Beamsville choir entertains

The Church of Christ located on Britannia Road in Omagh village is one of the oldest churches in this area and very active for these many years.

Sunday, Feb. 7, the choir of Great Lakes Christian College of Beamsville were guests and gave a program of musical numbers. David

Omagh

with ELLA PATTERSON

McMillan was director for the evening when choral selections quartettes were enjoyed by the congregation, and local visitors. The evangelist minister is Edward Padelford and with his wife Peggy and children Danny, Lorne and Rachel reside in Milton Bible study for all ages at 10 a.m. and worship at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The congregation and visiting choir enjoyed a pot luck supper at Boyce Centre previous to the concert.

Sincere sympathy is extended to those who mourn the passing of John C. Eves of this area. John had lived all his life in Omagh village and was a member of Bethel Church. He had been an employee of Ford of Oakville. He was active in sports and coach of a local ball team. He is survived by his wife Frances, a daughter Heather and sons Danny and David and one grandchild. Also by his mother Mrs. Robert Laking and brothers and sisters. Service and interment was at Bethel Church. John will be much missed by all.

Rev. Cecil Cunningham gave the sermon at Omagh Church on Feb. 14. Mr. Cunningham has just returned from an educational trip to Jerusalem, Israel and gave souvenir gifts to the children of the Sunday school.

Lance Pocock, president of Halton Farm Safety Council, attended the annual meeting of Peel County Farm Safety recently in Brampton. The Halton meeting will be Feb. 25.

The Feb. 13 euchre at Hornby Centre had 11 tables in play. Prize winners were Margaret Crozier, Peggy Johnson, Winnie Smith, Charles Johnson, Tom Bousefield, Wes Durie. Lone hands were played by M. Richardson with five, E. McGilvray with six. Valentine Travelling prizes won by Jean Stringer and Ralph Featherston.

About 75 ladies attended the annual meeting of the Brampton Presbyterian W.M.S. on Wednesday at Knox Church, Milton. Retiring president Mrs. Renee Watson presided for the two sessions. The Synodical meeting will be in Sault St. Marie.
