Margaret Snow feted on birthday

Close to 100 family and friends gathered at Pineland Farm in Hornby on Sunday to honour Mrs. Margaret Snow on her upcoming 90th birthday. The happy event was hosted by her sons and their wives, Delbut and Hazel Snow of Collingwood and Jim and Barbara Snow of Hornby. A reception was held followed by a dinner and social time. Many telegrams were received as well as gifts and good wishes.

Mrs. Snow is the daughter of the late Mrs. and Mrs. Jim Devlin of Omagh and is one of a large family. She is in good health and as usual, looked beautiful. Mrs. Snow is a resident of Pettit House in Milton Manor and greatly enjoyed visiting with her many guests.

Attending the happy event were her sisters Mrs. Hattie Harris of Daytona Beach and Mrs. Violet Forrester of Oakville. Mrs. Minnie Word, another sister living in Daytona Beach, was unable to attend the party. Friends wished Mrs. Snow many more happy years. Get well wishes to George Swann who is under a doctor's care at his home. Sorry to report that Kenneth Lawrence and George Yorke are patients in Milton District Hospital.

Barry Coe of Milton, the former host of Saturday Milton Morning on CHWO in Oakville, is now employed by CHML in Hamilton.

Omagh

with ELLA PATTERSON

Mrs. Greta Vanderdeen celebrated her birthday on Sunday, Aug. 24 and was guest of honour at a party at the home of her son and daughter-in-law Dick and Eileen Vanderdeen. Her family of five sons, their wives and families attended.

United Way begins Sept. 2

A video, which shows how Halton regional employees have benefitted from United Way services, will be the keystone of a United Way canvassing drive in all regional offices.

The video, which was previewed for regional staff and councillors last Thursday at regional headquarters, was prepared in-house and in co-operation with the Halton Regional Police training unit.

Halton Medical Officer of Health Dr. Graham Pollett said, "this year Halton Region has personalized the canvassing with a visual presentation reflecting on regional employees who have received benefits from the United Way."

Dr. Pollett said the staff is involved, on a volunteer basis, in planning special events to raise funds in addition to canvassing regional employees. They include:

A Trivial Pursuit competition Sept. 2nd from noon to 2 p.m. in the regional administration building.

Official campaign kick-off barbecue/flag raising ceremony Sept. 3 at 11:45 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the regional administration building.

Canvassing of regional employees Sept. 3-19 in all regional offices.

Bake sale Oct. 10 in the regional administration building, and Monte Carlo Night, Oct. 25 in the Polish Hall, Fairview St. in Burlington.

Arthritis pain & crippling can be controlled.
