

Omagh church's 150th anniversary brings young and old together

Members of Omagh Presbyterian Church had a most successful 150th anniversary year. During the past months, former ministers returned to speak from the pulpit.

The climax was reached last week when a barbecue was held at the Boyne Centre Saturday night and the anniversary service was held on Sunday.

Danny Moe, of Surrey, B.C., was a dynamic speaker for the morning and evening services and a large congregation occupied every pew, the seats in the gallery and chairs in the aisles. It reminded one of the anniversary services held in earlier years.

The choir rendered special numbers and gospel songs by the Cole family, Michael, Susan,

Omagh

with ELLA PATTERSON

Heather, Lynne, Grant and Wayne of Rockwood, who were much enjoyed. All were members of Omagh Sunday School for many years.

Reverend Cecil Cunningham welcomed all visitors to this happy event in the life of Omagh congregation.

Former members who returned and enjoyed a reunion with friends were: Mr. and Mrs. Riley of Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Patterson of Sebringville; Mr. and Mrs. Bill

Proud of Listowel; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Fuller of Ospringe; Mr. and Mrs. Colin Marshall of Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peacock of Mississauga; Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Montgomery and family of Oakville;

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sockett of Mississauga; Mrs. Laura Marchment of Streetsville; Mrs. Gwen Lister of Palermo; Mr. and Mrs. Allan Rae of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jenner of Dunnville; Mr. and Mrs. Barry Cole and family of Rockwood; Mrs. Margaret Lyons of Oakville; and Mrs. Joanne Baumann of Elmira.

The anniversary committee are very pleased so many local folks and friends from Boston Church made the anniversary a day to be remembered. We give thanks and our gratitude to those who rest in the cemetery nearby who worked and gave this generation this beautiful church. May Omagh continue to be a place of worship for many more years.

Lunch was served following both services. Souvenir spoons, plates and salt-and-pepper shakers were for sale.

Mrs. Hartley Robertson returned on Saturday from a delightful tour in the British Isles.

The school year has started again for students. The Kindergarten class of Percy W. Merry School will enjoy a trip this week to the Ontario Agricultural Museum.

The next activity in this area will be the annual Milton Fair this weekend. There's lot of interesting things to see and do at the fair.

The beautiful sailboat which was built on the farm at Derry Road and Fourth Line has been completed after 11 years and was moved on Thursday to its new home in Lake Ontario at Bronte.

The large boat, which has created much interest from passersby, required a large crane, much equipment and many hours by workers to get started on its journey.

Birthday good wishes to Stephen Patterson on his first birthday this week.

Quick-fix gourmet a zap

Milton Public Library has a full season of adult programs planned for the fall.

On Thursday Sept. 22, and Sept. 29, sessions on gourmet microwave cooking will be presented by Sandy Dzeletovich.

Ms Dzeletovich will prepare two complete gourmet meals from appetizer to dessert, cooked entirely by microwave. Tickets for each session are $3, the series is $5.

On Thursday Oct. 6 and 13 Milton residents keen on buying a franchise can participate in a two-part workshop. The sessions will present the prospective franchisee with an outline of what he should know before entering a franchise agreement. The registration fee for both sessions is $25.

The microwave and franchise sessions begin at 7:30 p.m.

Friday Oct. 21 is Seniors Day. At 2 p.m. seniors will have an opportunity to visit the library for a leisurely cup of tea and tour of the building. A film will also be shown. The day falls during Public Library Week which runs Oct. 17-23. The day is free.

On Thursday Nov. 4 naturopath Dr. Mark Percival will speak about health versus disease. His lecture will cover mental attitude to health, diet and drugless therapy. Tickets for the session, which begins at 7:30 p.m., are $4.

Bonnie Coulter of Orchids 'N Lace will present a session on silk flower arranging on Wednesday Nov. 16. She will focus on contemporary and traditional arrangements. Tickets for that session are $2. It begins at 7:30 p.m.

On Wednesday Nov. 30 and Dec. 7 two Christmas craft workshops will be conducted by Ann Balanyk. Kits will be available for purchase at each workshop. Participants will have the choice of making a cone wreath, cone tree, or a Christmas basket. Participants should remember to bring their own scissors and glue. Tickets are $2; with a limit of 20 per class.

Anyone seeking registration information or further information on any of the library's programs can visit the library on Bruce St. or call 875-2665.
