Sam-Son streak at Woodbine
Omagh

Congratulations to Sam Son farms of Fourth Line on their fine showing at Woodbine Raceway on Sunday. They had five entries and had four wins and a place. Sandy Hawley, once the top jockey in the world, returned recently to ride at Woodbine and was the winner on Royal Treasure. Regal Intention won the $90,000 stakes at Woodbine. This colt was born at the Omagh stables and trained in Ocla, Florida. His is one of the top candidates for the Queen's Plate on July 10. Sam Son Farms also won third and fourth in races at Pimlico, Maryland on Sunday. The regular Saturday night euehre at Hornby Community Centre on May 14 had 14 tables in play and the following winners: Mary Workman; Evelyn Wilkie; Myrtle Cunningham; Florrie Alcott; J.C. Cunningham; Lorne Chamberlain; Bill

Golden; and Harvey Dunn. Lone hands were played by Vera Durrie with eight and Harold Middlebrook with six. Michael Wark was received into membership of Bethel United Church on Sunday, May 15. Rev. Jean Jones conducted the confirmation service and worship. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Duimstra on celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. Their family entertained in their honour on May 15 at Harmony Court, Milton. Friends wish them many more years.
