

Hospital cops cheque

The people of Campbellville always thought of Len Pickett as "our police officer." So when it was announced he would be retiring, the Campbellville and District Lions Club and The Nassagaweya News decided to honour him for all his efforts on behalf of the village. When Len found out, he asked that any money raised for gifts or trips be donated instead to

Joy Bousfield gets scholarship

By KATHARINE GARWOOD
 At the Halton District Women's Institute fall board meeting Monday Oct. 6, it was announced that Joy Bousfield of Milton was awarded the Ethel Chapman Scholarship and the Halton District Bursary.
 Joy, 19, completed Grade 13 at Milton District High School and has commenced studies in management economics at the University of Guelph. The $400 in awards was well deserved as Joy has maintained a very hectic schedule throughout her school years by taking part in 13 4-H clubs, earning her St. John's Ambulance First Aid certificate and acting as a lifeguard at Kelso.
 She took three years of piano lessons and was a member of the concert band for four years as well as being an active member of the Knox Presbyterian Church.

 The Ethel Chapman Scholarship and Halton District Bursary are awarded to youths who are residents of Halton, have completed the required number of 4-H programs and are furthering their education after Grade 13. Applications for these awards can be received from 4-H leaders in Halton Region.
 The Halton District Women's Institute celebrates its 85th anniversary with a euchre game and dessert luncheon Saturday Nov. 8 at Hillcrest United Church. Members from the 12 branches in Halton will come together to celebrate this milestone. Mrs. Edna Wilson of the Ashgrove Branch has been a member for 60 years, more than any other member, and will be given the honour of opening the celebrations.

University Women select new executive

By PAT LEWINGTON
 The Milton and District University Women's Club held their first fall meeting at Milton Public Library on Sept. 11. Entertainment was provided by the Kelso Trio and desserts were made from the University Women's Club's new cookbook.
 This year's executive consists of: Susan Hale, president; Loretta Mulligan, first vice-president; Emily Wilcock, second vice-president; Nancy Thistle, recording secretary; Brenda Austin, corresponding secretary; Martha Pendlebury, treasurer; and Watson program convener; Daphne Coulter; membership convener; Jackie Laughren, social convener; Brenda Whilcock, newsletter; and Pat Lewington, publicity.

 The program for the year consists of a variety of intellectual and creative pursuits from women in the public eye and in the workforce such as natural medicine and genealogy.
 New members are welcome at any time. At the Nov. 6 meeting there will be a slide-tape presentation entitled Cave, Canadians concerned about violence in entertainment. It is open to the public and will be held in the Martin St. junior school library at 8:45 p.m.
