

Haydar lifts Medics to tournament win

The Docs and Dents minor atoms captured a 'whopper' of a tournament in Newmarket last weekend.

The hungry Milton squad went undefeated in four games to capture the championship crown at the 37th Newmarket Burger King Tournament.

Medics squeaked past Whitby 3-2 in the final game, while Milton captain Jeff Haydar was selected as tournament MVP. This was his second such award of the season. In addition, the duo of Kevin Wilson and Ryan Smith were selected as the outstanding goaltenders, as they combined for a 1.25 goals against average.

In the championship game, Haydar opened the scoring tipping in a Scott Tovey pass. Whitby tied the score prior to the end of the first, while both sides skated through a scoreless second. Trevor Kuhn and Darryl Loader made individual diving poke-checks to cancel two Whitby breakaways.

Fabio Pento gave the Medics a one-goal lead in the third frame.

The fast-paced action continued as each team went end-to-end until Haydar converted a Justin Lynch pass. Whitby closed the gap with just a minute remaining and Haydar's marker stood as the game winner.

Wilson made numerous saves for Milton and could not be faulted on either Whitby goal.

Smith provided his troops with plenty of inspiration as he backboned a 5-0 shutout victory against Bolton.

The win avenged an overtime loss suffered by Milton in the final game of a different tournament this season against Bolton. Medics were eager to set the record straight with Bolton and required little inspiration from their coaching staff.

Haydar led the way offensively with four goals and an assist. Loader scored the other Milton goal, while Lynch and Tovey chipped in with a pair of assists each. Frehs provided plenty of persistent checking, endless skating and justifiably so was named the game's MVP.

In earlier action, Medics beat Brantford 7-2. Haydar fired four goals while Pento, Loader and Maltais scored one apiece. Maltais added two assists to his strong performance. Loader was chosen as the game MVP.

The tournament's opening game saw Milton gang up on St. Catharines and score an 8-1 rout. Game MVP Haydar filled the net once again, this time drilling four pucks into the opposition net and then contributed by setting up three others. Frehs scored twice and added a pair of assists, while Lynch managed to turn on the red light on two occasions.

Mark McPhail had one of his best games patrolling the blue line, as he picked up three assists. His defence partner, Scott Hammill, added two assists of his own. Adam Johnson played his best game of the tourney through this encounter on the wing.

Medics are looking forward to continuing their recent success against triple-A teams this weekend in Buffalo. Team management said it was a "fine team effort" which supplied the Medics with their tournament title win.

Sounders win with spirit

Milton Colour and Sound minor atom C reps caught a little bit of the Olympic spirit on the weekend while competing against two touring clubs from St. Clair Shores, Michigan.

Sounders gained a split in the series losing the opener 4-3 in Milton on Saturday and edging Michigan 2-1 the following day in Burlington, while the Wolves hosted two squads.

In other action, Milton defeated the hosting Oakville squad 4-1 and then beat Whitby by a 6-4 margin.

In the opening contest against Michigan, both teams were rather tentative at the start, not knowing what to expect from each other. It wasn't until late in the first period when Chad Broussard put the Sounders into the lead with a high wrist shot after being set up by Darren Pemberton.

It didn't take long for St. Clair to even things up as they scored within seven seconds and then took the lead a minute later. Michigan increased its lead to 3-1 midway into the second frame. Chris Griffin got Milton back into the game with his two timely markers.

Just as it appeared both teams would settle for a tie, Michigan notched the game-winning marker with 27 seconds remaining for the win.

In Burlington, both sides battled through a scoreless first period, before Iain MacIntosh opened the scoring for Milton on a neat set-up from Joey Rodrigues and Broussard.

Shawn Kesik put Milton up by two after converting passes from Matt Brownell and Cameron Davies. St. Clair managed to hit the mark midway into the third, but Sounders defence held firm. Corey Bourgon played a strong aggressive game on defence and led many Milton rushes.

In Milton's 4-1 victory against Oakville, the trio of Brownell, Eric Medeiros and Kesik sparked the Sounders attack by accounting for all the scoring.

Medeiros led Milton with a pair of goals. Brownell scored once and assisted on another, while Kesik put in a four-point performance, scoring once. Jeff Merck and Greg 'the Hammer' Ollerenshaw turned in solid performances in goal.

Whitby drew first blood by opening the scoring with less than three minutes expired in the first period. Sounders came back and tied it on a goal from Broussard, who was fed a fine pass by Rodrigues.

Milton took the lead on an unassisted marker by Matt Hart. Before the period ended, Brownell combined with Davies and Kesik to give Milton a 3-1 lead. Sounders built a 5-1 lead on second-period goals by MacIntosh and Brownell and then witnessed it disappear in the third when Whitby exploded for three quick goals, within a minute and a half.

Kesik's goal with less than five minutes left in the game nullified Whitby's momentum and restored Milton's cushion. Davies earned an assist on the goal.

Milton Curling Club members Marilyn Bahman and Helen O'Donnell sweep a rock into the end during action in the Farmers and Milkmaids open bonspiel on Wednesday. Curlers from as far away as Oshawa and Walkerton competed, while a local rink won the first draw.

Clement wins Farmers bonspiel

Bruce Clement's Milton rink harvested themselves a victory in the Farmers and Milkmaids open bonspiel at the Milton Curling Club on Wednesday.

Skip Clement and his rink of vice Pam Rigby, second Phil Mahon and lead Diane Rigby, beat 11 other rinks as the first overall draw winners with 50.25 points. This year's bonspiel was sponsored by Mountainview Veterinary Services.

Erik Fogt's rink place second overall with 47 points. Skip Fogt's foursome includes Milton curler Jennifer Harmark as vice and Brampton curlers Harry Coffey as second and lead Muriel Fogt.

Phantom Realtors extend MISL win streak

Realty World Phantoms kept their winning streak going when they came out on top of a 4-1 score against Marg Swain's Marauders.

Action took place in the Milton Indoor Soccer League Sunday at E.C. Dury School.

Marauders scored first when a long ball thrown by keeper Andy King found Mel Cutler alone behind the Phantoms' defence and he made no mistake. Marauders took control of the game and seemed to enhance their chances when one of the Phantoms defenders was called for clearing the ball in his own goal area and a penalty kick was awarded.

Tom Kane took the kick and placed it wide. Just before halftime, Dave Poustie tied the score for Phantoms against the run of play.

The second half was more even in play and Phantoms started to enjoy a lot more shots on goal and in a five-minute period bagged three more goals, one from Tony Doran and Poustie getting his hat-trick.

Merchants lose to Blades 4-2

Instead of going for the gusto, Milton Merchants have elected to go el-busto, following Tuesday's 4-2 road loss to the Oakville Blades.

With just six games remaining in the regular schedule, including four at home, Merchants should be gearing up for post season play and concentrating their efforts on improving its position in the standings, ensuring themselves of an easier opponent come the playoffs.

It doesn't seem as though Merchants are doing either, as they skated through three seemingly listless periods of hockey at the Oakville Arena and lessened their chances of grasping fourth place in the seven-team West Division of the Central Ontario Junior B loop.

Merchant right-winger Paul

Halton Outdoors Shop kept up their winning ways by downing third-place A&B Plumbing 5-1.

The Outdoorsmen took the lead after five minutes of play in the first half, when Eric Gelard rounded a defenceman and placed the ball wide of the keeper.

Two minutes later Gelard was on the mark again. Keith Forde connected with a defence splitting ball and one-timed it past Tony Duerdonb in the Plumbers net.

Rob Holiday picked up the ball in his own defence area and ran the length of the field before blasting the ball home. A mistake at midfield left the Plumbers Gary Veasey unmarked and he made no mistake, ruining Tom Silcock's shutout bid.

In the second half, Halton Outdoors continued to pass the ball around well and in the 10th minute, Aleks Roomussaar rounded off the scoring for Halton Outdoors victory.

F.W. Fearmans, which played for most of the first half with only two players and a stand-in goalkeeper, managed to hold Eric's Allsort's at bay for seven minutes, but the inevitable happened when Allsort's Garath Lewis finally beat the Fearman's keeper.

Moments later, Fearman's regular goalkeeper showed up and the game picked up a pace or so. Steve Ford gave Allsort's a 2-0 lead.

It was Fearman's Trevor Knight who brought the game to within one and it looked at this stage that Fearman's would pull off a shocker and tie the score.

However, the tying goal wasn't forthcoming and that was as close as they would come. Allsort's Steve Ford notched his second marker of the game and Lewis completed his hat-trick performance. Fearman's Sandy McLachlan netted a consolation goal to round out the scoring.

The most evenly played contest of the day ended with both teams sharing in the points, as New Mechanical and Milton Glass and Mirror played to a 2-2 draw.

Carriers status slides

Milton Beeline Carriers major novice rep A hockey team witnessed its status in the standings slide somewhat after a disappointing week of action.

Carriers best performance this week was a 2-2 draw with Oakville. Then they went on a three-game losing skid, including losses to the Burlington Wolves 4-3, Streetsville 7-0 and Georgetown 5-4.

Against Oakville, Carriers fell behind 2-0 after two periods but were able to mount a rally in the final frame to tie the score. Tom Ellison and Billy Robbins hit the mark for Milton. Jimmy Leworthy was between the pipes for the Carriers.

Milton's record slipped below the 500 mark following their loss at Nelson Arena. Burlington came out skating and exited the first period up 2-0. Carriers managed to tie the score in the second period on goals by Robbins and William Noon.

Both teams traded goals in the third and it looked like Milton would have its second come-from-behind tie. However, Wolves dashed any hope of that when a Milton defender inadvertently cleared the puck into his own goal. Ellison notched Carriers only marker in the third and Donald Perry tended goal for the Beeliners.

Milton simply got beaten up against Streetsville. They were beaten on the faceoffs, in the slot, at centre ice, along the boards and in foot races to the puck. This was not their finest hour. Goaltender Leeworthy faced the onslaught of Streetsville shooters.

Beeline's league record dropped to 11-14-2 when they dropped a heart-breaking 5-4 decision to Georgetown on Sunday night.

Georgetown scored the game winning marker with just 29 seconds remaining in the third. Milton pulled Perry from his goaltending position in favour of an extra attacker, however they failed to knot the score.

Milton led by a 3-1 count after the first frame and 3-2 following the middle period, while Georgetown managed to storm back for the victory. Carriers picked up one of eight possible points this week.
