

Withnell-Marchesich

Wed in September

The marriage of Rhonda Anne Withnell and Claudio Graziano Marchesich was celebrated by family and friends on Saturday, Sept. 6 at Holy Rosary Church.

Rhonda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Withnell of Milton and Claudio is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Severino Marchesich also of Milton.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Durray and Dorian Poloni was the organist with Sonya Vasotto as the soloist.

The maid of honour was Betty Dykstra, a friend of the bride and bridesmaids were Cathy Foster, friend of the bride, Gloria Marchesich, sister of the groom and Lisa Eves, a cousin of the bride. The flower-girl was Laura Davis, a friend of the family.

The best man was Peter Rota, the groom's cousin, and ushers were Larry Withnell, brother of the bride, Aldo Marchesich, the groom's brother and Jerry Dean, a friend of the groom. The ring-bearer was David Lajeunesse, the groom's second cousin.

The bride's gown was imported from Italy and had a six-foot train made of organza.

The reception took place at the Lion's Club Hall in Milton with 250 guests attending. Mary Price of Campbellville made the three-tier wedding cake which was topped with a fountain.

The master of ceremonies was John Eves, the bride's uncle, and special guests included the bride's grandmother Verna Laking and the groom's grandmother Giovanna Marchesich.

A bathroom and personal shower was given by Doris Winton, the bride's aunt, and a kitchen shower was given by Juliana Smelko, the groom's sister. Miscellaneous showers were given by Betty Withnell, the bride's aunt, the maid of honour and bridesmaids, and the employees of G.M. Fiat Ltd.

The couple honeymooned in Puerto Plata and plan to reside in Milton.

Women celebrate 85th anniversary

A meeting of the Hornby Women's Institute was held on Oct. 8 at the home of Mrs. E. Patterson Sr. with eight members present. Mrs. L. Sampson, president, opened the meeting with the poem, "Dare to be happy."

Mrs. Ron MacPherson read the minutes of the last meeting and gave the treasurer's report. On Nov. 12, a meeting at Brookville Hall will be held beginning at 8:30 p.m. A speaker will discuss public relations and two members from each women's institute were asked to attend.

The 85th anniversary of the district women's institute will be held Nov. 8 in the form of a dessert luncheon at Hillcrest United Church.

Mrs. Patterson gave a report on the district directors' meeting held Oct. 6 and a resolution members would like to see passed was answered by all present.

Mrs. J. McCarron read a poem she had written Oct. 5, 1975 describing a trip she had taken. Slides were shown by Mrs. R. Wilson on Cullen Gardens.

50th Anniversary

Armstrongs have several surprises

By HELEN PENRICE

A well-known and respected Milton couple, Dr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 12. During the Armstrongs' eight-year pastorate at Emmanuel Baptist Church in Milton, beginning in 1974, they endeared themselves to many in Milton within the church and the community.

Before his official retirement from full-time ministry in 1982, Dr. Armstrong accepted the invitation to become chaplain at Halton Centennial Manor in Milton — a position he still holds.

The Armstrongs are now members of Maple Ave. Baptist church in Georgetown and Dr. Armstrong continues to accept guest-speaking engagements, not only in the Maple Ave. church, but in other churches in the area.

Their golden wedding anniversary celebrations began in July with a family dinner at the old Hide House in Acton, and another family gathering was held in their honour in Hamilton on Sept. 12.

Following the regular Wednesday chapel service at Halton Centennial Manor on Sept. 10, the staff and residents surprised the Armstrongs with a large reception and presentation in the auditorium.

On Sept. 19, another surprise awaited the Armstrongs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benson in Campbellville. A group of friends and former members of Emmanuel Church, whom they had worked closely with during their pastorate there, presented the couple with a silk flower centrepiece and a purse of money. A light lunch and anniversary cake was served.

Obituary

Eric Robert 'Bob' Reed

Funeral services were held today (Wednesday) for Eric Robert 'Bob' Reed, 63, of Milton, who died Sunday following a brief illness.

Mr. Reed flew Spitfires for the Royal Air Force during the Second World War and moved to Milton and set up a business.

He was active in the community having served for two terms as president of the Milton Rotary Club and as a director on the board of Milton District Hospital.

Rotary Park would never have existed except for Bob Reed, said one of his closest friends, John Keyworth, past president of the hospital board of directors.

Mr. Reed served six years (1974-1980) on the hospital board where he also contributed greatly, Mr. Keyworth said.

He is survived by children Charles of Drayton, Lark of Bermuda, and Robert of Milton. He is also survived by grandchildren Jennifer, Christopher, David and Nicholas.

Church bazaar on Saturday

Rev. Craig McLeod of Buffalo was guest speaker at Omagh Presbyterian's anniversary service on Sunday, Oct. 5. The male quartette of Hillsburg added to the service in the evening, and a social half-hour was spent at the close.

Omagh

with ELLA PATTERSON

Happy birthday to Rev. Wm. Mulligan on his 80th anniversary on Sunday, Oct. 12. Friends and relatives attended the celebrations at his home on Burnhamthorpe Rd.

The annual bazaar for Omagh Presbyterian Church will be held at Boyne Centre on Saturday, Oct. 18 from 1:30 p.m. Tea tables and usual sales booths are welcome.

Stephen Dean Chudleigh of Milton received a bachelor of science in agriculture degree from the University of Guelph. Convocation was held Friday Oct. 3.
