CAMPBELL In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather Murdo Campbell, who passed away December 31, 1982. Nothing can ever take away the love a heart holds dear. Fond memories linger every day. Remembrance keeps him near. Always remembered by son Bill, daughter-in-law Pat, granddaughters Julie & Jennifer, daughter Mary, son-in-law Jim and grandchildren Debbie, Richard and Heather.

MCMURRAY, DALE In loving memory of a dear nephew, who passed away January 1st, 1985. A garden of roses just for you. Sprinkled with teardrops instead of dew. And in the middle forget-me-nots. To show you Dale we haven't forgot. Always in our hearts. Aunt Marilyn, cousins Lori & Jim.

MCMURRAY, DALE In loving memory of a dear nephew, who passed away January 1st, 1985. Your presence we miss. Your memory we treasure. Loving you always. Forgetting you never. Always in our hearts. Uncle Dave, aunt Isabel, cousins Kim & Amanda.

MCMURRAY, DALE In loving memory of a dear grandson, who passed away January 1st, 1985. I think of you today with love. As I have often done. I feel the bitter blow. That never should have come. They say that time heals everything. I know that isn't so. Because it hurts as much today. As it did two years ago. Lovingly remembered by Grandma Morley.

MCMURRAY, DALE In loving memory of my dear son, who passed away on January 1st, 1985. We think of you in silence. We often speak your name. All we have are memories. And your pictures in a frame. Our hearts still ache in sadness. Our secret tears still flow. For what it meant to lose you. No one will ever know. Sadly missed by Mom and sister Trisha.

MCMURRAY A tribute to Dale. When I think of my brother. I think of a friend. I think of a father I never had. I think of the good times as well as the bad. And remember the parties we used to have. I remember my brother so strong & so proud. He had the wisdom and said it aloud. To listen and learn was the secret of all. To listen to him - He was ahead of it all. Philosopher Dale as he used to be called. He spoke as though he could handle it all. He shared his wisdom with those he had known. But there were still secrets he kept untold. I followed his footsteps and so I did learn. You only get in life what you have earned. To be myself and be proud of that. Stand tall and proud - no one can take that. So I chose my own life and I'm proud of that. But I still hear those words that keep me on track. As time goes on, I realize more now. My brother the father was showing me how. The sky is the limit, never settle for less. What he wanted for me, was only the best. He was more special than the moments we shared. The strength he had given, showed that he cared. The times that we shared - nothing can replace. Now, I hold memories no one can erase. Togethers it seems its all over now. But each day of my life seems brighter somehow. His words are as clear as just yesterday. Two years gone by seems only a day. Dale was a hero, died fighting a battle. Going through life facing all of its hassle. But he never weakened, he was stronger by far. It wasn't his world - it wasn't his war. With loving memories. Darlene.

MCMURRAY - In loving memory of Dale, who passed away January 1st, 1985. Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break but all in vain. To have, to love, and then to part. Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. The years may wipe out many things. But this we wipe out never. The memory of those happy days. When we were all together. Always remembered. Diane Gervais.
