Puppets as large as people entertained Sunday afternoon at the Optimist Centre in a performance sponsored by Milton Performing Arts for Children. The Rag and Bone Puppet Theatre performed The Nightingale for the audience of young and old. Tickets for this and other shows in the subscription series were sold earlier in the year.

Seniors can join VON day program

The Halton branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses opened a new Seniors Day Program in East Oakville in late September.

The program is held in newly outfitted space, part of St. Michael's convent at the corner of Burgundy Drive and Lakeshore Road east. It serves cognitively and memory-impaired seniors, providing specialized activities under the supervision of a specialized staff.

The opening of the centre culminates months of planning by the Halton Branch of the VON. A $97,000 grant for the Trillium Foundation of the Ontario Lottery Corporation allowed the project to begin last spring. Trillium Foundation funding will decrease as provincial funding takes over during next two years.

Service clubs from the region provided funding to refurbish the location and to furnish it with comfortable chairs, tables, and modern appliances. A van to transport clients to and from the centre was also donated.

The centre serves 14 clients two days each week. But, an annual $33,000 commitment from the Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services will soon allow the centre to expand its services to approximately 40 clients five days of the week.

Volunteers are still required to work with the clients at the centre. A training session is given by the VON.

For further information call the VON Seniors Day Program at 338-0047, or the main office of the branch at 878-5773.
