

Violent attack on Oakville youth investigated

Police are investigating a violent attack on an 18-year-old Oakville youth which occurred at Ontario St. and Wakefield Place Saturday evening.

The incident occurred at approximately 10 p.m. as the male youths, one 16, the other 18, were walking back from seeing a movie. Police say the two were near the 16-Mile Creek bridge when they were approached by three males.

The 18-year-old was struck in the nose, and the suspect grabbed the youth's survival knife and held it to his throat. The 16-year-old youth ran for help, while the suspect emptied the 18-year-old's pockets. He stole his cigarettes, but left his knife.

Police are looking for three males, approximately 18-years-old. The male who held the knife to the youth's throat is described as approximately 6'1" with curly blonde shoulder-length hair. He is slim and was wearing one cross earring, jeans, and a blue and white striped shirt.

The second suspect is 5'9", well tanned, with long straight brown hair spiked on the top. He was wearing jeans and a leather jacket.

The third suspect is described as 5'6" to 5'7", thin, dark brown curly hair. He was also well-tanned and was wearing a leather jacket.

DISHONEST EMPLOYEE

Police have charged a 21-year-old Coulson Ave. man with theft and possession of stolen property after they discovered several items missing from Canadian Tire, at his residence. He was found in possession of 18 items.

MILTON YOUTH CHARGED

Police have charged an 18-year-old male who lives on Walkers Line with five counts of theft-under in connection with five recent thefts from auto. The youth will appear in provincial court in Milton on Aug. 16.

IDENTIFIED INDECENT EXPOSER

Police have identified the man they suspect may have committed two indecent acts at Rotary Park last week.

Charges are pending, and police will not yet release details of the man's identity.

Police Blotter

A second indecent act was reported to police on June 28. Sometime during the day a male wearing only a jean jacket, was watching the children play. A similar incident occurred only a few days earlier.

FONDNESS FOR FEMALE CLOTHES
Police report two incidents which occurred in town last week in which articles of female clothing hanging on clotheslines were stolen.

On June 27, clothes hanging on a clothesline at a Main St. residence, were taken. The female resident noticed a white male, approximately 20-years-old, with blond hair, wearing a yellow shirt and baseball cap grabbing the underwear from the line. The suspect fled.

On Sunday July 3 another occurrence of missing clothing was reported. These clothes, belonging to a young girl, were hanging on a line on Ridge Dr. The items were found later in a nearby creek channel.

FACING TWO CHARGES

A 21-year-old Bronte St. resident has been charged with mischief and assault in connection with a forced entry into a home on Fifth Line early Sunday morning. After entering the male slapped a female resident of the house. She was not seriously injured.

STOLEN CAR PARTS

Approximately $5,000 worth of new and antique car parts were stolen from three 1955 Chevys parked at a residence on First Line near No. 3 Sideroad sometime overnight June 27 and June 28. Police have no suspects.
