Commodore AMIGA 2000

Amiga 2000 gives you the ability to generate graphics, video effects, titles, animation for video and slides like no other microcomputer. Real multi-tasking with a 4096 simultaneous colour palette gives you the video and slide production tool you need at a price you certainly can afford. Whether you are operating a full broadcast production facility or an in-house studio, whether you need on-line capabilities, character generation, or graphic production, you'll be amazed at what Amiga can do for you.
