

The RCMP's famous Musical Ride is coming to Milton for this year's Fall Fair, which runs Sept. 23, 24 and 25. The Ride, which has been a tradition in Canada since 1887, tours around the world. The 32 horses and riders will perform Friday, Sept. 23 at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday, Sept. 24 at 2 p.m.

Fall fair will feature RCMP musical ride

The famous Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Ride will be the featured attraction at this year's Milton Fall Fair.

Fair Board officials announced this week the RCMP riders will perform at the fairgrounds grandstand Friday, Sept. 23 at 7:30 p.m. and again Saturday, Sept. 24 at 2 p.m.

The 135-year-old Milton Fair, the largest rural-urban showcase in this area, runs Sept. 23, 24 and 25. It features exhibits and competitive events of interest to both rural and urban participants, including livestock shows, horse races, arts and crafts, domestic competitions, fruit and vegetable displays, a woman's theatre program and commercial exhibits. Of interest to the children are the school exhibits, Friday youth day program, a petting zoo, and the midway rides and games.

The RCMP Ride is performed by 32 horses and riders from RCMP headquarters in Ottawa, who tour Canada, the USA and foreign countries as Canada's "goodwill ambassadors" each summer. The Ride has been a colourful tradition and ceremony since 1887, although the history of the RCMP dates back to 1873 when the North-West Mounted Police force was established in Canada.

Miltonians will have a chance to experience a part of our heritage, by seeing the RCMP Musical Ride at Milton fair this fall.

Church celebrates 150 years

A large number of former members worshipped on Sunday April 24 with the congregation at Omagh Presbyterian Church to welcome guest-minister Rev. Larry Welch of Bluevale, Ont.

Omagh church is celebrating its 150th anniversary as a place of worship in this community. Mr. Welch ministered to the congregation from 1979 to 1981 and as usual delivered an inspiring message and also gave the children's story assisted by Rev. Cecil Cunningham of Omagh. Following the morning service a luncheon was enjoyed with a social half hour and fellowship. Mr. Welch was accompanied by his wife Jean and son Gordon. It was indeed a pleasure to meet with them again.

Rev. Brian Nevins will be guest-minister in May.

Congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Brian Kent who were married in Omagh Presbyterian Church on April 16 by Rev. Cecil Cunningham. The bride is the former Josephine (Finnie) Clancy.

The usual Saturday night euchre at Hornby Centre had 16 tables of players and the following winners Elva Middlebrook, Ann Basteard, Mary Marshall, Vera Durie, Donald Douglas, Chas Johnson, Tom Bousfield, Ralph Featherston. Lone hands were played by Ida Carton and Fred Workman with six each.

Douglas McCann will be wearing a cast on his left arm for the next 10-weeks. Douglas had the misfortune to fall recently and broke both bones at the wrist. The bad break had to be

Jehovah's Witnesses announce new event

Jehovah's Witnesses in Canada have announced a new "Special Assembly Day" to be an annual event for the education of their numbers in Bible knowledge and its application to modern life.

This new program will begin for Milton-Burlington area Witnesses May 14, from 9:55 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and is to be held at their Assembly Hall, Hwy. 7, Halton Hills (Norval).

This yearly day-of-lectures and discussion is in addition to the two other annual events held by the Witnesses — a two-day weekend convention and a four-day summer convention.

Along with weekly meetings conducted in local Kingdom Halls, these larger gatherings provide attendees with a well rounded understanding of Bible principles as they relate to the complexities of twentieth century living.

The theme of the first Special Assembly Day will be "Make Sure Of The More Important Things." With today's modern society making so many demands on an individual's time and attention, it is a challenge to keep life's more important things in perspective. Ways will be explored in which Bible standards can be used to set priorities, no matter what an individual's circumstance may be.
