

Local schools do well at Heart Lake meet

So far, so good. This might be the motto taken by the Milton District High School's cross-country team.

MDHS, along with E.C. Drury, travelled to the Heart Lake Invitational cross-country meet in Brampton over the weekend and came away with both the overall girls and boys trophies.

Mustangs also won first in the midget girls and midget boys categories. They took second in the junior and senior girls and fourth in the senior boys.

Drury runners finished third in the senior boys division, while the junior boys took fourth.

Individually, Carrie Powers took a gold in the senior girls division for MDHS, while silver medals went to junior girl Tiffany Scobie and midget boy Sam Smith. Karen Johnston finished fourth in the midget girls and Dave Wessinger took fifth in the senior boys.

For the Spartans, Dylan Reynolds won gold in the junior boys race while Jennifer Guzman took fifth in the senior girls and Greg Pokorny finished seventh in the senior boys. Drury coach Richard Van der Wal was pleased with the way his runners performed at the meet.

"Jennifer Guzman is still of junior age, so for her to finish fifth in the senior division is quite an accomplishment," he said.

Other runners for Drury included Kirk Rowbottom, 18th in junior boys, Mike Belford, 35th junior boys and Jason Barlow, 37th junior boys. Melanie Hewitson took 20th in the senior girls. In senior boys, Jason Devine finished 28th, Mike Bascom, 30th, Steve Zikman, 34th and Jim Twist, 62nd.

"We put forth solid team efforts coupled with excellent individual efforts. I'm proud of the way the team performed," said Van der Wal.

For the Mustangs, in the midget girls, Barb Prescott finished 15th, Noreen Dolan, 29th and Brenda Sheppard, 32nd. Other runners were Andrea Govednik and Stephanie Aitken.

In the midget boys division, other performers for the Mustangs were Ryan McLean, seventh overall, Corey McInroy, Ryan Moore, Joe Hertz, Doug Woods and Mark Costain.

Junior Girls: Dawn Hertz, ninth, Tara Laskosky, 12th, Sherry Smith, 21st, Yvonne Martin, 24th and Leticia Martin.

Senior Girls: Erica Pease, 11th, Laura Wood, 17th and Diana Zavitz, 25th.

Senior Boys: Tom Costain, 21st, Marjy Powers, 29th, Kyle

Hasselfeldt, 44th and Rich Englert, 61st.

Mustang coach Bert Vella said he was happy with the way his team performed.

"We showed a lot of spirit during the meet. Everybody was cheering everybody else on. Right now we are a very cohesive unit," said Vella. "I had a feeling both midget teams were going to be very good this year."

Both teams compete in tomorrow's Bishop Reding Invitational cross-country meet at Kelso. After that, Drury goes to the High Park meet on Saturday, while MDHS travels to Kingston on Saturday to take part in the pre-OFSAA race.
