A TRIBUTE TO GARY JOHNSTON
Those of us at Leavers who know you well decided the truth about you must be told. We can no longer hide it. You were a very strange fellow. You had no sense of humor if you heard somewhere, we liked you well, it was just a vicious rumour. Your body was always in forward. But your mind was in reverse. Now Gary don't get mad. Don't hit us with your purse. The buildings you erected have a flaw we recently found. You put the nails in backwards and they've fallen to the ground. Frank has central air these days. Since his walls have disappeared. He's suffering from pneumonia now and may not recover it's feared. David's floor gave way to day. He's reported missing in action. The pictures fell on Philip's head and they now have him in traction. We hope you don't intend to make this talent your life's ambition. Cause the structural skyline of this world will become a sorry situation.
