VOLUNTEER WEEK
APRIL 17 TO 23, 1988

The week of April 17th - 23rd has been proclaimed Volunteer Week in Oakville. A week set aside to acknowledge and THANK our city's thousands of volunteers.

Volunteers, generally working through an agency or organization, give freely of their time and make a significant contribution to filling many of the social and cultural needs in our community. Their reward is the personal satisfaction obtained from knowing that they have helped others.

During Volunteer Week, Oakville's VITAL - VALUED - VIVACIOUS VOLUNTEERS will be recognized wearing small buttons with RED "V's" in the centre. Take a moment to express your gratitude and say "THANKS VOLUNTEER".

There are no age restrictions in volunteer work and many opportunities are available. The only qualification is having concern for others. To find an assignment which you will enjoy, please call or visit the Oakville Volunteer Bureau. Our office is located at 260 Church Street, Suite 6. We are open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. The telephone number is 849-8163 - call anytime.

PUBLIC SERVICE
ANNOUNCEMENT

Want to turn your doodles into something more concrete? The Canadian Mental Health Association - Oakville Branch requires a volunteer layout artist to design its newsletter and flyers. If you're artistically inclined, call to find out more about this interesting volunteer position - 845-5044.

An enthusiastic, flexible volunteer is required to coordinate the bingo fundraising activity of the Canadian Mental Health Association. This coordinator will oversee the activity and will not necessarily attend the bingos. Call CMHA - Oakville at 845-5044 for details.
