the final frame.

The last act featured a flurry of scoring, but Flamboro came out on top of the shootout. Scoring for Milton were Adam Johnson, Chris Griffin, Kevin Wilson, Kesik and Matthew Hart. Kuhn, Griffin, Adam Johnson and Todd Belford earned assists. Stewart patrolled the pipes for Milton.

In the return match, Flamboro opened the scoring but Milton quickly regained their footing and drew even. Darren Pemberton got Milton on the board near the end of the first. Milton opened a two-goal lead in the second with goals from Belford and Kyle Arbuckle. Pemberton and Hamill picked up assists.

Flamboro knotted it at three, however, and the teams traded goals in the last act. Kuhn scored Milton's last marker. Kevin Wilson and Hamill earned assists. Ryan Smith was in net.

The return match against Burlington was another fast-paced game, but Milton played that much faster.
