

Church ground broken

Milton Baptist Church will be constructed at the site of a sod-turning ceremony held Sunday at noon. Mayor Gord Krantz (right) brought his own shovel for the occasion saying he polished it for the official ground-breaking. Construction of the church at the corner of Nipissing and Thompson Rd. is expected to be completed in June at a cost of $350,000. Also on hand Sunday were, from left, June Turner, John Lawrence, Guy Heroux and Doug Millage.

J.A. open house is on tonight

In connection with Junior Achievement Week, Milton's Junior Achievers will host an open house on Wednesday (tonight) to spread the word about the merits of the program.

Milton residents are invited to drop into their workshop at 555 Main St., Units 12 and 13 from 7-9:30 p.m.

The young members of this year's program will be on hand to demonstrate how they produce, assemble and package their products. They will also discuss quality control, company production, sales and marketing strategies, production targets, resolving company problems as well as action required to continue sound management of their business ventures.

Also on hand at the open house will be members of the JA board, program advisors, and the manager.

"GOD DON'T MAKE NOBODY GARBAGE!"

- SOME PEOPLE in Milton compare HOMELESS 16-18 YEAR-OLD YOUTH to GARBAGE, whose presence in a "group home" on their Street "lowers their property values like a garbage dump in the country lowers rural property values!"
- SOME PEOPLE buy homes in Milton with 600 public school children in their back yards but oppose the use of a Church's Christian educational facilities and 5-acre property ACROSS the Street, for 60 children enrolled in a non-Roman Catholic, inter-denominational Christian school!
- SOME PEOPLE in Milton think a mother should be allowed to dispose of her unborn child like garbage!
- SOME think that the aged, the handicapped, the Blacks, the Jews and the Baptists should be forced out of town, disposed of like garbage, "to protect our property values and our tax base"!

AT EMMANUEL, WE BELIEVE THAT EVERY PERSON IS A FIRST-CLASS CITIZEN — HOMELESS YOUTH AND RETIRED ADULT, ROMAN CATHOLIC AND BAPTIST, WHITE AND BLACK, JEW AND GENTILE, UNBORN CHILD AND BED-RIDDEN SENIOR, HANDICAPPED OR HEALTHY — ALL ARE FIRST-CLASS CITIZENS WHOSE GOD-GIVEN, INALIENABLE RIGHTS OUGHT TO BE PROTECTED BY THE STATE!

—IF YOU AGREE WITH OUR BELIEFS, we invite you to join us in our worship and service of the GOD WHO CREATED EVERYONE IN HIS IMAGE, and Who is THE FATHER OF OUR LORD JESUS, "MANKIND'S ONLY SAVIOUR, and COMING KING!"

—BUT IF YOU SHARE OUR BELIEFS, YOU'LL HAVE TO JOIN US IN WORSHIP OUTSIDE OF TOWN WHERE WE'VE BEEN DISPOSED OF BY THOSE WHO TREAT HOMELESS YOUTH AND BAPTISTS LIKE GARBAGE — BUT WHERE WE'VE BEEN WELCOMED LIKE KINGS — IN THE NAME OF CHRIST — BY MR. AND MRS. LOUIS NADALIN!

—AT EMMANUEL, "YOU AIN'T NO GARBAGE — YOU'RE A SOMEBODY — WHO'S LOVED BY THE GOD WHO CREATED YOU AND WHOSE SON DIED TO SAVE YOU, AND WHO'S PLANNED FOR YOU TO BE A CITIZEN OF HEAVEN!"

—The Emmanuel Baptist Church worships on the escarpment at "The Emmanuel Family Life Centre", "home of the interdenominational, HALTON HERITAGE CHRISTIAN ACADEMY", ½ mile North of Steeles on the Appleby (5th) Line, 5 minutes West of Milton.
