

Big Brothers has new executive and matches

Big Brothers of Halton Inc. announced its slate of new executives and board members at its annual meeting held recently.

The meeting was held at the Georgetown Golf and Country Club. The organization's new president is Gary Hannaford of Oakville; vice president is Katie Kidd of Burlington; Paul McCracken of Georgetown is treasurer and Ron Johnston of Milton is past president.

Directors are Scott Aird, Irene Bettiol, Ellen Cappon, Mel Catarine, Elaine Desroches, Al Galloway, Bruce Jenkins, Zenon Onufryk, and Doug Stone all of Oakville; Debbie Blakelock, Mary Jane Grant, Rob McDowell and Jim McGinnis of Milton; Mary Ann Drake of Burlington and George Wagner of Georgetown.

Big Brothers has recently launched a new program, couples matching.

Instead of pairing a little brother with a big brother, the organization is now pairing some of its boys with couples.

"They don't have to be married. It is just a man and his significant other," said Tordis Coakley executive director of the Big Brothers of Halton Inc. "A pair can volunteer to provide the friendship and support to the little brother."

Ms Coakley says couple matching would work best with a young boy, no older than 10 years.

"We implemented the new program because I think there are a lot of men out there who would like to volunteer if they had the time, but if their wife helps out they can share the load."

She says the new program actually recognizes women who have participated in the past.

"The fact is that there is a lot of wives out there who are already participating through their husbands."

To date one couple has been matched with a little brother. But there is still a backlog of 30 boys waiting for matches from the organization.

The good news is that 81 boys are already matched, and that is up from 60 in 1986 with a waiting list of 14.
