Runners show well

Sixteen-year-old Mike Johnson needed to dig down deep to go higher than he had ever been before.

The Athletiques International track club runner was facing elimination in the high jump at the Ontario Legion Winter Indoor Meet at York University Saturday.

He had two misses at 1.80 metres, and he had never cleared beyond 1.70 metres before.

But on his third try he cleared the bar, and went on to clear 1.85 metres, good for second place in the event.

Other members of Athletiques International also came through with strong performances as six Milton athletes formed part of a 22-person team from the regional club.

Milton District High School student Carrie Powers was forced to compete in the wrong division, but she earned a silver medal over 400 metres against competition three years older. The 14-year-old Powers took second in 61.8 seconds against 17-year-olds. Her finish was two seconds faster than the winner in her own age group.

W.I. Dick eighth-grade student Dylan Reynolds finished fourth in the boys 15-and-under 3,000m, recording a personal best of 10:16.7 despite running injured.

Reynolds suffered bruised ribs in a hockey game but he demonstrated that his training is paying dividends as he completed the first half of the race in 4:49.00, five seconds off his best outdoor time. He hung on to finish the race with an excellent time despite the building pain.

Tammy Whitaker and Vanessa Box made their debuts in the 1,500m racewalk, and they took fifth and sixth spots respectively. Whitaker finished in 10:58.3 while Box trailed closely in MDHS student Marty Powers battled both his competitors and an asthma attack in the 17-and-under boys 3,000m. The 16-year-old runner recorded a personal best of 9:59.00, good for 10th place.

Athletiques compete at the Cobra Classic Invitational Indoor Meet Saturday at York University.

Chemicals rally to clip Carpets 2-1

Otto's Chemical Lounge came from behind Sunday to burn Gordon Carpets 2-1 in Men's Indoor Soccer action.

With just four games left in the schedule, Otto's have an excellent chance of collecting second-place trophies, courtesy of New Mechanical. Although the game started with some close marking, it wasn't long before Carpet's Keith Forde slipped his checks, moved onto a pass from the wing, and smashed the ball home to make it 1-0.

It looked like Otto's would even the score soon after, when Andy Garside broke away, but it was not to be. Once again, it was Tom Silcock's lightning reaction that denied the oppostion.

Otto's then went on to power play, but couldn't capitalize on the advantage. Duncan Ramsay and Garside combined well to set up a good effort but Silcock was there again to stop the shot. Carpets were unlucky not to increase their lead as Anthony Goodbar fired in when, after being blocked by the goalkeeper, the ball rolled to the wrong side of the post. Carpet's knew they faced an uphill battle when, just before halftime, Rob Holiday was ejected from the game for verbally abusing the referee.

Even though they were a man short for 15 minutes, Carpets didn't sit on their lead. Early, Archie Tannock fed a lovely ball to Forde, but his effort was wide.

As one started to wonder whether Carpets could manage to hang on, Otto's tied it, and then took the lead. Stephen Jaap scored the tying goal when he connected with Neil Adamson's rebound and blasted the ball home from the top of the box.

The go-ahead goal came from Adamson. After a scramble right in front, of the goal with various people firing in, Adamson finally found the back of the net to put Otto's up 2-1. The Carpets never gave up though and almost walked away with a point. First, Iggy King hit the bar with a piledriver and then Goodbar had a goal called back as he had entered the Frankel Dickens doubled Abacus Scales 4-2. Lee Tyrell led his team with a hattrick and the leagues' youngest player, Glen Innes notched his first. George Dawson and Tom Kane replied for Scales.

Realty World Phantoms rolled over Maplehurst 6-1 thanks to goals from Tom Forbes, Bob Gibson, Mike Rukavina, Joe Dubravac and Hugh Cranny. Liam Gibbins, of Maplehurst, fired in their lone marker.

Everyone will be able to get to church next Sunday as there are no games scheduled. The next game date is Sunday Feb. 23.
