 first shift of the game to give coach Mike Comba's team all the momentum they needed.
 Comba said his guys had to work hard for the win and forget about a previous 1-0 loss to Fay's in regular-season play.
 "We played hard and learned a lot this year," said Comba. "Everybody contributed through the season."
 Mike Frizzo, Jamie Comba and Ian Pringle scored for the Royals. Steve Turner replied for Fay's.
 Comba said Royal goalie Peter Dennis had a strong game. The club didn't have a regular goalie all season and Dennis played the last eight important games.
 Fay's coach Rick Turner said his club came a long way to get to the final.
 He said the team didn't win many games at the start of the year, but then everything came together.
 "We played with more heart than talent," said Turner.

Remax scored first, but the shot beat goalie Wayne Ross just as the buzzer sounded and didn't count.
 St. Clair coach Chris Heath said his club got luck.
 "It was a big break and a good

Table tourney attracts 40

Home gymnasium didn't hurt Bishop Reding's Michelle Durante who won two events in a table tennis tournament held at the school Saturday.
 Durante beat Cecilia Walker of St. Thomas Moore in Hamilton 15-9 and 15-8 for the women's single title.
 She also teamed with Ruzica Bago for the women's doubles crown. The Bishop Reding team beat Hamilton's tandem of Ruth Sahr and Walker 15-12 and 15-13.
 Tournament convener Margaret Dorio said the day-long event attracted about 40 students from Milton, Hamilton, Oakville and Woodstock.
 Bishop Reding won two of five titles while St. Thomas took the others.
 Dorio said students from Grade 9 right up to Grade 13 played in the tournament.
 "You don't find that in other sports," said Dorio.
 She said the tournament has grown from last year's event when only four tables were in use. Dorio is hoping next year's event will draw a bigger crowd.
 "Hopefully it will get a little more popular."
 Bishop Reding coach John Picone started practices about three weeks before the tournament.
 The school isn't holding another table tennis competition, but Dorio said Bishop Reding students will play in other school tournaments.
 St. Thomas students won the men's singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles events.

goal," said Heath. "It could have changed the whole game."
 The two teams played two scoreless draws in the first 40 minutes and then St. Clair got goals from Chris Locey, Jonathan Budworth and Scott Yates.
 Heath said it was nice to see some of his players score on big shots after coming close all season.
 "We just didn't cash in our chances," said Remax coach Rod Kingdon. "We just didn't get the breaks."
 "The effort was definitely there, we just couldn't find the target."
 He said the clubs spent the first two periods feeling each other out and when St. Clair got their goals, his team had to open up.
 "It was excellent for the fans and the game could've gone either way," said Kingdon.
 Jamie Smith was in net for Remax.

Senior Shopsy's 4 Pigment & Chemical 3

The last game of the day was the first to go into overtime.

 Mike Budworth scored his second goal of the game at 5:25 in overtime to give Shopsy's the win.
 Duncan Heggie and Paul Jorgensen also scored for Shopsy's.
 Doug Carles scored twice for Pigment, his last goal sending the game into overtime. Mark Swailes had the other Pigment goal.
 Shopsy's trailed 1-0 in the second period when they scored three quick goals. Pigment chipped away at the lead and eventually tied the game. The club got a big break when a Shopsy shot hit the post with seconds remaining.
 Shopsy's coach Don Sheppard said he and coach Andy Tait wanted to keep the puck in Pigment's end throughout the overtime.
 "The game could've gone either way," Sheppard said Shopsy's game plan was to outscore Pigment. The clubs had been in several shootouts and didn't expect anything different.
 "Our game all year was to score more goals than them," said Sheppard. "We just wanted to outscore the other team."
